TO PRESERVE LINCOLN FARM

The Lincoln Farm Association was organized and incorporated under the laws of the state of New York early in the month of February, 1906, by a group of patriotic citizens, who believed that the people of our country should, through affiliating with this organization, develop the farm in Larue county, Kentucky, on which Abraham Lincoln was born, into a national park.

The association, prior to its incorporation, acquired title to this historic farm, consisting of one hundred and ten acres. The association hopes to develop this property into an attractive park, embellished by historical museums and properly monumented, so that it may be complete for dedication on the 12th day of February, 1909, which will be the centennial of the birth of the great war president. The association has already recovered the cabin in which Lincoln was born, which was taken from the property some years ago by a speculative showman, who put it on exhibition at several of the prominent fairs throughout the country.

The Lincoln Farm Association believes that the work of building this farm into a national memorial should be accomplished by the American people, and by their individual contributions, and not through any appropriation by congress or through the subsidy of large private fortunes. It should express the democratic sympathy and loyalty of the great American people for and to this great president, who has so fittingly been called the "first American."

The Lincoln Farm Association is an organization of American citizens to which every one shall be entitled to membership who contributes, through the general fund for the preservation of this historic spot, any sum not less than twenty-five cents, nor to exceed twenty-five dollars. Every such subscriber shall be recorded in the membership card catalogues, which will ultimately rest in a place of honor and public access in one of the historic buildings to be erected on the farm. Each subscriber shall receive, immediately upon the receipt of his donation to the work of the association, a handsomely engraved certificate of membership in the Lincoln Farm Association, bearing on its face a portrait of Lincoln, a picture of the cabin in which he was born, and of the White House at Washington. It will also bear the member's name and the autographs of the officers and trustees of the association.

The board of trustees of the Lincoln Farm Association were actuated in this movement because they believed that the most valuable assets of any nation are the traditions, the sacred associations and the shrines made holy by the accumulatory love with which successive generations bedeck them. George Eliot has said: "No nation has ever become great without holidays and processions dedicated to the noble." The United States as yet is notoriously poor in this direction. This is not wholly on account of its youth, but on account of the indifference to spiritual welfare which has characterized a youth enamored of material plenty and drunk with the prosperity that comes from the easy conquest of fertile acres and exhaustless mines. American youths have turned longing eyes toward the holy places of Europe and visited the birthplaces of Robert Burns and Schiller, the tombs of Walter Scott and Victor Hugo, and the millenial monument of King Alfred at Winchester, while the birthplace of our matchless American—the strong-handed, clear-headed and great-hearted Lincoln—has been left, after its acres have been impoverished by careless tillage, to become a humiliation to the poet and historian, and the butt of ridicule of the irreverent. Pigs and cattle have reduced the basin of the beautiful spring to a mud puddle vandal hands have carried off the humble cabin wherein a giant soul was born, and utter neglect surrounds the first home of the great Amerisan "Man of Sorrows."

Realizing this neglect, and that this farm birthplace was to be treated with still greater indignity by the exploitations of speculators, for vulgar and unwholesome popularity, the association secured the farm under the austioneer's hammer, and now holds it in trust for the nation. It simply saw the opportunity, which no one else seemed desirous of taking, to protect this shrine from further vandalism, and it desires to turn it over to the people of the United States, to be forever held by them as a garden spot in the nation's history, a trysting-place where the East, West, North and South may find the inspiration of national unity and a patriotic righteousness, a growing witness that the "dark and bloody ground" is no longer, and that the "border" state has become the central state. As a patriotic park the Lincoln farm will differ widely from our other national parks, such as Gettysburg, Chickamauga, Missionary Ridge, Vicksburg and others, in that it will express our national unity rather than preserve the memory of our lamentable differences. It will continue to be a birthplace of citizenship and patriotism.

The historic ground will be owned and cared for by the Lincoln Farm Association's self-perpetuating committee of patriotic citizens. To them will be entrusted the expenditure of the subsidy which the members of the Lincoln Farm Association shall raise. Lying, as this farm does, almost at the centre of our population, it will ever be the most accessible, and in many ways will be the most attractive, of all our historic parks. It will be the most significant and the most useful as a common ground, typifying the large industrial development growing out of the political harmony of eighty millions of people—a great national school of peace, civic righteousness and unity, a museum of national loyalty, where all animosity will be forever buried and where North and South will find a common ground of pride.

Joseph W. Folk, governor of Missouri, president; Joseph H. Choate, ex-ambassador to England; Henry Watterson, editor Louisville Courier-Journal; Cardinal Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore; Edward M. Shepard, lawyer and author; August Belmont, director of Louisville & Nashville R. R.; Horace Porter, ex-ambassador to France; William Travers Jerome, district attorney of New York county; Jenkin Lloyd Jones, director Lincoln Centre, Chicago; Charles A. Towne, congressman from New York; William H. Taft, secretary of war; Lyman J. Gage, ex-secretary of the treasury; Norman Hapgood, of Collier's; Ida M. Tarbell, biographer of Lincoln; Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain); Augustus St. Gaudens, sculptor; Albert Shaw, editor Review of Reviews; Thomas Hastings, architect; Robert J. Collier, of Collier's; Clarence H. Mackay, president Postal Telegraph and Cable Company, treasurer; Richard Lloyd Jones, secretary.

The office of the association is at 74 Broadway, New York.

LUMBERMEN WILL STATE THEIR GRIEVANCES

Cottage Grove, May 11.—The Western Lumbering Manufacturing Association held its regular meeting here yesterday evening. There was a large attendance, representing the lumbering interests from Drain to as far north as Portland. One of the principal features of the meeting was the appointment of a committee to confer with them as to what effect the raise of the rate from $3.10 to $5 had had on them. As soon as all the data is in it is the intention to carry the grievances to the interstate commerce commission at Washington.

WILL HOMESTEAD S. P. LAND GRANT

Grants Pass, May 11.—To make a test case of the railroad land proposition and to determine whether or not the Southern Pacific or Harriman interests can eject a locator from their lands in Southern Oregon without first giving him the privilege to buy at a reasonable figure, W. B. Sherman, of this city, has filed upon 160 acres of land and will meet all the requirements of the homestead law.

Mr. Sherman declares he will stay on the land until he is either thrown off bodily or is given a chance to buy. He is representing thousands of people in Southern Oregon who would locate or purchase these lands were they given the chance, and the result of the case will be watched with interest.

which every imitator aims at. But Mennen's Borated Talcum Toilet Powder remains inimitable despite of all false boasts "as good as Mennen's."

Mennen's Toilet Powder made its fame by its superiority. It holds its fame by this same inimitable quality. There is nothing like Mennen's. There could not be, because no one else knows the secret of the Mennen powder and the processes of manufacture. Under the provisions of the new pure food and drugs law every box of Mennen's bears the serial number designated by the government, a guarantee of purity and of protection to every purchaser and user of Mennen's Toilet Powder.

To give absolute protection to all users of Mennen's, the company has patented a non-refillable box—"the box that lox." Insist on Mennen's for your own protection.
