Thursday afternoon Mrs. Mary A. Griffin and Mrs. Roscoe Bryson charmingly entertained a number of their friends at the home of Mrs. Griffin. The ladies passed a pleasant afternoon with their needle work. At supper time Mrs. Bryson was assisted in serving an elegant luncheon by Miss Taylor. California violets and a beautiful candelabrum made the decorations for the table, around which were seated the Mesdames Adelaide Church, C. E. Loomis, J. L. Page, J. F. Robinson, A. E. Wheeler, C. D. Combs, Mary Chambers, S. M. Yoran, S. F. Kerns, Drew Yoran, L. G. Adair, George Frazer, Taylor, Hannah Johnson, J. S. Hopkins, Elizabeth Kelly, and Knapp.

Mrs. David Linn delightfully entertained the Thimble Club on Thursday afternoon. The club members and a few invited guests enjoyed a delicious menu served in a dainty fashion. Mrs. Linn's guests were Mrs. Wilson, Miss Vera Wilson and Miss Scholling.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church was entertained on last Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. H. N. Mount and Mrs. W. M. Martin at the home of the latter. Mrs. John Straub gave a very interesting paper on China and Mrs. Cloran spoke on the Indians. The hostesses served very dainty refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Livermore were given a surprise on Friday in honor of their wedding anniversary. The ladies walked in on Mrs. Livermore in the morning and their husbands came in for dinner. Linn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wetherbee, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Willoughby, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. Winstanley, Mr. and Mrs. Gamber, Miss Nellie Loomis, Miss Ella McAllister and Miss Marian Linn.

The officers of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church entertained the rest of the members on Monday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. W. O. Heckart. The afternoon was passed pleasantly in conversation.

This afternoon the Tau Pi Sorority gave an informal reception to Miss Carolyn Benson, of Portland, who is now on her way home from Stanford. A large number of students and townspeople enjoyed the hospitality of the young ladies of the sorority. Miss Benson is a former student of the university and a member of the Tau Pi sorority.

The musicale given by Mrs. Sude Fennell Pipes last Thursday evening was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season. The program numbers were rendered by the best musical talent in the city and were all highly appreciated. The programs were hand-painted in violets by Miss Edwards, of San Francisco, and the color scheme of violet was carried out in the decorations and in the re-

LONG FELT WANT IN EUGENE.

While working in the largest dyeing and cleaning works on the coast and while there seeing lots of garments shipped from Eugene to be dry-cleaned, or dyed, and after investigating and going over the ground thoroughly we saw at once that there was a good opening for a first-class cleaning and dyeing works in Eugene. So we have decided to put in a first-class plant and are doing well from the start. We are the only experts in this line north of San Francisco, and have had over 12 years' experience and guarantee all work. All articles dyed and cleaned by us are treated separately for sanitary purposes and done by hand. In this way we obtain good results and as no machinery is used in our work that will tear or injure the fabric.

Everything possible in cleaning or dyeing. Eugene Dye Works, 659 Willamette street. Phone Red 2862. C. Marx, Jr., manager.

CURED LUMBAGO.
A. B. Canham, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903: "Having been troubled with Lumbago, at different times and tried one physician after another, then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of sufferers."
