LOU MARSHALL PAYS FINE OF TEN DOLLARS

Lou Marshall, who got away from Officer Purdy after he had been arrested for being on the street after twelve o'clock Wednesday night, was found by Chief of Police Farrington last night and taken before Judge Dorris and assessed $10, which was paid.

Coffman Makes "Get-Away."

"Shell" Coffman who has figured conspicuously in police circles at various times in the past few years, emulated Marshall's example last night and succeeded in getting away from Officer Croner after he had been arrested. Coffman was using bad language on the streets. The officers heard him as he was standing in front of the "Reception," and as they approached he ran through that place and out at the rear door. Later he was caught by Croner, and as they reached the jail and the officer was in the act of unlocking the door, Coffman, with a "23 for you," skiddooed. Croner took after him, but was soon outdistanced, and the last seen of "Shell" he was going through L. G. Adair's yard at the corner of East Seventh and Oak streets.

HIPPLE'S BROTHER KILLED HIMSELF

Philadelphia, Feb. 1.—Edward P. Hipple, brother of the late Frank A. Hipple, who ended his life last summer after wrecking the Real Estate Trust Company, of this city, of which he was president, committed suicide today. He shot himself in the head in his bedroom while the family were at breakfast. He was seventy years of age, and there is no known cause for his act, unless brooding over his brother's tragic ending induced his own suicide.

AMUSEMENTS

Miss Marie Wainwright, the talented actress, who appears here in the support of the young actress, Miss Isabel Irving, in the latter's play, "Susan in Search of a Husband," at the Eugene theatre Monday night, will doubtless be remembered by a number of theatregoers for her remarkable work upon the stage that covers thirty years or more. Miss Wainwright was for many years a star in her own right, and was also a co-star with Louis James in a series of Shakespearian revivals which were conducted through a number of years. In addition Miss Wainwright was leading woman for the famous English actor, E. S. Willard, when he first made his appearance in this country, and her own last starring venture was in conjunction with the magnificent production of "Amy Robsart."

Miss Wainwright has gone into partial retirement during the last few years, and it is only by the personal request of Miss Irving that she emerged again to take up her work upon the stage for a brief period.

The sale af seats opens at the box office tomorrow morning.

BAD BLOOD

"Before I began using Cascarets, I had a bad complexion, pimples on my face, and my food was not digested as it should have been. Now I am entirely well, and the pimples have all disappeared from my face. I can truthfully say that Cascarets are just as advertised; I have taken only two boxes of them." Clarence R. HIGH SCHOOL NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST

Yesterday evening the Amicitian Society held its semi-annual election and the following officers were elected:

President, Leon Wray; vice president, Edward Bailey; secretary, Bertie Ruth; treasurer, Calvin Sweek; sergeant-at-arms, Edgar Bilderee; editor, Robert Kuykendall; critic, William St. Johns; artist, Russell Calkins.

Basketball.

This evening at the armory there will be a game of basketball between the local high school and the Salem team, which arrived here this noon. This game is a result of the one played at Salem not long ago, in which, though Eugene had the highest score, both sides claimed the victory. A rooters' club has been organized at the high school to compete with the one brought from Salem, and from all indications it will be a very exciting and fast game, and the public is especially requested to come out in favor of the local five.

Class Parties.

The sophomores have arranged to give a class party some time in the near future. It is expected to be a very successful affair.

The junior class held a meeting yesterday afternoon and arranged for a party to be given this coming Friday in the armory parlors. It may be that a class hop will follow.

LORD'S PRAYER IS NEW TO HOUSE

Chaplain of Assembly Gets Only One Partial Response While Repeating It.

Salem, Jan. 30.—The members of the Oregon house don't know the Lord's prayer. Sixty members proved their ignorance yesterday morning when the minister offering the introductory prayer swung into the Lord's proyer. Most of the members looked as though they had never heard of the petition before, but a few faces wore a puzzled frown which seemed to say:

"Seems to me I've heard that somewhere before."

The only thing in the prayer that found response was "Lead us not into temptation," and one up-state member chanted this phrase with an enthusiasm that might indicate he was being beset by the lobby.

SALEM HIGH SCHOOL TEAM HAS ARRIVED

SALEM HIGH

The Salem high school basketball team arrived this afternoon on the southbound passenger, and held a light practice at the armory to get acquainted with the floor on which they will play tonight. They seemed to be in the bast of spirits and will undoubtedly give the Eugene high team a hard game.

The lineup:

Salem—Farmer, McIntyre, forwards; Perkins, centre; Moores, Schram, guards.

Eugene—Cockerline, Kestley, forwards; Hurd, centre; Bean and Burton, guards.

Referee—Perry Jones.

Umpire—Ormond Bean.

NORMAL SCHOOL WIN FIRST ROUND AT SALEM TODAY

Guard Special Service.

Salem, Feb. 1.—With a whoop the house killed the resolution by Purdy, instructing the ways and means committee to provide for only two normal schools in the next two years. The final vote stood 35 to 21 for an indefinite postponement of the resolution.

This is the first time the normal issue has been brought up and the indications are that all four will get their usual allowances.

Notice

TWELFTH JUROR IN THAW CASE IS SECURED

New York, Feb. 1.—The morning session of the Thaw trial ended without of the selection of the twelfth juror. Thirteen talesmen were examined, the defense twice interposing peremptory challenges when it seemed that the trial jury was about to be completed.

Rumors that another juror, and possibly two, may be excused from further service, are in circulation again today.

Thaw's counsel today continued to ply the talesmen with questions as to the consideration they would give to the plea of insanity.

Later—The Thaw jury was completed this afternoon.

NATURE'S CATARRH CURE

Sensible and Scientific Way to Cure This Disagreeable Disease

Nearly every one suffers at one time or another with catarrh.

The natural way to curethis disagreeable disease is to apply healing medications direct to the diseased spot.

In no other way can this be done as naturally as by the use of Hyomei, breathed through the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit.

Put several drops of Hyomei in the inhaler, and then for a few minutes, four or five times a day, let the air you breathe come through it. In that way all the air that enters the nasal passages, the throat or the lungs, is filled with Hyomei's healing medication, reaching the most remote air cells of the respiratory organs, destroying all catarrhal germs and soothing and healing the irritated mucous membrane.

A few days' use of Hyomei will show how quickly it relieves all catarrhal conditions and you will not have to use it long before you find it has effected a complete and lasting cure.

So strong is Mr. Hull's faith in the power of Hyomei to cure catarrhal troubles that with every dollar outfit he gives a guarantee to refund the money unless the remedy gives satisfaction. He takes all the responsibility, and you cannot afford to suffer longer with catarrh when an offer like this is made to you.

Should extra bottles of Hyomei be needed they can be obtained for 50 cents, making this one of the most economical as well as one of the most reliable remedies for catarrh that is known.
