AMUSEMENTS

The Jubilee Singers.

In presenting this company to the public the management has made special effort to have a high moral as well as musical standard. Therefore, our members have been selected from the best Christian homes and have been trained in some of America's best schools: Rust University, of Miss.; Knoxville College and Fisk University of Tennessee, and Oberlin College, of Ohio, are represented in our company.

Our Quartette is a special feature and is always a favorite. Our Prima Donna was trained by one of the best instructors of Chicago, she has a lyric voice possessing the flute quality which is classed by the European masters as being the rarest and most beautiful. Our race has produced few singers as great as she.

Our Contralto has been a student at the Oberlin Conservatory of Music, and also traveled with the famous Fisk Jubilee Singers. She possesses a rich and charming voice of great depth and power, which has won for her many admirers.

Our Pianist is a trained accompanist of great natural ability.

Our selection of songs varies from the Opera to the Negro Boat and Cabin Songs.

Miss Carolyn McLean, who is to appear at the Eugene theatre next Wednesday, April 10, in Marie Corelli's famous romance, "Thelma," comes of pretty notable stock. It may be interesting to observe that Miss McLean numbers among her ancestors and living relatives some of the most notable and famous personages of American history. She is the great granddaughter of President Zachary Taylor. Her father was General H. H. McLean, of the United States regular army, who was a roommate at West Point of General Ulysses S. Grant, when that famous war destined him to the conquests that numbers his name among those of the greatest of history. Among her living relatives of distinction are John R. McLean, the well-known and able editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, of whom she is also a niece. Since adopting the stage as a profession Miss McLean has been leading lady with Robert Mantell; with Richard Mansfield; created the role of Lydie in "Quo Vadis," when it was originally produced at the New York theatre, New York city, also the leads in "Cumberland '61" and "The Cherry Pickers." Miss McLean is of the brunette type of beauty, tall and stately, and possessing all the talents and versatility of her illustrious family. She is indeed an attractive and interesting stage figure.

Miss Ethel Lytle and her company of musicians delighted a fair-sized audience at the Methodist church last night. The entertainment was all that it was advertised to be and more, too. Those who were in attendance were indeed fortunate, as it was one of the best entertainments of its kind ever given in this city. Miss Lytle's voice was a revelation to the audience and every one of her numbers was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Montelth, baritone, and Miss Peasey, pianist, very ably assisted in the program, their efforts being appreciated.

"A Stranger in Town" at the Eugene theatre last night was one of the cleanest, funniest shows that has visited this city during the season. Frank Beamish and Rita Knight were the stars, but the entire company were clever, and the performance went with a vim and dash that kept the audience in roars. There should have been a better attendance last night.

Put $50 or $100 in a Diamond

And it is like depositing the money in the bank. While the Diamond may not pay interest on the money like the bank—it gives the wearer a prestige that pays dividends every day of the year. We aren't afraid to have our collection of Diamonds, quality and price considered, compared with anything in the country. We knew that we bought them right, and we can and will sell them right.
