

ANNUAL SALE OF PROPERTY FOR BACK TAXES

The annual sale of property for delinquent taxes was held in Sheriff Fisk's office this forenoon. There was a fair-sized crowd of bidders present and most of the property was bid in at no per cent, although some of the pieces brought as high as six per cent. The principal bidders were Geo. T. Hall, L. M. Travis, John F. Kelly, Devereaux & Tripp, J. W. Zimmerman, A. C. Jennings and Mrs. Mary Anderson.

AMUSEMENTS

Leonora Jackson, violinist, assisted by Florence Marion Pace, soprano, Charles E. Clark, baritone, and Ralph E. Plumer, pianist, will appear at the Eugene theatre next Monday evening under the auspices of the University of Oregon School of Music. Single admissions, $1.00. Subscriptions to the School of Music entertainment course are now due, payable at Linn's drug store.

DIED.

At Walthersville, January 4, 1907, of old age, S. T. Coney, aged 75 days, January 5.

In Eugene, January 4, 1907, Forest B., the ten-days-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson. Funeral Saturday, January 5.

The difference between rock and management depends on whether a friend or an enemy is telling all about it.

Every man has a right to his own opinion as long as he keeps it to himself.

The Odds.

I plead
 To lead
 The simple life.
 The dream
 Don't seem
 To suit my wife.
 On that point we Cannot agree;
 She wants a life of luxury.
 A crust
 Is just
 A royal feast;
 Good stuff
 Enough.
 To say the least,
 To make me feel
 As fine as seal,
 But she enjoys a seven course meal.
 A worn
 And torn
 Ten dollar suit
 For mine
 Is fine
 And swell to boot;
 She wants a gown
 From Paris town
 And on a lesser one will frown.
 She frets
 And gets
 Into a stew
 And jaws
 Because
 The rent's past due.
 I don't get sore
 Upon that score,
 For I'm not built to walk the floor.

Choosing Evils.

Between two evils we are told to choose the least. That sounds like good advice, but suppose a man is between an infuriated bull and a barb wire fence, what is he to do? The bull is bearing down on him at the rate of forty miles a second, and the fence looks higher than the board wall around a fifty cent ball game; besides, it is liberally covered with stickers. Perhaps a philosopher would stand for an instant and make a hasty calculation as to which was the lesser evil, but while he was doing that the bull would saunter along and toss him against the fence, and then he would be in a better position to judge as to which was the lesser evil, having sampled both.

It is all right to choose between two evils, but if a man has such freedom of choice wouldn't it be the part of wisdom to choose neither?

KEEP MONEY AT HOME.

The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

A bond for the faithful performance of the contract will be required.

The Ideal Family Laxative

is one that can be used by the entire family, young and old, weak and strong, without any danger of harmful effects. It should have properties which insure the same dose, always having the same effect, otherwise the quantity will have to be increased and finally lose its effect altogether. These properties can be found in that old family remedy, Brandreth's Pills, because its ingredients are of the purest herbal extracts, and every pill is kept for three years before being sold, which allows them to mellow. We do not believe there is a laxative on the market that is so carefully made.

Brandreth's Pills are the same fine laxative tonic pill your grandparents used. They have been in use for over a century, and are sold in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar-coated.

The Right Name.

Mr. August Sherpe, the popular overseer of the poor at Fort Madison, Ia., says: "Dr. King's New Life Pills are rightly named; they act more agreeably, do more good and make one feel better than any laxative." Guaranteed to cure biliousness and constipation. 25c at W. L. DeLano's drug store.

SENATOR GEARIN SPEAKS ON JAP QUESTION TODAY

congress in regard to the treatment of Japanese on the Pacific coast.

"California," said Mr. Gearin, "is under no obligations to the federal government to have public schools or any kinds of schools at all. And, if she does have them, it is her province and not that of the federal government to say how they shall be maintained and conducted and under what conditions."

Replying to the claim of the president's message that the treaty with Japan guarantees protection to and right to attend public schools in all states of the Union and to attend them in company with white children Mr. Gearin denied emphatically that there is any provision in the treaty which by any sort of construction can be made to support such a claim. He said that nothing is said in the treaty about the right to attend public schools, and that the specific enumeration of what was intended by the framers of the treaty showed that nothing should be left to inference. He quoted from the treaty to show that the Japanese residents in this country may have the privileges enumerated only by conforming to the laws, police and customs regulations of the country, like native citizens and subjects, and this meant state laws as well as federal laws.

Mr. Gearin declared that China would be in a position to demand the admission of her cheap labor if the privilege continues to be accorded to Japan.

"We are homogenous people, connected by blood and kinship. And although we of the west are far away from the nation's capitol as the longitude marks, yet we are a part of the nation's fame and sheltered by the nation's protection. There are voices calling to us out there—voices of cheer and good will, and we stop and listen at times and they speak to us of a brotherhood of American laborers and American capital—a brotherhood of American genius and American enterprises—a brotherhood of American loyalty and American patriotism, and it strengthens our hearts and cheers us because we are brothers all and you will listen to us and sympathize and aid us because of this brotherhood."

Substitute Resolution.
 As a substitute to the Foraker resolution and Lodge amendment thereto, Lodge has prepared another resolution which it is said he will introduce today, simply authorizing the committee on military affairs to make inquiry and take testimony in regard to the Brownsville affair. The resolution in effect would leave the question of whether the president had authority to discharge the negro troops. It is not believed that Foraker will consent to the substitute.

Cured of Lung Trouble.
 "It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both day and night. Finally I began taking Dr. Kink's New Discovery and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons healed every year. Guaranteed at W. L. DeLano's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
