WEDNESDAY, JUNE 5

THE RAILROAD QUESTION

There is a growing conviction among the businessmen of Eugene that the S. P. Co. intends to continue indefinitely its discrimination against this city. Many of them have heretofore believed in the promises of the company that it would make needed improvements in the yards and buildings here, as well as arrange a train schedule over the Wendling branch, and grant certain other concessions to which our businessmen think they are entitled as large patrons of the railroad. Now, however, it is dawning upon the minds of most of those who are interested that the S. P. Co. company officials have simply been flim-flam-ming them, and that not a single promise made will be carried out, and as a consequence definite action will be taken to work out the transportation problem in their own way.

It is likely that within a short time a formal demand will be made upon the S. P. Co. for a pro rata mileage freight rate from Portland, the same as are now given to Salem and Albany, and that train service to and from Wendling and Coburg will be asked for. In case the company refuses the shippers here will unite in routing their goods for the long haul over opposition roads, and furthermore will carry their complaints to the state railroad commission, prepared to fight the issue to a finish.

This is a sensible conclusion, and the Guard is pleased to know that the businessmen are at last waking up to the necessity for action. They have nothing to lose by such a fight, since the S. P. Co. has never done anything for Eugene, and there is no good reason to believe it ever intends to. Trains are merely stopped here long enough to allow passengers to get on or off the cars, or to handle freight, and there are only such improvements in the yard as are absolutely necessary, the situation and arrangement of the freight depot being a menace to life and limb. Nothing worse could happen to this city from a railroad standpoint than it is now forced to accept, if in the end the fight for just treatment is lost. But no honest, well-directed fight for right and justice is ever lost if persisted in and carried on unremittingly, and we believe that Eugene people will find the means to force the railroad company to accord fair treatment if the matter is taken up with the firm determination to force it to a final conclusion.

As to transportation emancipation in a broader sense, the people of Lane county now have an opportunity of securing the building of a railroad toward the coast that holds out the promise of ultimate permanent relief if they will but display a small part of the enterprise shown by Coos and Douglas counties, where the building of an electric railway between Roseburg and Marshfield is already assured. It remains only for the larger property owners to come forward with the proper financial support to insure the success of the movement, since the business men are united in its favor and will subscribe liberally as their means will permit. It must be borne in mind that all the upper Willamette valley looks to Eugene to work out this problem and that every other town stands ready to co-operate, once the plan is decided upon and the machinery set in motion. This idea is aptly expressed by the Bohemia Nugget when it says:

"Whatever may be the result of the agitation, even if it amount to nil, the credit of the effort must be given to Eugene people, who have and are making every effort to secure transportation at rates that will leave the producer a fair price for his products and not at the mercy of a corporation, and we believe we speak for this section of the county when we say that whatever the promoters think is most feasible and the best method to obtain what they are striving for will receive the hearty cooperation of this section, and if an electric road is decided upon that Cottage Grove will have the opportunity of deciding whether or no, it desires to be counted in on the deal."

Certain high financiers have had the misfortune to have it "leak out" that they are willing to exchange a big campaign fund for either, or both parties for the privilege of naming the candidate or candidates. It would require the biggest ever, and then some more, to elect any man bearing a high finance brand, in the present state of public sentiment.

Several world-powers are worrying over the problem of why Japan still keeps its army on a war footing, not to mention why it is doubling its navy. It may expect to have to fight for the peace it professes to desire, and then it may intend to collect a few bits of China. Of course its relations with the United States have nothing to do with it.

The colored brethren have been too busy knocking at Taft to hear about this Colorado proposition to use watermelons to make cider, but some sure enough protesting may be expected when they do. Watermelons for cider, indeed!

Senator Knox may not be nominated for president, but when he said "I am not discussing other candidates," he set a good example for the whole bunch of would-be.

Oklahoma Democrats claim that the president has no authority to reject the constitution they have made, but admit that they fear that he will.

Fred Dubois, former senator from Idaho, is so fond of trouble that, having got out of public life, he is preparing to enter the newspaper business.

The Gouls, male and female, appear to be the stormy petrels of matrimony, as well as living proofs of the miseries of swollen fortune.

Recent market reports indicate the old saying, "as good as wheat," has come into fashion again.

LORANE ITEMS

(Special Correspondence.) Lorane, June 4.—People here seem to enjoy talking railroad, even though their hopes may never be realized.

Misses Nettie and Jessie Addison have returned from Cottage Grove to spend the summer vacation.

The flags sent out from Eugene for the graves of our soldier dead were greatly appreciated.

Earl Addison is home from Eugene for the summer vacation.

