SOCIETY HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

April showers. That is what we are having now, but we all know that they are the forerunner of many soft, balmy spring days. So society maids and matrons have been busily engaged these last few weeks making the prettiest and daintiest summer frocks for the coming season. Lined material for dresses will be even more popular this season than last, so city fashion dictates. Any number of dainty summer frocks were seen at the reception and informal dance given at the Beta Epsilon chapter house on Monday evening. The affair was in the nature of a farewell to Miss Jessie Bacon, who has been compelled to leave college on account of ill health. Miss Bacon is one of the most popular girls in the university, and a large number of her friends were present to bid her goodbye. The evening was passed pleasantly with conversation and dancing, and later informal refreshments were served, where the boys proved themselves adept at making fudge.

Probably the most elaborate young people's party of the season was that given on Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hales in honor of the fifteenth birthday of their daughter, Miss Beatrice. The party was in the nature of a song-costume masque, each guest taking part being dressed in keeping with the song. The rooms were decorated in keeping with spring, the drawing room in daffodils and Oregon holly, and the dining room in wild currants. The program was as follows: "The Spanish Cavalier," Clay Watson; "Juanita," Evelyn Bristow; "The Campbells Are Coming," Bryant DeBar and Robert Bean; "Annie Laurie," Katherine Watson; "White Wings," Cosby Gilstrap; "Madame Butterfly," Cecile

McAllister; "Little Buttercup," Essie Zimmer; "Rockabye Lady from Hushabye Street," Lucille Dunn; "Mistress Mary Quite Contrary," Mary Chambers; "Little Bo Peep," Anna Maurer; "Four Leaf Clover," Marguerite Emerson; "The Harp That Once Thro' Tara's Halls," Echo Hawk; "Pilgrims," Lucille Andrews and Beatrice Buoy; "Fiddle and I," Camille Taylor (she played her violin); "A Maid of Japan," Gladys Hampton; "The Gypsy Fortune Teller," Merle Lill; "Lillies and Roses," Edna Roberts; "I Cannot Sing the Old Songs," Beatrice Hales; "Pilgrims," Clarence Stevens and Carl Myers; "America," Harold Briggs; "Choo Lee," Stanley Briggs; "Auld Lang Syne," Raymond Edbloom; "The Choir Boy," Mary Barker; "Little Tin Soldier," Henry Chezem; "Claude Duval," Ray Taylor; "Suaveo River," Ralph Russell; "The Wearing of the Green," Robert Green; "Ben Bolt," Edward Gray.

Wednesdays in April.
From 3 to 5 462 Willamette St.

So read the cards which were issued the first of the week. This last Wednesday was the first gathering and a number of ladies called and enjoyed the hospitality of the Mesdames Chambers. The rooms were prettily decorated and the hostesses served dainty refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gamber, who left on Wednesday morning for Eastern Oregon, have been the honor guests at several functions this week. They were entertained at dinner on Easter Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wetherbee. A number of their mutual friends, however, did not intend it to be a family dinner party.

and happily surprised the hosts and guests by invading the Wetherbee home. Then on Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. David Linn entertained the same guests at their residence on Lawrence street. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe S. Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Livermore, Mrs. Winstanley, Miss Loomis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wetherbee, Miss Elma Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Willoughby, Miss Ella McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. David Linn, and Mr. and Mrs. Gamber.

The members of the Thursday Afternoon Club met with Mrs. Frank Hampton this week at her home on West Seventh street, and on Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Hampton entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church.

A number of informal affairs have been given this week in compliment to Miss Mary Eakin and Miss Ellen Thielson, both of Salem, who are visiting here at the home of Miss Eakin's aunt, Mrs. Minnie Washburn. Miss Eakin is a former Eugene girl, and has many friends here, as has also Miss Thielson, who has visited here a number of times before. The young ladies will remain for the rest of the week.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. W. J. Huddle entertained a few friends in honor of Mrs. Gamber. The guests were all former members of Mrs. Gamber's class at the university, and they passed a very pleasant afternoon with their needle work. Mrs. Huddle, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Arthur McAllister, served a delicious supper.

A very elaborate luncheon was that given this evening at 5:30 o'clock by Miss Camille Carroll at her home on East Thirteenth street to the graduates and upper classmen of the Beta Epsilon sorority, of which organization she is a member. The guests were: Mrs. R. H. Dearborn, Mrs. Arthur McAllister and the Misses Ninon Oakes, Winnifred Hadley, Ella Dobie, Leone Kays, Jessie Chase, Lela Goddard, Helene Robison.

