EVERYBODY HELPS

The lack of harmony between the business men and the property owners as exhibited in the wrangle over street sprinkling is much to be regretted. They are so much dependent upon each other that a spirit of good will and co-operation should be maintained, and it should be made manifest at all times that the people of Eugene are pulling together toward a common goal—the upbuilding and prosperity of the city.

At this time no other town in Oregon has a brighter future than Eugene, and our prospects should not be dimmed by unseemly disagreements over really trivial matters of policy. There should be a give and take spirit manifested that will result in a closer fellowship of interests, and inure to the good of all.

Let us get together and pull together, and in the future growth of Eugene cityward adopt the motto that has been so potent for good in other cities, "Everybody helps."

The time has come when everybody should help Eugene forward, working always along the line of action that seems most acceptable to the majority.

The receipts of the Oregon state land department for May aggregated $100,987, representing the largest month's business in land transactions in years. Of this amount $95,659 is credited to the sale of school lands, and the heavy receipts are due to the redemption of certificates canceled for fraud, at the advanced price of $2.50 per acre. Previous payments upon these certificates, the bulk of which are held by John De Laittre, of St. Paul, Minn., and represent about 50,000 acres, averaging 75 cents an acre, must be refunded, as per order of the board, which will reduce the receipts somewhat. "Repayment will also have to be made upon the Keiller list of certificates, aggregating about 30,000 acres, which have been cancelled without recourse. This will amount to about 75 cents per acre.

A census call from the bureau of the census department of commerce and labor relating to religious bodies, has been received by the local churches. The bureau requires the statistical figures of each church for the year 1906, a decennial report. Among the information called for is the full title of the denomination, location, year established, number of church edifices, seating capacity, value of church property, amount of debt on church, value of parsonage, language in which the services are conducted, number of ministers, their salary, communicants or members, members of each sex, number of officers and teachers and number of scholars.

Governor Cummins did not wait to find out whether Senator Allison was a candidate for re-election before announcing his own candidacy for the senate. In fact, Cummins isn't a good water—when he wants anything he goes after it, and in this case adds to the states with factional fights on hand or in sight.

We notice a paragraph going the rounds asserting that the climate of Bermuda, in the West Indies, and St. Michael's, in the Azores, make a man lazier than any other places on earth. It isn't true. There are men right in this town who couldn't possibly be made any lazier than they are.

Baker City has a "30,000 Club," but it isn't working much. Property owners there have blocked the street paving movement for over a year and it is found almost impossible to make any substantial progress in building up the city without permanent street improvement.

Senator Hemmenway, home manger of the Fairbanks boom, says it wants neither bouquets nor bricks from the White House. The general impression of the press seems to be that its paramount want is more serious support and less joshing.

Too bad that Secretary Root should have to smooth down the excitable and over-sensitive little Japs all over again. If this sort of thing is to be kept up, it may be decided that the game of keeping them in good humor is not worth the candle.

When Secretary Straus said there should be higher pay for all workers and lower prices for all necessities, he gave a hint to the man who can make good of how to start a Presidential boom that would drive all the politicians to the woods.

According to a Washington club-woman, the European masses regard the United States as "the land of sausage, beer and chewing gum," but she failed to say whether her discovery was the result of investigation or merely intuition.

In some countries the masses never go further than demanding work and bread, but in this glorious land of sky-scrapers and sky-prices they demand pie, cake and holidays with pay. No wonder immigration increases.

Senator Daniel thinks the Democrats should nominate a middle-of-the-road man on the same sort of a platform; also, probably, though he hasn't publicly said so, that the candidate's name should begin with D.

Tom Lawson says he's in touch with the labor people. That's a big scoop on our workers, whose pines we had not suspected of being big enough to invite a "touch" from Hot-air Tom.

According to the Washington political sharps, the Taft, Cannon and Knox booms have been authorized to display the Roosevelt G. K.

A HOME IN THE HEART.
Oh, ask not a home in the mansions of pride,
Where marble shines out in the pillars and walls.
Though the roof be of bold, it is brilliantly cold,
And joy may not be found in its torch-light halls.
But seek for a bosom all honest and true,
Where love, once awakened, will never depart;
Turn, turn to that breast like the dove to its nest,
And you'll find there's no home like a home in the heart.

Oh, link but one spirit that's warmly sincere,
That will lighten your pleasure and solace your care,
Find a soul you may trust as the kind and the just,
And be sure the wide world holds no treasure so rare.
Then the frowns of misfortune may shadow our lot,
The cheek-bearing tear drops of sorrow may start,
But a star never dim shines a halo for him
Who can turn for repose to a home in the heart.

—Eliza Cook.

ODDITIES OF GREAT MEN.
Robert Louis Stevenson's favorite recreation was playing the flute. In order, as he said, to tune up his lungs.

Robert Browning could not sit still. With the constant shuffling of his feet holes were worn in the carpet. Longfellow enjoyed walking only at sunrise or sunset, and he said his best thoughts came to him at these times.

Hawthorne always washed his hands before reading a letter from his wife. He delighted in poring over old advertisements in newspaper files.

Darwin had no respect for books as books, and would cut a big volume in two for convenience in handling, or he would tear out leaves he required for reference.