Rumor has it that O. W. Fidler and family contemplate joining the exodus of Loranelles moving toward Eugene.

Miss Hildred Inman's many friends were glad to greet her in our midst again Memorial day, and delighted to see her looking so well after such a severe and protracted illness.

Miss Sadie Addison has closed a successful term of school on the lower Staslow and is now home to spend vacation.

Mrs. Doty has returned from Eugene and old neighbors and friends were very glad to meet her in her accustomed place at church last Sunday.

James Hartley and wife are out from Eugene to spend a week at the old home.

Mel Fenwick and wife, of Springfield, spent Memorial day here and they are now with friends down the river on an outing.

Mrs. F. F. Inman will spend the summer here, that Hildred has have the benefit of country life while regaining her health.

We had an ideal day for memorial exercises and a good program was rendered in the M. E. church, after the graves in the different cemeteries were strewn with flowers.

MARCOLA ITEMS

(Special Correspondence.)
Marcola, June 4.—C. C. Sharpe has moved to Coos Bay.

S. G. Spicer has the frame work of his new barn all up.

The flume from S. P. mill No. 3 has begun to grow under the supervision of Abe Tidd.

Wm. Amos and son have just finished painting the livery barn.

NEWS OF COTTAGE GROVE AND VICINITY

The ice plant started up last Thursday and the proprietors issued ice to all who chose to call for it, giving away nearly the whole of four tons, the first freeze.

The wooden buildings now on the site on which will be erected the new brick block by Lieutenant Lawson are being made for their removal or demolition.

Duke Knox, a well-known young man in Cottage Grove, but who for some time past has been holding the position of bookkeeper in a Seattle bank, has passed through a siege of typhoid fever. His mother, who resides at Eugene, went there to nurse him and he has so far recovered that he has been brought to his home in Eugene, where he is now getting along nicely.—Nugget.

LIVING ITEMS

(Special Correspondence.)
Irving, June 5.—Revival meetings have been in progress at the Christian church for the past 10 days with increasing interest. Several have united with the church.

W. R. Lord has moved his household goods to the farm recently purchased of Mr. Leonard. His family are stopping with Mr. Lord's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kluyton, until they remodel the house.

Miss Inez Coldron, who is teaching west of Smithfield, visited at home over Sunday.

Miss Mary Day is home again from Creswell, where she has been teaching for the past three months.

L. H. Potter and family and E. O.
Potter were in Irving Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kompff were visitors in Irving Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Jennings and daughter Leone came up from Portland last week and will be in Irving for several weeks.

ANNOUNCEMENT

I beg to announce that I have purchased of Wm. Staiger, of Salem, Or., his business and entire stock of monuments, which is without doubt the largest, best finished and selected stock in the state, and consists of Scottish, Swedish and Eastern granite and Vermont marble; monuments, tablets, etc., of nearly every design.

I have some exceptionally good things to offer the people of Eugene and Lane county at this time. I can make prompt delivery. Besides the stock on hand I have also on the sea and coming by rail Scotch and New England granite.

Now is the opportunity to make a good selection for summer and fall delivery, and have your work well set before the rainy season.

Remarkable Rescue.

That truth is stranger than fiction has been once more demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes:

"I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat.
Doctors failed to help me and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing soon stopped, the bleeding rapidly diminished, and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds. 50c and $1 at W. L. DeLano's drug store. Trial bottle free.

Mo. according to a letter which reads:

and kidney trouble, and becoming greatly discouraged by failure to find relief, I tried Electric Bitters, and as a result I am a well man today. The first bottle relieved and three bottles completed the cure." Guaranteed land With Mrs. Kelly.

Ethel Williams and Anna Whetzell, the two girls who were arrested yesterday morning and found guilty of violating the city ordinance prohibiting persons from loitering about the streets after 12 o'clock at night, were taken to Portland this afternoon by Mrs. Geo. H. Kelly and will be placed in the Magdalene home in that city. They agreed to go and remain there one year. They will be taken care of there and attempts made to reform them. The Williams girl came here some time ago from Redding, Cal., and the Whetzell girl for-

A LONG FELT WANT

While working in the largest dying and cleaning works on the coast and while there seeing lots of garments shipped from Eugene to be dyed-cleaned, or dyed, and after investigating and going over the ground thoroughly we saw at once that there was a good opening for a first-class cleaning and dyeing works in Eugene, so we decided to put in a first-class plant and are doing well from the start. We are the only experts in this line north of San Francisco, and have had over 12 years' experience and guarantee all work. All articles dyed and cleaned by us are treated separately for sanitary purposes and done by hand. In this way we obtain good results and as no machinery is used in our work that will tear or injure the fabric.
