

DAN KELLY WILL NOT BE HERE NEXT YEAR

World's Champion Sprinter Wants to Study Law in Some Eastern College - Will Not Try to Lower His Record in the 100-Dash.

Dan Kelly, Oregon's great sprinter and track athlete, has not decided just what he will do next year, about attending college. He is quite certain not to come back to Oregon, but has not chosen any particular school in the East where he intends to go. Kelly wants to go into law seriously, without wasting any more time on a preparatory education, but stated yesterday that he had not made a choice of institutions. Probably Michigan has the best show of getting him, but it is not the athletic reputation that attracts Dan there, but the fine course in law. Kelly hardly thinks he will do much in the East in athletics, for he believes he must look at everything from the standpoint of his studies. He seems to like Princeton, but law, he says, is not very good there. It is not likely that Dan will make any decision until he goes East next summer on the Northwest track team. While there he will decide what he shall do after looking into the various merits of the different schools. Dan likes Oregon and hates to leave her, but feels that he cannot put so much time on his education as others do. However, despite what has been said, Dan now says that he will run under Oregon colors at the Jamestown exposition, and further asserts that he never made any statements that he would run for anyone else. He said yesterday that he did not think the colleges in the East would allow him to run owing to the rules governing their track aspirants, which allows a man to go into competition only three years. Of course it is possible that records made with Oregon would not count against him there, but Kelly himself seems to think otherwise.

Kelly says he does not expect to lower the record for the 100-yard dash this spring, but will try to beat the world's record in the 220-yard dash of 21 1-5 seconds, which he tied last spring. He also wants to get the broad jump record. Last year he made 24 feet 2 1/2 inches. The world's record is 24 feet 11 1/4 inches.

LONG FELT WANT IN EUGENE.

While working in the largest dyeing and cleaning works on the coast and while there seeing lots of garments shipped from Eugene to be dry-cleaned, or dyed, and after investigating and going over the ground thoroughly we saw at once that there was a good opening for a first-class cleaning and dyeing works in Eugene. So we have decided to put in a first-class plant and are doing well from the start. We are the only experts in this line north of San Francisco, and have had over 12 years' experience and guarantee all work. All articles dyed and cleaned by us are treated separately for sanitary purposes and done by hand. In this way we obtain good results and as no machinery is used in our work that will tear or injure the fabric.

Everything possible in cleaning or dyeing. Eugene Dye Works, 659 Willamette street. Phone Red 2861. C. Marx, Jr., manager.

After Ten Years.
Mr. G. I. Stephenson, of Peterborough, Ont., says: "For over ten years I suffered constantly with piles, first itching, then bleeding; pain almost unbearable; life a burden. Tried everything in vain till I used Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid."

"I had taken but a few doses when I noticed an improvement. I decided to keep on, and now, after using three boxes, I am glad to say I am completely cured. My general health has also greatly improved. It gives me great pleasure to recommend Hem-Roid to all sufferers with piles, and I feel convinced that what it has done for me it will surely do for them."

CASE OF CHRISTIAN VS. CITY IN SUPREME COURT

Will Come Up For Argument Tomorrow—City Won in Circuit Court But Case Was Appealed.

The case of Christian vs. the city of Eugene, to enjoin the city from opening East Twelfth street from Pearl to Oak, will come up in the supreme court at Salem tomorrow, and the arguments of the attorneys will be made at that time. L. E. Bean and J. M. Williams are the city's attorneys, and Walton & Ness and Harbaugh & Bower represent the Christian heirs. It will be remembered that Etha Christian, now deceased, brought suit to enjoin the city from opening the street through her land. The circuit court decided in favor of the city and the case was appealed to the supreme court. It has been three or four years since the suit was first instituted.

Everybody you see is intending to come to the dance next Friday night at Davies' hall, Ninth street.

A Well-Known Remedy.
One of the oldest, safest and most favorably known remedies in the world today is Brandreth's Pills—a blood purifier and laxative. Being purely vegetable they can be used by old and young with perfect safety and while other remedies require increased doses and finally cease acting altogether, with Brandreth's Pills the same dose always has the same effect, no matter how long they are taken. One or two pills taken each night for a while is the best thing known for any one troubled with constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia, or any trouble arising from an impure state of the blood.

Brandreth's Pills have been in use for over a century and are sold in every drug or medicine store, either plain or sugar-coated.

Wise Counsel From the South.
"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blakenship, of Beck, Tenn. I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking a few more bottles I was completely cured; so completely cured that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee by W. L. DeLano, druggist. Price, 50 cents.

JOANTHAN BOURN JR. ELECTED SENATOR TODAY

ident, but did not arrive in time for the organization, receives a good chairmanship, that on banking.

Democrats were rewarded for their aid to Haines' election by receiving places on the committees on assessment and taxation, banking, ways and means, revision of laws and roads and highways, but do not receive conspicuous places, except for the recognition given C. J. Smith, of Umatilla, who is chairman of education and also of medicine and pharmacy, and has a place on ways and means. Smith was a leader of the four Democrats who voted for Haines. The best treated of their camp is Sichel.

The committees in the two houses are as follows:

House—committee on ways and means—Delco, Eaton, Carter, Rodgers, Barrett, of Umatilla.

Senate committee on ways and means—J. N. Smith, Bingham, C. J. Smith, Nottingham and McDonald.

Lane county delegates are appointed on the following committees:

Edwards, chairman of committee on education and member of the commission on railroads.

Washburne, chairman of committee on counties and member of mining and insurance committees.

Eaton, member public libraries committee.

Booth—chairman claims and industrial committees and member of committee on counties and on game laws.

Bingham, chairman of committee on taxation and member of committees on irrigation, railroads and resolutions.

COMMITTEE REPORT IS AGAINST BRISTOL

Washington, D. C., Jan. 21.—The sub-committee, Senators Kittredge and Tallafero, today reported to the senate judiciary committee against United States Attorney Bristol, and recommended unanimously that his nomination be rejected.

The committee will possibly act on the report at next Monday's regular meeting. An adverse report by the full committee will doubtless be the result.

SENATOR TILMAN REPLIES TO SPOONER

Washington, D. C., Jan. 21.—Senator Tillman today made a sensational speech in his reply to the attacks Senator Spooner made on him last week. He said Senator Spooner's manner toward him was "supercilious, none too courteous and insulting," and asked since when it became the duty of the senator from Wisconsin to play the schoolmaster here and to try and teach the other senators from Wisconsin and Colorado?

"He may rave, newspapers may howl," cried Tillman, "but men born of virtuous mothers will continue to do as we of the South have done."

REV. CARLISLE P. B. MARTIN, L. D.,
of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge, but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." Sold by Linn Drug Co.
