

NEWS NOTES FROM

JASPER VICINITY

S. P. Right-of-Way in That Location Has All Been Secured Except Through One Mon's Place, Other Items

Special Correspondence.

Jasper Nov. 7.—The dance, given last Friday night by Messrs. Delp & Sylvestre, our new store keepers, was very largely attended, there being a great many in attendance from Springfield, Thurston, Pleasant Hill and Fall Creek. It was enjoyed by all. The music was furnished by the Walsh orchestra.

Our ex-merchant, W. B. Scott, is still in our midst. He is corresponding with several different parties, in view of finding a new location, but he says he expects to live here through this winter.

We do not see Mr. Edwards, the right-of-way man, in our locality any more. We suppose he is through here, as he has acquired all of the right-of-way except through the Dove Jacoby place. It seems they cannot come to terms.

E. C. Hills has purchased property in Eugene and moved there to live. He has rented his farm to Artur Lindly for three years and Mr. Lindly has moved upon the same.

George Deane, our ex-blacksmith, is talking of moving to Colorado for his wife's health, as she is troubled considerably with rheumatism. We hope to hear of her complete recovery soon.

A telephone message was received here yesterday of the death of the six weeks old child of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mitchell, of Pleasant Hill. It came very sudden and unexpected, as the child was seemingly well in the morning when Mr. Mitchell left for Row River, where he is engaged in logging and soon after he left it was attacked with croup and died soon after.

Mrs. W. B. Scott has just returned from a two days' visit with friends in Springfield.

Mrs. Katie Walsh and daughter Stella, took the train yesterday for Coburg, where they will spend a few days visiting Mrs. Walsh's daughter, Mrs. Owen Thompson.

Charles Eaton is working near Marcola at the S. P. sawmill and logging camp.

E. C. Hills, of Eugene, is in our burg transacting business today.

Word comes from the S. P. surveying camp near Hazel Dell that Hicks, the foreman of one of the surveying crews, has cut his foot quite badly.

Ab Mateney has just finished a log contract for B. K. L. Co. He will make his home at Jasper this winter.

Saturday night the 17th is election night here for the W. O. W. officers. We would like to have a large attendance on that evening.

Certificates of Deposit

Money in a bank secured by a certificate of deposit, is placed where it will earn interest.

A Certificate of Deposit may be cashed at any time the depositor may be in need of money, so the money is really not tied up at all.

A Certificate of Deposit is better than diamonds, because its value cannot decrease; and diamonds are often lost.

Certificates of Deposit are negotiable.

There are many other good things we might say about our Certificates of Deposit. Call in and let us talk it over.
