Walterville Items

Special Correspondence.

Walterville, Oct. 29.—Clyde Yingling and wife left Thursday for West Virginia, Mr. Yingling's old home. They may only stay this winter and they may reside there permanently, but we rather expect to see them back in "Old Oregon" before many months.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. G. N. McLane and little son, of Camp Creek, who have both been quite ill, are improving nicely.

Chas. Chick, Vincent Chick, Clarence Thomson and Mr. Morton, of Eugene, were in our vicinity a couple of days the latter part of last week cruising timber.

M. A. Brewbaker has gone to Fall Creek to be engineer in Sam Kelly's logging camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Fayette Thomson have gone over to Goshen to visit a few weeks with their son Winthrop and family.

We learn that "Grandma Wickham" is dead, she having lived for several years with her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Rossman, of Leaburg.

Mr. Morrison and family, who have been on the Smeed place for the past two years, are soon going to leave us. We are certainly very sorry to lose such good neighbors but wish them success wherever they go.
