CANDIDATES FOR THE BUG HOUSE

Attorney-General Crawford, in his opinion on the university referendum, gives some excellent reasons why the alleged petitions should not be accepted by the secretary of state.

Eugene is building cement sidewalks as fast as men can be procured to do the work. This is a big step cityward.

Harry Orchard made the mistake of his life when he left enough men alive to fill up a trial jury.

Eugene might hire a professional rain-maker to lay the dust.

BRAVE LOVE

He'd nothing but his violin, I'd nothing but my song. But we were wed when skies were blue.

And summer days were long. And when we parted by the hedge. The robins came and sang to us.

When early spring was cold. We sometimes snuggled on dewberries. Or slept among the hay.

But off the farmers' wives at eve. Came out to hear us play. The rare old tunes—the dear old tunes.

We could not starve for long. While my man had his violin. And I my sweet love song.

Old man, since we were wed. Our homelike wanderings down the lanes.

It long ago was done. But those who wait for gold or gear. For houses and for kine, Till youth's sweet spring grows brown and sore.

And love and beauty time. Will never know the joy of hearts. That met without a fear.

When you had but your violin. And I a song, my dear.

THE APPLE TREE

"I'm weary," said the apple tree. "Of dressing just the same. Year after year in darkest green.

Since first tree to earth I came. The peach trees have their gowns of pink. The plum trees all appear.

In sunset white, and I should have. A new frock once a year." "Then take your choice," said Madame Spring.

And from her stock displayed. The airiest of chiffons, mulls. And silks of every shade.

First a rose pink organdie. The apple tree inclined. And on a snowy muslin next.

A GOOD DISPOSITION

I was glad to see de May day. I was glad to welcome June. An' July has many a play day.

John is not working today, but one of his understudies ventures the guess that nothing will go after him harder or more successfully than a girl, unless it be a widow.

Andrew Jackson Devos, of Hackensack, N. J., who claims to have discovered the weather secret, and to be able to foretell it from four to six months ahead, will be telling his secret to hard-hearted keepers if he isn't careful.

Judson Harmon's bid for the Democratic nomination is out in the form of a speech advocating tariff revision and lower prices. Nothing sensational in that. If he can guarantee lower prices he can easily win.

Those Russian terrorists might do well to send a representative over to attend the Haywood trial. As a bomb-thrower this man Orchard is a top-notch—if he isn't talking through his headgear.

Some Democratic editor is overlooking a chance to get advertising by not getting up in meeting and advocating Bryan for second place on the ticket with "some good Southern man."

If the man who claimed to have lived 102 years without kissing a woman except his mother wasn't dead we'd be tempted to nominate him for membership in the Ananias club.

Those who have not been assassinated by Harry Orchard will please hold up their hands for half a minute while we count 'em.

I'll be happy in December. Jes' de same as spring or fall. When dem hot days I remember.

Is done gone foh good an' all. I ain't kickin' 'bout what's due me. I jes' lets de ol' sun rise.

Kitchen Comfort. The combination of hot meals and a cool kitchen has always seemed an impossibility, yet this happy result is obtained wherever there's a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove.

LOST VALLEY NEWS

(Special Correspondence.) Lost Valley, June 3.—Our hearty thanks to the county court for their promptness in following our advice in regard to the badly needed bridge at Lowell.

We understand that E. R. Parker is to be principal of the Crewell school this coming year. Mr. Parker is one of Lane's foremost educators.

Mr. and Mrs. Holdridge, of Clatskanie, visited with William Williams and family Sunday.

Mrs. Ennis Neet has gone to Eugene to reside with the family of Mr. and Mrs. A. Mathews. Ennis, we miss you.

Mrs. S. Y. Abbott, of 695 Olive street, Eugene, Oregon, says: "Last winter I was taken with a bad spell of sickness and kidney complaint. There was hardly a time when I could not attend to my housework, but this time I was completely laid up. My back was so weak I could scarcely move without pain. I started doctoring and took several prescriptions without much benefit."

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A LONG FELT WANT While working in the largest dyeing and cleaning works on the coast and while there seeing lots of garments shipped from Eugene to be dyed, cleaned, or dyed, and after investigating and going over the ground thoroughly we saw at once that there was a good opening for a first-class cleaning and dyeing works in Eugene, so we decided to put in a first-class plant and are doing well from the start.

Everything possible in cleaning or dyeing. Eugene Dye Works, 659 Willamette street. Phone Red 2891. C. Marx, Jr., manager.

BIDS WANTED. For Erection of the Eugene General Hospital.