Society at Springfield.
The big meeting in the Odd Fellows hall, the reception in the W. O. W. hall and the banquet given by Landlord Hunt, of the Springfield Hotel Thursday night was an event in the social world that will be long remembered by those who fortunately belonged to the I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges.

Grand Master Carter, of Gold Hill, and Grand Secretary E. E. Sharon, of Portland, were in attendance at the meeting of the local lodge of I. O. O. F., and entertained the members by some very interesting remarks. The degree work was put on by the lodge team, after which all repaired to the W. O. W. hall, where they were joined by the Rebekahs in a grand social time. A very interesting program had been prepared, consisting of music, etc. At 11 o'clock all repaired to the Odd Fellows hall, where one of the most elaborate spreads that had ever been laid for such an occasion confronted over one hundred guests, to which all did justice.

A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Humphreys on North B street, in honor of their daughter Maude's nineteenth birthday. The evening was spent in music and games. Many beautiful and valuable presents were given by her friends. Those present were: Jessie, Grace and Ida Walker, Erma and Adeline Hunt, Edna Nickerson, Neva Bilyeu, Mary Smock, Edenia Chapel, Edith Hutchens, Gladys Lyons, Maude Humphrey and Ronald Roberts, Frank and Jesse Smitson, Merritt Tuel, Claude Anders, Walter Kestly, Roy Krentz, Mr. Frum, Ralph Walker, Lloyd Magill, Laurie Van Valzah, Charles Erskine, Wiley and Jack Humphrey.—News.

From time to time our lines will be increased, and we shall add items of which the most skeptical cannot fail to take heed and admit that Stanleys are underselling all.

Recently we have added a line of articles that are usually only found in drug stores. You know there is a drug trust which flourishes throughout the entire United States (although combinations in restraint of trade are unlawful) and by adding these goods we will do our part in giving to the people of this vicinity these trust combination goods for below the trust prices, and you can always remember if Stanleys have it the price is less.

Chesterfield

Palmist and Clairvoyant

Gives Proof of His Great Powers! Mystifies His Callers.

They enter his parlors with skepticism and prejudice. They depart filled with admiration at the words of truth and wisdom which fall from his lips. By consulting Prof. Chesterfield you will learn how to preserve health, retain youth and restore lost vitality.

Without Asking a Single Question. Without any previous knowledge and having no natural means of knowing who you are and whence or for what you came, he tells your name, occupation, what you called for, tells of your enemies and friends, husband, wife or lover, who is true and who is false, tells whom and when you will marry; how to win the one you love.

Tells you how to attract, control and change the thoughts, intentions, actions or habits of any one secretly; the controlling power implanted in your nature.

His powers are wonderful and indisputable; his advice is reliable; his information clear, concise and to the point in love, marriage, divorce, investments, business, oil and mining claims, etc., taking no fee in advance, accepting none unless you obtain the information for which you consult him. Tells how to improve your character and educate yourself so that you will reach the highest possible development of mental vigor, health, happiness and capacity to earn wealth; how to accumulate a fortune; how to locate buried treasures; insure your success or charge nothing for his services.

WM. E. GLADSTONE'S PALM

Taken By Grant Chesterfield During His European Tour in '95

Scattered about his parlors at 642 Willamette street, are the imprints, photographs and plaster paris casts of the palms of the most noted personages on either side of the Atlantic. They were taken by Professor Grant Chesterfield, the noted mind-reader and palmist, who has written blind-folded through the crowded streets of either hemisphere, who has opened tinlocks and needle-pointed combination safes while blindfolded, who has appeared night after night in the theaters throughout the land giving strange and startling exemplifications of his most marvelous and incredible powers of reading unuttered thought and who stands today the acknowledged peer of all palmists. It is said that during his stay in Portland, 3000 people passed through his parlors to have their palms read.

By examining your palm he tells the condition of your health, what ails you and whether or not you can be cured. If you will soon make changes in your business conditions. If you will be fortunate in love affairs. If you will travel. If absent friends will return, and if you wish he will also tell you when you are to die.

Prof. Chesterfield's parlors remain open to the public until 9 o'clock at night.
