ELMIRA ITEMS.

(Special Correspondence.)

Elmira, Dec. 13.--

Elmira by some is thought to be dead

But that is all a mistake;

For she has only been asleep,

And now she is going to wake.

There is to be a Christmas tree at the Baptist church on Christmas eve. Everybody invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Bogard, of Washington, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Tom Fountain.

We are sorry to learn that Warren Nichols and family are to leave us and move to Eugene to reside in the future.

Clarence Zumwalt has quit farming and gone to running a meat wagon; short orders promptly filled.

A spelling school was held at the "Fir Grove" school house Friday evening. Those present had a good time.

Mrs. Harvey Duckworth, of Kent, Or., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allison.

R. M. Trout has erected a new blacksmith shop. Elmira now has two first-class blacksmiths.

A large number of our citizens are reported on the sick list.

John Blanton is visiting J. Horn.

Clifford Duckworth, who has been in Nevada for some time, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Arvilla Duckworth.

Charles Deming has moved his family to Franklin.

Listen for the wedding bells along about New Years. Good resolutions, boys.

Rev. Marion Horn occupied the pulpit at the Christian church Sunday.

Anderson Cheshire, of Fern Ridge, has become a frequent visitor at Elmira. Some think there must be attractions.

C. E. Duckworth had a lively coyote chase last week, but was not successful in catching it.

Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, regulates the bowels, aids the kidneys, cures stomach troubles, builds up the nervous force and repairs the ill effects of over eating. Tea or tablets. 35 cents. Linn Drug Co.

Lisk Sanitary Roasters are guaranteed for ten years. Can you afford to be without one? See them in the south show window.
