

OREGONIAN MAN SPEAKS AT ASSEMBLY

Will Tell Students and Townspeople
How a City Newspaper is Made.
Board of Regents Will Meet Tomorrow to Recommend Improvements at University

The people of Eugene and vicinity will have a chance to learn first-hand how the modern newspaper is made each day in our metropolitan city Wednesday morning at the university assembly at Villard Hall, when N. J. Levinson will address the university students on the subject, "How the Modern Newspaper is Made Each Day."

Mr. Levinson is the city editor of the Oregonian, and is said to be one of the main persons in directing the policy of that paper, which is generally conceded to be one of the seven best newspapers in regard to style in the United States. He faculty desires that a large number of townspeople be present.

Regents Meet in Portland.
President Campbell leaves tonight for Portland, where the board of regents meet tomorrow to attend to the business, but more especially to make recommendations for the improvement and support of the university. Just what the president will ask the regents to do is not given out, but as he will ask for at least the actual needs of the school there is certain to go before the legislature requests for at least two or three new buildings, a new engineering building, a clubhouse or dormitory for girls, and a gymnasium. Besides these added support will probably be asked for and considerable funds for new equipment.

SENATE COMMITTEES NOT YET READY

Portland, Jan. 21.—A special to the Telegram from Salem says that President Haines will not announce committees in the senate until late today. According to the president more than half of the senators desire membership on the insurance and banking committees, and considerable difficulty is found in arranging the matter satisfactorily.

Demurrage Bill.
The first reciprocal demurrage bill was introduced in the senate this afternoon by Johnson. It is based along the lines of the Teal bill and Kansas law. It provides against favoritism to shippers and makes the demurrage $2 a day. The railroad is given five days for the delivery of one or two cars, ten days for the delivery of five cars, and fifteen days for ten cars. Small lines which send cars over main lines also can demand another car from the main line to take the place of the one taken away. The election of United States senators takes place tomorrow noon. The caucus of the senate indicates no serious opposition.

NEWS OF LOWER SIUSLAW VALLEY

Joe Fellman and L. E. Bean, of Eugene, were passengers to Florence Wednesday morning.

Rev. G. L. Lovell went to Mapleton Monday to assist Rev. C. A. Burris in holding revival meetings. Joe Morris, Jr., and wife were at Mapleton over Sunday, preparing to move to their new home at that place. Mr. Morris informed us that he intends to move there from the ranch next week.

A bargain was concluded here Wednesday afternoon by which F. H. Alexander purchased from Victor Laivo his house and four lots in Chicago addition to Florence. Mr. Laivo retains possession for six weeks yet.

John Knowles, of Jefferson, Minn., was a passenger to Mapleton on the Eugene stage Saturday evening. He is a brother of A. P. and Frank Knowles and will probably spend some time with his relatives here. This is his second trip to the coast, he having spent a month on the coast about fifteen years ago.

A letter from San Francisco received at this office on Tuesday, states that Mrs. May E. Fox, mother of Frank and Charles Fox, died in San Francisco on January 7, 1907. The letter was not dated and bore no signature. On inquiry we learned that her sons here had received no notice of her decease, though she had been ill for some time past and it was not expected that she would recover.—Florence West.

Humor and Philosophy By DUNCAN M. SMITH

NOT YOUR FUNERAL
When you haven't any money,
How complacent you can feel
When you hear a bank is busted
By some wild financial deal.
If your debts are all your assets
And your fortune but a blank,
You can smile at those who clamor
For their money in the bank.

If you haven't any dealings
With the festive board of trade,
You can view it as a ripple
When the bears go on a raid;
If the call to put up margins
Doesn't spell for you mishap,
Doubtless then from where you're loafing
It looks like a pleasant scrap.

If you haven't any horses
When the pinkie comes around,
You can see a man and brother
Give opinions most profound;
If a dozen dogs full blooded
Do not add to your delight,
You can breathe the same as ever
When the catcher comes in sight.

Truly it makes quite a difference
Whether you are in the flame
Or are just a rank outsider
Sitting looking at the game.
You can view it from a distance,
Looking just a trifle bored,
If it is another fellow
Whose off ox is being sored.

Incompetency assuming responsibility is the worst sort of dishonesty.

Many times one's neighbors think you ought to love them as they love themselves.

An easy way to fall out with your friends is to be continually dropping in upon them.

When a man has his heart broken by a woman he proceeds to gather up the

A fixed condition is as impossible as an honest man or a silent woman.

The ability to keep constantly and untiringly at the same thing is what makes a genius or a bore.

Honesty of purpose is all right until
it meets with incapacity of performance,
and then look out.

The fellow who didn't know that the

Any old story will serve if you have the nerve to tell it.

C. F. SMITH FILES PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY

His Liabilities Are in the Neighborhood of $300, While His Assets Are Less Than $500.

Chas. M. Smith, the junior member of the firm of Brown & Smith, wire fence manufacturer, which recently filed a petition in bankruptcy, has taken advantage of the bankruptcy law and has filed a separate petition. His liabilities are in the neighborhood of $3000, while his assets are less than $500. Smith is now in Portland, where he has been for the past six months. His partner, Brown, moved to that city last week.

LEABURG NOTES OF LOCAL INTEREST

(Special Correspondence.)
Leaburg, Or., Jan. 18.—While the ground is covered with snow the lumber jacks are doing a good business setting around the fire.

Jack Doyle and Sherm Hixson have gone to Eugene after a load of supplies.

Miss Mabel Johnson, who has been teaching school at Jasper, is at home this week.

Tunis Van Plone, in company with Jimmy Resides, made a trip to Eugene on foot one day this week.

J. W. Fountain, while on his way to work, slipped and fell, his knee striking a rock, giving him such a strain that he is unable to walk around without crutches.

A number of young people at Leaburg have been enjoying themselves skating the last few days.

William and Charles Montgomery returned from Eugene today.

THE JOY

of living is to have good health. Use Herbine and you will have bushels of joy. You need not be blue, fretful and have that bad taste in your mouth. Try a bottle of Herbine, a positive cure for all liver complaints. E. Harrell, Austin, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine for over a year, and find it a fine regulator. I gladly recommend it as a fine medium for dyspepsia." Sold by Linn Drug Co.

REV. CARLISLE P. B. MARTIN, LL. D.,

of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge, but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." Sold by Linn Drug Co.
