CITY NEWS.

Marriage licenses were granted yesterday to the following couples: Edgar R. Roberts, aged 26, of Springfield, and Miss Maude A. Chamberlain, 19, of Florence; Burton E. Cobb, 27, and Elizabeth A. Workman, 22, of the lower Sluslaw.

The Albany high school basketball team arrived this afternoon and will play against the local team tonight.

The Hyland Bros' lot of 86 bales of hops have been sold to Tooze & Page for 12 1/2 cents a pound.

The plastering on the interior of the new Catholic church has been completed. Father O'Farell expects the windows to arrive from Portland any day.

C. W. Reeves, a waiter, was released from the city jail last night after serving a ten-days' sentence for being drunk. He again proceeded to fill up on "soft drinks" and was found in a bad condition by Chief of Police Farrington. He was taken to jail again and will be sentenced when Judge Dorris returns.

Tooze & Page have just purchased 168 bales of hops from W. P. Cheshire, of Eugene, at 12 cents per pound.

The Willamette at Eugene is at a 5-foot stage.

Henry McKinney, the big U. O. football star, will play guard on the Multnomah in his Christmas game with the Seattle Athletic Club.

Company C underwent muster and inspection last night, after which a dance was indulged in. It was largely attended.

Sam T. Thurston, the former football star, who has had consumption for several years, is now reported in a very bad condition. He and his wife are at Phoenix, Arizona.

The jury in the case of Russell Goddard, accused of the larceny by baillee of eight cords of wood from Geo. A. Dorris, returned a verdict of not guilty.

Chief of Police Farrington says he was not mistaken in the name of the street given him over the phone at the time of yesterday's fire alarm. Furthermore, he says the message came from the telephone office and the girl who received the original message is responsible for the mistake.

Vacation at the public schools began today.

Fred Stickle, the new assistant postmaster, has severed his connection with the county clerk's office and is now "getting on to the ropes" in his new position.

A game of basketball between the Cyclops team of this city and a team from Cottage Grove will be played in the armory Saturday night. The teams are said to be evenly matched and an interesting game is looked for.
