

BRYAN WILL BE GIVEN A RECEPTION

Distinguished Citizen Who Speaks at University Thursday Evening Will Be Entertained at Commercial Club in Afternoon - His Subject Not Yet Announced

The general public will have a chance to meet Wm. J. Bryan, the great Democratic orator, here next Thursday afternoon at the Eugene Commercial Club, when an informal reception will be tendered him soon after his arrival on the 2:05 train in the afternoon. Before his lecture at the university he will be banquetted by his friends here, and the Democrats of the city are looking toward the event as the day of the year 1907.

Just what the great orator will talk on at the university has not been learned, but in all probability the subject will be chosen from something observed on his recent trip abroad, when he went around the world. At any rate, whatever he speaks on, the subject will be well worth listening to.

The prices for admission will be 50 and 75 cents. The 50-cent seats are those in Villard hall which are in the balcony, with the exception of the first two rows, and those downstairs which are underneath the balcony. The 75-cent seats are those in the middle of the first floor and the first two rows in the galleries.

The seats will be on sale at Linn's drug store next week.

Democratic Reception Committee.
To show proper honor to the distinguished leader, William Jennings Bryan, upon his visit to Eugene on the 24th day of January by the members of his political faith, L. M. Travis, chairman of the Lane County Democratic Central Committee, has appointed the following reception committee, to act in conjunction with the state committee, in receiving Mr. Bryan at Eugene: J. D. Matlock, chairman; L. R. Edmanson, Lark Bilyeu, Frank Osburn, T. G. Hendricks, Fred Flisk and M. S. Wallis, of Eugene; Robert Venatch and J. S. Medley, of Cottage Grove; Clayborn P. Huston, of Junction; E. P. Williams, of Lost Valley, and Dr. A. Sharples, of Goshen.

As many of the committee as can will go to Salem on the morning of January 23d and hear Mr. Bryan's address before the legislature and his speech in the evening, which will be the only political speeches which he will deliver in Oregon, and return on the train the 24th upon which Mr. Bryan will come to Eugene.

Although the visit of the distinguished citizen to Eugene will be entirely non-political, and under the auspices of the Lyceum lecturing bureau, yet the Lane county democrats will not lose this opportunity of hearing this great exponent of Democratic principles.

All kinds of clothes cleaned, pressed and dyed at the Eugene Steam Laundry.

RAY ELLIS DEMANDS AN EXAMINATION

Young Man Arrested at Grant's Pass, Charged with a serious Crime, will Appear Before Judge Bryson Jan. 28.

Ray Ellis, the young man who was arrested at Grant's Pass Thursday, charged with the crime of incest, alleged to have been committed against his niece, Miss Loretta Brown, of Mabel, was brought back by Deputy Sheriff H. W. Gramam on the late train last night. He was placed in the county jail over night and was taken before Judge Bryson of the justice court this forenoon. He demanded an examination, and it was set for Jan. 28. The prisoner failed to give bonds, and in the meantime he will remain in jail.

GUARD PRINTING PLANT NOW EQUIPPED

The Guard's new printing press is doing good work and seems to fully meet the requirements of the office.

This machine now completes the Guard's printing plant and probably no paper in the Northwest, in a similar field, is better prepared to handle its work, as far as machinery is concerned, than is the Guard Printing Company.