Oliver Wendell Holmes, though he despised superstition and was a skillful doctor, used to carry a horse chestnut in one pocket and a potato in another, to ward off rheumatism. Joaquin Miller nailed all his chairs to the wall.

Edgar Allan Poe slept with his cat, and was inordinately proud of his feet. Daudet wore his eyeglasses when asleep. Thackeray used to lift his hat whenever he passed the house in which he wrote "Vanity Fair."

Alexander Dumas, the younger, bought a new painting every time he had a new book published.

HUSBAND RAN OFF WITH ANOTHER WOMEN

Mrs. Emma Witcher today filed a petition in the circuit court asking for a divorce from Frank Witcher and for the restoration of her maiden name, Emma Waymire. She says they were married at Reno, Nev., on August 16, 1906. It is alleged in the complaint that he never contributed any thing to her support and soon after their marriage he began to openly and notoriously cohabit with another woman by the name of Molly Ballard; that he left the plaintiff and deserted her, in company with this woman on September 2, 1906. L. M. Travis is attorney for Mrs. Witcher.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.
It is reported that Senator Proctor of Vermont will shortly resign his seat in favor of his son, who is now governor of the Green Mountain state, and who bids fair to become as prominent in public life as his distinguished father.

In elections the fact that the coming fight for the republican nomination for governor of Kansas will be between W. R. Stubbs and W. J. Fitzgerald, with possibly one or two others trailing.

Former Governor Frank Brown, Congressman Talbot and other congressmen Miles are to fight it out for the choice of the democrats of Maryland for United States senator to succeed William P. Whyte, whose term will expire in 1909.

Charles A. Walsh of Iowa, former secretary of the democratic national committee, has been conferring recently with the erstwhile populist leaders in Arkansas and other southern states with the purpose, it is reported, of organizing independence leagues in the interest of William H. Hearst.

Seven names are now mentioned as possible democratic presidential candidates, not counting the dark horse suggested by Henry Watterson. The list comprises William J. Bryan of Nebraska, Governor-elect Hoke Smith of Georgia, Senator Calhoun of Texas, Governor Johnson of Minnesota, Judge Gray of Delaware, Governor Campbell of Texas and Governor Comer of Alabama. The list might be lengthened by adding the name of Senator Daniel, whom Virginians believe would make an ideal democratic standard bearer.

HARRISBURG NOTES, LOCAL AND PERSONAL

O. C. Wolf, of Springfield, was here the latter part of last week visiting with numerous friends.
Miss Nellie Peters was down from Eugene Thursday last, placing flowers on her mother's grave.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Morris and family were down from Eugene on Thursday last visiting with relatives and assisting in decorating the graves of departed relatives.

A. Wilhelm, Sr., of Monroe, was over Monday last attending the funeral of the late R. A. Rumpy. Mr. Wilhelm is one of the leading merchants of the valley, and has been in the mercantile business in Monroe for a good many years, where he has built up a very large business. The firm of A. Wilhelm & Sons have the finest store building at Monroe to be found in the valley. The firm also operates three flouring mills and does a large business in that line.

The picnic at Junction City last Friday drew quite a crowd from here and all reported a very good time. The ball game was between the Harrisburg team and the Junction boys and was won by the team from this city by the score of 10 to 6.

Felix Thomas, of Cedar Flat, Lane county, returned home Monday after a few days in this section. His visit here was a very sad one, he having accompanied the corpse of his wife, whose death occurred very suddenly last week, and which were buried at the Masonic cemetery Wednesday last.

The Harrisburg baseball team has been winning laurels for itself ever since it organized, and is beginning to think it can play the game just about right. They crossed bats with the Junction team Friday last and Sunday they played a game in this city with the ball team from Shedd and our boys were again successful. Modesty, however, prevents us from stating the exact score of the last game, but the home team put it over the visitors to the tune of nearly three to one. We look for a number of games this summer, and hope that our boys will be as successful in the future as they have been in the past.

A LONG FELT WANT

While working in the largest dyeing and cleaning works on the coast and while there seeing lots of garments shipped from Eugene to be dyed, cleaned, or dyed, and after investigating and going over the ground thoroughly we saw at once that there was a good opening for a first-class cleaning and dyeing works in Eugene, so we decided to put in a first-class plant and are doing well from the start. We are the only experts in this line north of San Francisco, and have had over 12 years' experience and guarantee all work. All articles dyed and cleaned by us are treated separately for sanitary purposes and done by hand. In this way we obtain good results and as no machinery is used in our work that will tear or injure the fabric.

Everything possible in cleaning or dyeing. Eugene Dye Works, 659 Willamette street. Phone Red 2861. C. Marx, Jr., manager.

Remarkable Rescue.
That truth is stranger than fiction has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing soon stopped, the bleeding rapidly diminished, and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds. 50c and $1 at W. L. DeLano's drug store. Trial bottle free.

The Magic No. 3.
Number three is a wonderful mesmeric for Geo. H. Harris, of Cedar Grove, Me., according to a letter which reads, "After suffering much with liver and kidney trouble, and becoming greatly discouraged by failure to find relief, I tried Electric Bitters, and as a result I am a well man today. The first bottle relieved and three bottles completed the cure." Guaranteed best on earth for stomach, liver and kidney troubles by W. L. DeLano, druggist. 50c.
