

Lorane Items

Special Correspondence.
Lorane, Nov. 8.—Ben Crow returned from the hospital last week and it is reported that he is getting along as well as can be expected.
Captain O'Brien has gone to Eugene with parties from the lower basins, who will make final proof of their homesteads.
Mr. Fenwick, a young man, who left here some twenty-five years ago, returned from Burns, where he has since resided. He intends spending the winter here and seems delighted to revisit old scenes and greet the friends of youth.
An attentive listener can but detect the minor chord usually attendant upon such renewals of friends, for many spoken of as being here then and hearty have passed to the beyond while the poet's words fitly fit when he says:
Some few are still remaining,
To remind us of the past;
But they change, as all things change here,
Nothing in this world can last."
However, the remaining few have heartily welcomed Mr. Fenwick and his back and present residents greatly enjoy these reminiscences of other days. He came overland with a number of others, but the other parties have gone on to You-tilla.

Lowell Items

Special Correspondence.
Lowell, Nov. 7.—Charles Hills, Fred Hills and Victor Sharp took a hunt of three days last week on Sour Mountain and killed one bear, two gray wolves and four deer. They were several more wolves, which seem to kill more deer than the hunters do, are numerous can be found in many places. Why not put a bounty on their scalps and give some encouragement to hunters to kill them?
The hunters are returning, saying game is somewhat scarce.
Mr. Lowell, of High Prairie, sold several head of beef steers and fat pigs to Mr. Parks, of Pleasant Hill, last week.
Frank Warner, of Fall Creek, is cutting a trail up Salmon and Salt rivers.