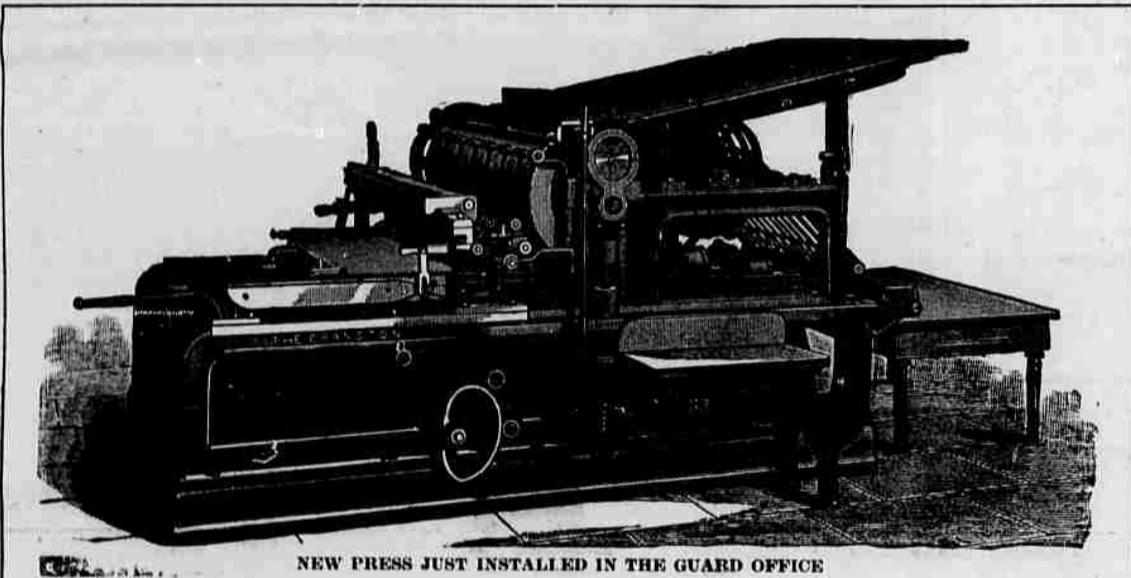

Among the additions to the plant made since May 1st, when the company was reorganized, have been a each copy printed, giving a circle of regular readers that numbers not less than 20,000. Its job printing business has grown steadily, and is now one of its chief sources of revenue. Its future growth may reasonably be expected to be more rapid in the future than in the past owing to amazing development of the West in general and the Willamette Valley in particular, and it was to be prepared for this that the publishers have equipped their office with modern machinery that cannot be surpassed in even the largest city offices.

Fellows went to Coburg last evening to assist in the installation of officers at that place. Notwithstanding the rough, cold ride they report a very pleasant evening.

Mr. Matchen, proprietor of the Springfield Provision Company, informs us that he has sold his fine Eugene residence to a Vancouver man. He expects to build an up-to-date house in Springfield in the near future.

Frederick LaRue, of Eugene, this week closed a deal with Henry Cogill whereby he comes in possession number 5—the latest model—Mergenthaler linotype, the Cranston two-revolution book and newspaper press, just installed, a new Eclipse newspaper folder, a half-medium jobber, a large amount of type, furniture and other printing material, the entire cost of the additions being between $8000 and $10,000.

The Guard has made these improvements because growing business justified, its receipts from all sources having increased over 50 per cent for the year just passed over any previous year's record. Faith in the future of Eugene has also had something to do with our desire to equip the office with machinery that will serve its purpose of printing a newspaper large enough for a city twice the present size of Eugene.

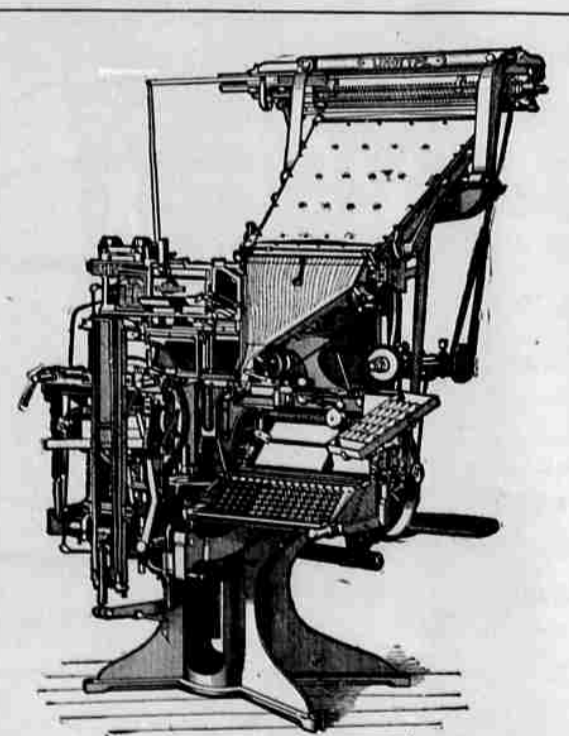

For nearly half a century the Guard has been the home paper of Eugene and the upper Willamette valley and there are numerous families which have never been without the paper during all these years, while children of the old pioneer families have scattered over the entire Northwest and the Guard's circulation has thus been extended to distant localities where it is still the favorite paper in the home circle. Years ago it had for its editors such men as C. H. (Joaquin) Miller, the famous poet, and Hon. "Tony" Noltner, the veteran newspaper man of the Northwest. Always it has been a strong, virile champion of the principles it espoused, strong, fearless and outspoken, and withal a clean and reliable newspaper. Its founders bided "better than they knew" when the first issue of this paper was run off on a hand press in 1857, and still labor on when they cling to its publication through the trying pioneer days.

Today the Daily and Weekly Guard go regularly to 2400 homes, and on an average half a dozen persons read

WANT RUNAWAY LOG LAW AMENDED

Bandon, Or. Jan. 19.—The loss of many logs during the past week has been due to the present Oregon law, which makes it a felony for any one to take any branded logs floating in any of the streams of this state. At times of former floods kindly disposed citizens have, with considerable trouble and danger to themselves, taken and secured with their own ropes and cables some of the logs in danger of floating out to sea, and the owners of such logs have in some instances retaken the logs, appropriated the ropes and cables with which they were secured, and, armed with the law, refused any compensation therefor. During the recent flood Bandon citizens have sat by watching logs go out to sea.

Some of the citizens will urge before the present session of the legislature an amendment to provide that any logs having passed the last boom on any river in the state and in danger of floating out to sea may be taken up by any person and held subject to the owner's right to reclaim them for a period of ninety days, providing he shall have due notice of the same and the holder thereof shall have adequate compensation therefor.
