

NEWS ITEMS FROM COTTAGE GROVE

A special Sunday school convention of the Cottage Grove district will be held in Cottage Grove Monday and Tuesday, December 3 and 4, at the Presbyterian church. Rev. Charles A. Phipps, the field secretary for Oregon, will conduct the convention.

Dr. Corpron, who went from here to Medford about a year ago, has with his wife gone to India, Asia, as a missionary. It is not understood that the doctor will minister to the health in spiritual matters, but he goes to give attention to their physical ills.

Mrs. Holderman, with the children came out of Bohemia last Saturday and had to wallow through the snow for almost a mile. Half of the way the depth was three feet and so soft that snowshoes had to be worn. Mrs. Holderman is not an expert on snowshoes, hence she had to wade. Her husband wore his snowshoes and carried their little daughter, a tot of three years. The last half mile was better walking, there being a crust that did not break.

On Friday last Conway Potter, aged 21 years, at one time a soldier in Co. G, 15th United States Infantry, drifted into town and bought a bottle of Peruvian bitters of which he partook liberally. Soon he was drunk. He went to Joe Watkins' residence and raised a disturbance. Chief Underwood was called and took the youngster to the cooler. By Saturday morning he was himself again and was taken before Recorder Young, where he pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly. He was fined five dollars, and not having the money he laid in jail.—Western Oregon.
