SOCIETY EVENTS OF THE WEEK

A dearth of social doings is very noticeable in the society of the past week, owing to the Christmas time, but there are gay affairs planned for the near future.

One of the enjoyable affairs of the week was the Christmas party tendered to a large number of the university students by Miss Margaret Cundiff on Wednesday evening. The decorations of the house were in keeping with this festive season and in the front room stood the gaily decorated Christmas tree with its drooping branches laden with packages. Old Santa was there with his pack, and this merry old man produced much fun with his distribution of presents. During the evening refreshments consisting of popcorn balls, apples, and nuts were enjoyed. The students went home feeling that staying in town for the holidays has its compensations.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Ada Hendricks and Richard Smith, which will take place on the evening of January 3d.

Members of the Married Folks' Amusement Club held one of their pleasant parties at the armory on Wednesday evening. Besides the club members a number of invited guests enjoyed the cards and dancing.

Miss Agnes Stevenson entertained with a dinner on Thursday evening at the Koshe Tillamook clubhouse. The rooms looked charming in their Yuletide decorations of greens and red berries. After the dinner music and dancing were indulged in until a late hour. Mrs. Elizabeth Humphrey chaperoned the young people. The guests were the Misses Myra Loveridge, Eda Humphrey, Winnie Kelly, Hazel Humphrey and Frances Kelly, Messrs. Grover Kestley, Olin Arnsperger, Paul Bond, Bert Shoemaker, Roy Zacharias, and Donald Stevenson.

Miss Etha Williams entertained with an elaborate luncheon on Thursday evening, in honor of Mrs. Condon McCornack, of Portland. The invited guests were the Misses Grace Parker, Amy Dunn, Mertie Auten, Ada Hendricks, Ruby Hendricks, Alice Link, Elma Hendricks, Mrs. C. A. Burden, Huddle, Lair Thompson (Albany) and Mrs. Condon McCornack.

Mrs. W. W. Calkins entertained this afternoon with Mrs. Frank Calkins (Ashland) and Mrs. W. K. Scarborough as guests of honor. Mr. and Mrs. Scarborough leave in the near future for San Jose, California, where they will make their home. The guests were met at the door by the little Misses Madge and Janet Calkins, and the hostess was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. John Straub, Mrs. S. M. Calkins, Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Samuel Roome, and Mrs. Minnie Washburn. The hall, drawing room and dining room were tastefully decorated in asparagus fern, chrysanthemum and Oregon grape.

Society matrons and Beau Brummels must bear in mind their New Year's calls. The Thimble Club will be at the home of Mrs. McMunroe, where all friends of the club will be made welcome. The Fortnightly Club will keep open house at their club rooms in the library building and a cordial invitation is extended to all. New Year's day is also to be observed by the Thursday Afternoon Club, the place to be announced later.

On Thursday afternoon Miss Lucia Campbell entertained a number of her girl friends in compliment to Miss Helen White, of Portland. It was a very pleasant gathering and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Society Personals.
Dr. Condon McCornack and wife, of Portland, are spending the holidays in Eugene with relatives.
Mrs. Ada Sheiton is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert McMurphy.

Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Litter, of Albany, are spending Christmas week with Mrs. Litter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Robinson.

Dr. R. L. Willoughby and son Paul are visiting in California with Mrs. Willoughby, who is wintering there.

Mrs. A. E. Cartier, of Livingston, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Cartier, of South Bend, Wash., were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Taylor, West Seventh street, the past week.

Mrs. Geo. O'B. DeBar entertained the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church on Friday afternoon. (Continued on Page 8)

AMUSEMENTS

There must be something more than mere curiosity that impels the theatre going public to accept a play season after season and year after year with little change of minor importance in the production. There must be cleanliness and deep heart interest and originality of expression. In fact, the play must be a classic, and that is just why that pure comedy play of Hoosier country life, "Sis Hopkins," is received year after year with increasing enthusiasm. Miss Rose Melville, who created the title role, is still playing the leading character, that of the awkward and shy little country girl, whose mannerisms awaken the interests of her hearers, is now making her eighth tour of the country, and the success which she is meeting with is more brilliant and pronounced than ever. This season's tour is the longest in point of distance that Miss Melville has ever made, and her company has been so strengthened by her manager, J. R. Stirling, that every part is perfectly cast. Every actor is a specialist in the particular character he portrays. The famous seminary scene has been filled to the uttermost with new specialties and brilliant bits of comedy. "Sis Hopkins" will be at the Eugene theatre Tuesday evening, January 1.

The members of the Mohawk Debating Society will on Monday, December 31st, play a three-act comedy entitled, "It's All in the 'Pay Streak'." After the play a basket social will be given.

A DANDY FOR BURNS.
Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommended it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better made. 'It is a dandy for burns.' Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidents, cuts, burns and bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house, for cases of emergency." 25c., 50c., and $1. Sold by Linn Drug Co.

LONG FELT WANT IN EUGENE.

While working in the largest dyeing and cleaning works on the coast and while there seeing lots of garments shipped from Eugene to be dry-cleaned, or dyed, and after investigating and going over the ground thoroughly we saw at once that there was a good opening for a first-class cleaning and dyeing works in Eugene. So we have decided to put in a first-class plant and are doing well from the start. We are the only experts in this line north of San Francisco, and have had over 12 years' experience and guarantee all work.
