CITY NEWS.

Weather Prediction.
Snow flurries and colder tonight; Sunday, probably cooler.

Dr. Lowe, the optician, will be in his Eugene office until next Wednesday evening.

The will of W. O. Jones has been filed for probate. The property of the estate is valued at $1000, and is left to his father, J. P. Jones, of Charlottesville, Va., and a nephew.

The stage lines are again operating on schedule time. Thursday's St. Louis mail arrived last evening, a day late, but hereafter it is expected to come in on time.

Martha R. Bennett has been appointed administratrix of the estate of John R. Bennett, who died on December 23, 1906. The probable value of the property of the estate is $1700.

The material for the new Coburg bridge passed through the city today. It is to be of steel, like all the new structures being put in by the S. P.—Yesterday's Albany Democrat.

Professor Sweetser will deliver a special address Sunday to the Bible class in the east lecture room of the M. E. church at time of Sunday school on the subject, "The revelation of a book older than Genesis."

Mrs. Mary Goodrich today instituted divorce proceedings in the circuit court against her husband, David Goodrich, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. They were married in New York state April 2, 1887. They have no children.

E. S. LaDuke, of Fairmount, is carrying one of his hands in a sling as the result of shooting through a finger. In attempting to shoot a rabbit with a pistol it went off too soon and the bullet went through the finger.

The Woodmen of the World installed their new officers in I. O. O. F. hall last night. Addresses were delivered by several members and a general good time was had. Congressman Hawley was to have been present but could not come on account of the flood.

W. L. Ford, proprietor of the Hazelwood restaurant and "soft drink" place, was placed under arrest last night, charged with conducting a disorderly place, and ordered to appear before Police Judge Dorris this morning. At the appointed hour he was on hand, but the complaint against him was dismissed.

The theatre cafe is the best in town.

What the ticker says is keeping spectators guessing. What we say is, stop guessing when it comes to your tobacco taste. If you are looking for a really good cigar, one that has the sweet flavor that every lover of the week longs for, you will find it in the MOUNT HOOD CIGAR.

The Luxury of Losing

Yours for less than they cost us, and thank you for making us poorer. We bought too many Toilet Sets for Christmas, and are paying for our blunder by selling them at less than their actual value. But it isn't clear loss—for we have an offset in the value of the experience.

ELI BANGS BUYS OUT A. C. RUBY

Eli Bangs, formerly in the ivory stable business in Eugene and who recently sold out to Barnard & West and removed with his family to Lawton, in Eastern Oregon, is in the city for a few days on business. The Guard learns that he has just purchased the extensive stock yards and business of A. C. Ruby at Pendleton, and has taken charge, removing his family to that city to reside. Mr. Ruby, who is also formerly of Eugene, had one of the finest yards of stock in the country. He imported a large number of pure bred horses from Europe and some of them are now in the hands of Lane county farmers.

Mr. Bangs sold his stock farm at Lawton, taking as part payment a hotel at Ontario, Or. He did not conduct the hotel, but leased it to other parties and decided on the Pendleton deal.

Too Late for Christmas.

Our Christmas Rockers arrived three days after Christmas; rather than carry them over we will sell them at a reduction in price.

SCOBERT & DODGE MAKING CHANGE IN BUSINESS

Scobert & Dodge, as will be noticed in their advertisement in another column, will, as soon as they are able to sell off their present stock of goods, engage in wholesale produce and commission business. They will conduct their business at the same stand as at present, at the corner of West Eighth and Olive streets. This is one of Eugene's most successful business firms. A little less than five years ago they purchased a small grocery store, on West Eighth street, a few doors west of their present location.

They remained there only a short time, as their business soon outgrew their quarters, and moved to the Hovey building on the corner. While they have made money in the grocery business alone, more was made in the produce and commission business which they conducted in connection, and they have finally decided to devote their entire attention to that branch.

The theatre cafe tries to please every one. dit

It will pay you to see our chairs in north show window whether you buy or not; they are the newest styles, direct from the factory. CHAMBERS' HARDWARE.

ESTRAY NOTICE.
One Jersey calf came to my place at Mabel about November 15, 1906, marked with an underbit in each ear. Owner can have the same by paying for this advertisement and for keeping of the calf. Cal Hileman, Mabel, Ore. 115

Mrs. Cinderella Howard was this afternoon appointed administrator of the estate of her husband, Samuel N. Howard, the pioneer who died at his home, three miles north of the city, on December 23, 1906. The estimated value of the property is $17,500. The heirs are as follows: His wife, Cinderella Howard, and the following children: Emmett, DeWitt C., Dolpha M., Bessie, Jessie B. and Nellie C.
