THE CITY CAMPAIGN

At the outset of the city campaign the Guard stated that it would endeavor as far as lay in its power to eliminate the bitter discussion that has filled the columns of the newspapers in preceding elections. We felt this to be a duty, even at the expense of incurring the ill-will of radical members of both factions, because of the detrimental advertising Eugene has been given in the past two years. It is also most essential at this time to bring our people together in efforts that are being made to advance the common good.

Now that only two days more of the campaign remain we are glad to know that there has been little discussion in the newspapers and nothing of an acrimonious nature. The candidates on the municipal ticket have published a statement of their position, and today Mr. Osburn sets forth his views of municipal matters in a signed article.

In this connection we would say that the Guard would not decline to publish short articles, bearing on the real issues before the voters, signed by responsible and reputable persons, but it will reject now and at all times communications from anonymous sources, the authors of which are afraid or ashamed to stand sponsor for the statements they promulgate.

AS TO SENATOR TOM KAY

Senator Tom Kay, of Marion county, was a caller at the Guard office last evening and is inclined to think that he has been unjustly criticized for his opposition to the university appropriation. He explains that he was not opposed to spending the amount of money asked for upon the institution, and was disposed to be even more liberal, feeling that the university was in need of a large sum, especially for new buildings and equipment. It was only the method of lumping together the appropriation for maintenance and betterments that the senator opposed.

Well, it's all over anyway, and we'll all accept Tom Kay's explanation and let him ride in the band wagon with the other representative and progressive citizens of the state. There are many less capable statesmen in Oregon's legislative assembly and few harder workers, and we will concede him honesty of purpose if we can't agree with him on all things.

It takes a man of ability and perseverance to build up and operate big factories in the Oregon country, and when Senator Kay's achievements in that line in Salem and Eugene are considered—well, we feel that the state needs more men of his kind.

EUGENE'S BANK SHOWING.

The statement of the condition of the First National Bank of Eugene, published in today's Guard, shows deposits aggregating over $1,600,000. This is important to the public as indicating that times are good and money unusually plentiful here since the Eugene Loan and Savings bank and Chambers-Bristow bank also report their business rapidly increasing. Over $3,000,000 are now on deposit in the three Eugene banks, and every day adds to the big pile of money that is accumulating in their vaults.

More important than any other cause of the situation is the rapid increase in deposits during the past year—in fact, the amount of money has practically doubled in that time. Could there be any surer indication of Eugene's marvelous growth as a business center?

The outlook is propitious for the greatest year in the city's history—if every business man and property owner will become a working member of the push club and put his shoulder to the wheel.

Judge Sutton minced no words in sentencing S. E. Howell, former president of the Omaha Coal Exchange, to pay a fine of $1000 and serve six months in jail, as may be seen from these: "You have been convicted of organizing in restraint of trade. This is as serious a crime as robbing at the point of a revolver." That's the proper treatment for such robbers.

A Pennsylvania legislator is ambitious of giving every citizen the legal right to swat an editor whenever he thinks he has been libeled. Perhaps just as much satisfaction, and more safety, might be found by labeling a dummy figure "editor" and kicking it around an hour or two every day.

The Eastern university presidents are certainly a versatile lot. One of them, as a bid for big donations, declared that there was no such thing as tainted money, and the donations falling to materialize he delivered an address ripping corporate greed and monopoly up the back.

There's always something doing in Ohio politics, but Burton's attempt to snatch the senatorial toga from Foraker promises to be a scrap of unusual proportions and ferocity, owing to its connection with national politics.

According to endurance tests conducted at Yale, meat eaters are not as strong as those who cut meat out of their diet. Even so, and yet, those who prefer to eat meat will continue to be an overwhelming majority.

Only a little while ago the very same railroad magnates who are now bawling him to do something for them were abusing the president for exceeding his authority in doing too much to them.

With the enormous growth of totalitarianism in Kentucky, as reported by the papers of the state, which of course are truthful, one naturally wonders what will become of the mint crop.

If Missouri's official bee inspector is not a lover of trouble, he will lose no time in announcing that his authority does not extend to picking winners from the presidential brood.

No strings to Admiral Schley's decorations. He said of the movement to boom him for the vice presidency: "I would not accept if nominated and would not serve if elected."

Anyway, Eugene let its first paving contract 24 hours ahead of Salem.

Progressive Eugene.

(Albany Democrat.)
At a meeting of the city council of Eugene last night the contract for paving Williamette street from the S. P. right-of-way to the south line of Eleventh street was let to the Warren Construction Company at about $4.54 per front foot. James Frayne was the only other bidder. The work is not to be done until the Williamette Valley Company makes arrangements to pay for its part of the pavement and puts down its street car track.

Harriman.

(From the Wall Street Journal.)
First, buy control of a railroad.
Second, look over the books and discover the sums paid out of income for improvements, but which are charged to operation.
Third, capitalize these sums.
Fourth, pay yourself a dividend from the proceeds, in violation of the law.
Fifth, sell the road to a rival company after the cream has been skimmed.

FOR RECORDER

B. F. Dorris is a candidate for election to the office of recorder at the ensuing city election to be held on the first day of April, 1907.

Wreck of the Hesperus Family.
It was old Father Hesperus,
And his father, Milly May,
And they stood together hand in hand,
In the middle of Broadway.

