THE M' KENZIE VALLEY ELECTRIC RAILWAY LINE

Manager Hodgson, of the Willamette Valley, and Another Official Leave for Blue River City to File on Power Sites

C. W. Hodgson, manager of the Willamette Valley Company's office in this city, in company with another gentleman whose identity could not be learned, but supposed to be a member of the corporation, left here this morning on a trip up the McKenzie river, expecting to be gone several days. Mr. Hodgson, when asked by a Guard reporter just as he was starting this morning as to the object of the trip, said he would tell when he returned, but it is known that it is in connection with the company's proposed electric railroad up the McKenzie, mention of which the Guard has made several times within the past year. It is presumed that Mr. Hodgson and the other gentlemen while up the river will file on water power sites. They will go as far as Blue River City and will take their time on the trip, viewing the country and making observations as to the best route for the line.

A TALE OF LIFE

Quincy Adams Sawyer Tells It Simply But Effectively.

Quincy Adams Sawyer was in town last night. This statement will find its way to two classes—those who want to see him and those who did not. Then in turn the first class must be again sub-divided, the classification being those who have been "down East" and those who have not. To the former of this latter classification, seeing Sawyer, the "handy man," it meant breathing again the atmosphere of the old scenes, and to the latter a revelation of life.

The Quincy Adams Sawyer here better known as William A. Williams, but surrounded by a talent rarely seen here, he portrayed to the theatergoer what the "human interest" story is to the newspaper reader.

The play presented under the title, "Quincy Adams Sawyer," is the old, old and oft-told tale of New England.

Under its pervading charm of rural simplicity, wherein life in its simplest form is bespoken, there is still the alternating flash of love and hate, the crash of black passions, but with the inevitable reconciliation and repentance.

"Quincy Adams Sawyer" is a simple tale of life, one that goes to the heart, and is one that is well told.

Of the people who enter into the telling of this old story of life Williams stands as a star. He cries and you weep; he laughs and you laugh with him. Simple, plain, kind Sawyer—he is one of the most lovable characters you ever met.

And Samantha Green, the "aggravating brat," well, she's got Sis Hopkins herself faded. You can't cry with her because she won't let you. In a criticism you can mention Tyrrell, Titus, Alberta Keen, and all the rest of them. They were all good.

If "Quincy Adams Sawyer" plays a return date at Hoquiam it is certain that they will have a crowded house.

—Hoquiam Washingtonian.

"Quincy Adams Sawyer" will appear here on Tuesday night, January 21st.

Notice of Final Settlement.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, administrator of the estate of Caddie D. REV. CARLISLE P. B. MARTIN,

L. L. D., writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm which produces a rough and is very hard to dislodge, but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." Sent by Linn Drug Co.

PHILANTHROPIST COOPER ARRIVES IN ST. LOUIS

St. Louis, Jan. 6.—L. T. Cooper, the man who has created a sensation throughout the East, and who is rapidly acquiring a national reputation, arrived in St. Louis yesterday. Cooper is the president of the Cooper Medicine Company, of Dayton, Ohio, and has made a fortune within the past few years estimated at several millions, by the sale of two preparations, which are claimed to be very unusual, and which are said to accomplish remarkable results.

Cooper spends his time traveling from city to city introducing these remedies, and in this manner he has acquired the fortune which he now possesses.

Cooper is said to be a very remarkable character, and a man with eccentric ideas; one of his beliefs is that a certain part of his income should be devoted to charitable work, and he is said to give thousands of dollars to the poor in each city which he visits.

His charitable work is original, as he is constantly devising new methods of making money to give the most pleasure and relief possible.

The most remarkable feature of Cooper's work is what is known as his "Three minute cure of deafness." In cities visited by him during the past three years he has appeared nightly before large audiences and offered to make any one hear within less than three minutes if they would come upon the stage. Reports from Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Detroit, Cleveland, Louisville and other cities, seem to indicate that Cooper actually did as he claimed.

Each night he is said to have removed, before thousands of people, cases of deafness in about three minutes' time with one of his preparations. The accounts of his work appear in all the leading "dailies" of the East, and people have flocked to him from all parts of the country.

The sale of his preparations is said to reach enormous proportions within a week after Cooper arrives in a city. Whether he will be as successful in St. Louis as elsewhere remains to be seen.

TO ENJOY A GOOD DINNER

How to Avoid Distress and Indigestion After Eating.

Let us tell you how you can enjoy a good dinner, so that the heartiest meal will set well on your stomach and cause no unpleasant and disagreeable after effects.

We will show you how to regain the appetite of your childhood and the enjoyment of food, so that it will taste as well as when mother cooked the dinner.

There is no hard work necessary to do this; no need of a rigid and self-denying diet list; no call for nasty and disagreeable medicines. Simply take a Mi-o-na stomach tablet before each meal and before going to bed, and it will so strengthen the stomach that before long a hearty meal will give you gratification and comfort, without the least fear of distress and suffering.

The strongest proof we can offer of our faith in this advice is the fact that Hull's drug store gives an absolute, unqualified guarantee (applying to two 50c boxes of Mi-o-na) that your money will be refunded unless Mi-o-na cures. A guarantee like this gives you confidence in Mi-o-na. Mr. Hull takes the whole risk, and the remedy will not cost you a penny unless it cures.

Mi-o-na is not a mere digestive, giving only a temporary relief, but a specific for all diseases of the stomach, strengthening the digestive organs and making a permanent cure. J 7-17-28

LONG FELT WANT IN EUGENE.

While working in the largest dyeing and cleaning works on the coast and while there seeing lots of garments shipped from Eugene to be dry-cleaned, or dyed, and after investigating and going over the ground thoroughly we saw at once that there was a good opening for a first-class cleaning and dyeing works in Eugene. So we have decided to put in a first-class plant and are doing well from the start. We are the only experts in this line north of San Francisco, and have had over 12 years' experience and guarantee all work. All articles dyed and cleaned by us are treated separately for sanitary purposes and done by hand. In this way we obtain good results and as no machinery is used in our work that will tear or injure the fabric.

McFALL'S DAIRY HERD FREE FROM DISEASE

Eugene, Or., Dec. 28, 1906.

I hereby certify that I have examined and tested the dairy herd of McFall Bros. and find entire herd in perfect health and free from all diseases, with the exception of three cows which I have found affected with tuberculosis, and I have condemned the same and they will be killed.

I cheerfully recommend their dairy products as being absolutely pure and free from all diseases, and handled with the greatest of care.
