

MODERN WOOD- MEN HAVE BIG CELEBRATION

National Directors Bort and Murphy Are Chief Guests and Speak This Afternoon - 200 Adoptions Tonight - Delegates Fill the Town From Surrounding Camps.

The streets of Eugene have had the air all day of some city in a country of militarism, for the whole morning the streets were dotted with the gorgeous uniforms of the members of the various teams of the lodges of the Modern Woodmen who have sent members to the celebration and adoption of the order of the second district at Eugene this afternoon and tonight.

At 2:30 o'clock a grand parade marched from the armory to Eighth street, thence east one block, and thence south to Eleventh, and from there back to Eighth to the City park. There the contests of the afternoon were held, the following prizes being offered:

Tug-of-war between teams of Foresters, $6.

Foot-race, for fat men, $2.

Foot-race, for lean men, $2.

Highest running jump, $1.50.

Besides these prizes the camp having the largest number of its members in the procession at 7:30 p. m. this evening will receive $5.

The second district comprises Lane, Douglas, Josephine, Jackson, Coos, and Curry counties, and from the camps in each delegates have come, filling the town with visitors, who are being treated as the guests of the whole city as well as of the local camp. The exact number of delegates present will not be known until

Eugene Theater, Wednesday, May 8th tonight, but is estimated at over 100.

Murphy and Bort.

On this afternoon's train from the south National Directors Murphy and Bort, of the Modern Woodmen, arrived, and will be the guests of honor and the chief speakers of the meeting tonight. This afternoon they talked at the park after the contests were over. The two directors were met at the depot by two teams of foresters and escorted to their hotel, after which the procession was formed.

Meeting Tonight.

The real feature of the convention will be tonight, for then it is advertised there will be about 200 adoptions at the Woodman hall, the work to be done by the Eugene and Cottage Grove degree teams. Then, too, there will be a program of speakers and a royal banquet for the delegates and local members and the candidates.

Exercises This Afternoon.

At the opening of the exercises in the park this afternoon Hon. M. A.

Miller, of Linn county, and a regent of the university, spoke briefly, and was followed by Director Murphy, of Kansas, who urged all men who desired a good fraternal insurance organization to join the Woodmen.

Bort came next and told of the business end of the lodge. In the Modern Woodmen there are at the present time $67,000 members, and every month thousands more are joining.

The athletic contests were then pulled off. It took the team represented by Cottage Grove just one minute to pull the team representing Eugene in the tug-of-war contest. Along with Bartlett, of Eugene, captured the fat man's race and Walter Pickens, of Crow, the lean man's race. The high jump was most exciting. Pickens and Earl Berlin, both of Crow, being at a height of about five feet.

MISSION OPENED AT
CATHOLIC CHURCH

The opening of the mission at the Catholic church yesterday morning was attended by a large congregation. Rev. Father Moyle preached an eloquent and instructive sermon on the necessity of entering into one's self from time to time in order to determine our standing in the sight of God.

At 7:30 Rev. Father Cantrell preached on "Man's Destiny." He showed that man has a higher destiny than seeking after earthly things, and that the cravings of the human heart will never cease until God takes it home to Himself and fills it with eternal happiness.

The services of the mission will continue during the week. Morning service at 6 and 9 and evening service at 7:30.

The sermons will be a source of consolation for those who appreciate the value of their immortal souls and a source of profit to those who do not.

Subject this evening will be "Mortal Sin."

MARRIED.

Fred LeBlanc, of Columbia county,

Wash., and Bessie Morgan, of Lane county, were married this afternoon at 4 o'clock by Justice of the Peace

Bryson.
