CITY NEWS.

Weather Prediction.

Tonight and Friday, Fair.

Yesterday's baseball scores: San Francisco, 5; Portland, 1. Los Angeles, 6; Oakland, 4.

Jas. McClaren and family are moving from 106 West Sixth street to Chas. Croner's residence at 29 East Fifth street.

The Hendricks' Park sign was placed over the gate at the entrance to the park today. F. M. Wilkins, president of the park commission, superintended the work.

A car load of old rails arrived here yesterday and were unloaded at the depot grounds this morning. They will probably be used in the construction of the new switches in the yards.

Street Commissioner Turner reports that he is meeting with good success in the work of ordering new sidewalks in the residence districts. He says many of the property owners are complying with the order.

Richard Matney was brought over from Springfield last evening and placed in the county jail, having been fined by the Justice of the Peace for disturbing the Free Methodist's camp meeting.

In the item about the increase in the salaries of the several postmasters in Oregon in yesterday's Guard, the salary of the Eugene postmaster, J. L. Page, was given as $2300. It should have been $2500.

W. C. Yoran is being mentioned for school director to succeed himself and will probably run against

W. H. Dempster, who has been petitioned to run. Mr. Yoran will have completed the unexpired term of W. O. Zeliger this month.

Howard Farlow was fined $50 for his wrongdoing in connection with the recent arrest of himself, the Richmond boy and the two girls who were taken to the Magdalene home at Portland yesterday. He will serve out the sentence on the street.

George Millican has been having a siege of heart trouble this week, and for a time it was feared that he would not rally from the attack. Yesterday, however, we were informed that he was better and on the road to recovery.—Prineville Review, May 30.

Day & Henderson are making connections with the big water main in front of their furniture store so that the pavement will not have to be torn up at some future time when they need the water. Other property owners on Willamette street, including the lodge of Eagles, are preparing to do the same.

Willamette street from Eleventh to Fourteenth, will be sprinkled and the work paid for by private subscription. F. W. Osburn having circulated a paper among the residents of that section and it was unanimously signed. They agree to pay for the work themselves and this portion will not be held up by injunction.

The commissioners' court today appointed J. M. Williams special attorney to attend the court and advise it in regard to such matters as are required to be passed upon by the district attorney. In the absence of a deputy district attorney for this county, the new district attorney, W. S. McFadden, of Corvallis, not yet having made his appointment.

The people of Eugene will have an exceptional opportunity Saturday night of hearing an exceptionally strong and eloquent speaker, Dr. Stewart, of Rochester, New York, who gave such an excellent address at the university assembly two weeks ago, will be in town Saturday and will lecture at the Baptist church. This lecture is free to the public and every one should avail themselves of the privilege of hearing this inspiring address.

Tomorrow night is the time designated for the union picnic. The various organizations associated in this enterprise are the several Christian Endeavor societies and Epworth Leagues and the Baptist Young People's Union. All members of these societies and their friends are invited. The party will start from the Catholic church at 6 p. m. and will go directly to the Oaks at Fairmount. Each young lady must have the counter-sign—something to eat.

Thursday night adventure chance of program at the Little Gem. This will be a splendid program, especially interesting to the little folks. The wonderful little fairy story, "ALICE IN WONDERLAND," in 16 scenes. No child in Eugene should miss seeing this beautiful piece. The Sensational Bank Robbery—very realistic and exciting. The two beautiful songs, "In the Golden Autumn Time, My Sweet Elaine," and "Ain't You Coming Back to Old New Hampshire, Molly?"

Rev. and Mrs. Geo. E. McDonald are removing their household goods from the United Brethren parsonage preparatory to leaving the city. They will go to the annual conference at Philomath Monday and from there will go up into Washington for awhile and after that will go East, where Mr. McDonald will attend a theological seminary. He has been pastor of the local U. B. church for the past five years, and it is with regret that the people of the city learn that he is to leave. He will preach his last sermon for the local church Sunday.

A slight shower fell this afternoon, but not heavy enough to lay the disagreeable dust.

Over a hundred kegs of spikes for the street railway arrived yesterday and were unloaded from the car today.

The Woodmen of the World moved their paraphernalia to their new hall, the old Central Presbyterian church building, today, and will meet for the first time in their new quarters Friday night.

Lucius Phetteplace was today appointed guardian of the persons and estates of Isaac and Mary Yeager, incompetents, who are aged residents of Fairmount. He has given a bond of $500 with T. H. Garrett as surety. Ed Jenkins, C. A. Wooley and Owen Bristol have been appointed appraisers of the property owned by them.

The annual election of Cyclone Hose Company was held last night with the following result: President, W. B. Dillard; vice president, Harry Hobbs; secretary, William Williams; treasurer, M. C. Harris; foreman, George E. Wood; first assistant, William Nussbaum; second assistant, W. B. Dillard; sergeant-at-arms, Charles Watts; trustees, Archie Livermore, W. L. Coppernoll and Austin Hampton. The members of the company repaired to Otto's after the meeting and enjoyed ice cream.

SLAIN FOR CUP OF WATER.

Desert Jury Justifies the Killing of an Inhuman Hermit.

One man was recently killed and another wounded over a canteen of water, and a desert jury held the survivors justified for their part in the shooting.

Bill and Lynn Despain, prospecting for placer gold in the Colorado desert, became lost in the trackless sweep of sands. In their wanderings they came, half crazed from thirst, upon a well beside the adobe hut of Arthur Jones, a grizzled hermit of the waste.

The Despains became nearly frantic with joy, for the next watering place was a hard day's ride distant. But when they asked to fill a canteen Jones refused.

The prospectors began to draw water from the well anyway, when Jones opened fire on them from the door of his adobe. Bill Despain fell with a bullet in his hip.

Before Jones could fire again Lynn Despain had shot him dead. Then Despain dragged his brother into the hut and went for help. Bill Despain will recover.

Nether prospector was arrested pending the decision of the coroner's jury exonerating them.
