

BOOTH-KELLY COMPANY'S BOOM WENT OUT

Four Million Feet of Logs Escaped From Winberry Creek - Some Will Be Saved but Many Are Piled High on the Banks - Unity
Notes

(Special Correspondence.)
Unity, Jan. 9.—The Booth-Kelly company's boom in the Winberry creek broke during the high water of last week, entailing a loss of about 4,000,000 feet of first-class saw logs.
The company will get a good number of the logs, but they are thrown out in drifts and on bars, and there will be quite an expense to get them back into the river.

J. B. Hill's logging camp is about five miles from the mouth of Win-berry creek, and he reports the creek as being cleared, very few logs being left from his camp to the mouth of the creek. It is not known yet whether the camp will shut down or whether or not the company will put in another boom.

Addie Edwards went to Portland last week to reside with her brother, Arthur and Win Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McGregory returned from Portland last week. Mr.
McGregory will resume his position as foreman in the Booth-Kelly camp.

The Rev. Erskine filled the pulpit at this place Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barbary, formerly of Nevada, are visiting at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hyland. They expect to move to California in the near future.

W. Chear of no fatalities from the recent high water.

Henry Matteson, who disappeared the evening of the high water, has been heard from. He was on the Butte Eagles' Rest, but since the water has gone down he has returned, apparently feeling safe.

This is hard weather on the small grain, as the freeze during the night and thawing during the day will be very injurious, as the ground is full of water.

Clyde Warner has a smile on his face a yard long since he is papa.

The government has established a new postoffice at the Winberry bridge with A. J. Renfro as postmaster.