"O father, I hear a raucous shout—
O father, what can it be?"
"Tis only a tall gentleman, child,
Who waves his hand at thee."

"O father, I hear the sound of wheels
And hoofs that loudly ring."
"Tis one of them handsome cabs—
Gosh-bish the darned old thing."

"O father, I see a cloud of dust
Sift o'er me from head to feet."
"Tis one of them dum fool White Wings
A-sweepin' off the street."

"But father, I smell an odd perfume,
O father, what can it mean?"
"Don't fly into hystericks, child,
It's only gasoline."

"Nay, father, I hear the cry 'Look out!'
And fear is on my nerve."
"Gee whiz! Here comes an auto car
A-puffin' around the curve!"

"O father, I feel a dreadful bump—
What means that sickly thud?"
But the father answered never a word
For his mouth was full of mud.

—Life.

Salem Moves Ahead.

(Salem Statesman.)

The city council sounded the note of progress for Salem last night by passing the ordinance for the permanent improvement of State street with bituminous pavement and from this time forth the idea which has thus been set in motion will not stop until the three principal business streets are similarly improved, because the property owners and occupiers on the other two streets will not be satisfied with mud while their neighbors on State street have a hard, smooth pavement. Actual work on State street is expected to begin between May 19 and 15, as the necessary notices and other preliminaries will take until about that time. The people of the city will rejoice in this good beginning.

LONG FELT WANT IN EUGENE.

While working in the largest dyeing and cleaning works on the coast and while there seeing lots of garments shipped from Eugene to be dyed-cleaned, or dyed, and after investigating and going over the ground thoroughly we saw at once that there was a good opening for a first-class cleaning and dyeing works in Eugene, so we decided to put in a first-class plant and are doing well from the start. We are the only experts in this line north of San Francisco, and have had over 12 years' experience and guarantee all work. All articles dyed and cleaned by us are treated separately for sanitary purposes and done by hand. In this way we obtain good results and as no machinery is used in our work that will wear or injure the fabric.

How to Remain Young.

To continue young in health and strength, do as Mrs. N. F. Rowan, McDonough, Ga., did. She says: "Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured me of chronic liver and stomach trouble, complicated with such an unhealthy condition of the blood that my skin turned red as flannel. I am now practically 29 years younger than before I took Electric Bitters. I can now do all my work with ease, and assist in my husband's store. Guaranteed at W. L. DeLano's Drug Store. Price 50c."

Saved Her Son's Life.

The happiest mother in the little town of Ava, Mo., is Mrs. S. Rupee. She writes: "One year ago my son was down with such serious lung trouble that our physician was unable to help him. When, by our druggist's advice I began giving him Dr. King's New Discovery, and I soon noticed improvement. I kept this treatment up for a few weeks when he was perfectly well. He has worked steadily since at carpenter work. Dr. King's New Discovery saved his life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure by W. L. DeLano, Druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

MARCOIA ITEMS

(Special Correspondence.)

Marcoia, March 26.—Yesterday morning there was about an inch of snow on the hills in this vicinity. The S. P. Co. is building a flume in the big ditch through Marcoia. Fischer Bros. broke a shaft and have not sawed any for a day or two. Tom Amos, of Amos & Son's confectionery store, is sick with the grip. Sharpe Fletcher's baby, who died in Eugene, was buried here yesterday. E. M. Barnes and sister, formerly of Kansas, who came to Roseburg several years ago, and who have resided at Marcoia since last summer, left for Burlington, Kansas, last Thursday.

Charley King and wife left on yesterday's train for Skagway, Alaska, where he will reside until June, when he will remove to Dawson City. Nelson Roney arrived yesterday with several men to begin work upon the Marcoia bridge at once.

IRVING ITEMS

Irving, March 27.—Arthur Yates spent Sunday in Oregon City. John Mitchell was a passenger to Corvallis Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. S. L. Bond is much improved today. She has been quite ill. E. W. Zimwalt, who has been confined to the house with tonsillitis, is again able to be about. Mrs. Geo. Day was a visitor in Eugene last week. Mrs. Anna Lowry was called to Salem on account of the serious illness of her sister, Miss Harwood. She is reported as improving, however.

After Ten Years.

Mr. G. L. Stephenson, of Peterborough, Ont., says: "For over ten years I suffered constantly with piles, first itching, then bleeding; pain almost unbearable; like a burden. Tried everything in vain till I used Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid. 'I had taken but a few doses when I noticed an improvement. I decided to keep on, and now, after using three boxes, I am glad to say I am completely cured. My general health has also greatly improved. It gives me great pleasure to recommend Hem-Roid to all sufferers with piles, and I feel convinced that what it has done for me it will surely do for them.'"

Price, $1.00. Dr. Leonhardt Co., Niagara Falls, N. Y., proprietors.

Worked Like a Charm.

Mr. D. N. Walker, editor of that spicy journal, the Enterprise, Louisiana, says: "I ran a nail in my foot last week and at once applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve. No inflammation followed; the Salve simply healed the wound. Heals every sore, burn and skin disease. Guaranteed at W. L. DeLano's Drug Store. 25c."

CURED HIMSELF.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903: "Having been troubled with lambo, at different times and tried one physician after another, then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of sufferers."
