BAKER STOCK CO. IS COMING TO EUGENE THEATRE

Manager Geo. H. Smith, of the Eugene theatre, returned from a trip to Portland this morning, where he arranged with Manager Geo. L. Baker, of the Baker and Empire theatres, to bring his stock company to this city week after next.

Manager Baker is now featuring Ollie Cooper, probably the greatest child actress on the American stage at the present time, supported by the entire Baker Stock Company. After next week he will close his Portland theatres for the season and play one night at the Helig, and then come to Eugene, opening a three-night engagement Monday, June 17. The bill in this city will be as follows: Monday night, "Prince and Pauper," Tuesday night, "Little Lord Fauntleroy," Wednesday matinee, "Little Lord Fauntleroy," Wednesday night, "Prince and Pauper."

Prices will be the same as those charged at Portland, 25, 35 and 50 cents at night, and 15 and 25 cents for the matinee.

This is the first time the Baker Stock Company has left Portland to play a smaller city, and Mr. Smith is to be congratulated in securing so good an attraction with which to close his season. The public will no doubt reciprocate by extending a most liberal patronage during the engagement.

EAGLES ATTENTION!

The Magic No. 3.

Number three is a wonderful mascot for Geo. H. Harris, of Cedar Grove, Me., according to a letter which reads: "After suffering much with liver and kidney trouble, and becoming greatly discouraged by failure to find relief, I tried Electric Bitters, and as a result I am a well man today. The first bottle relieved and three bottles completed the cure." Guaranteed best on earth for stomach, liver and kidney troubles by W. L. DeLano, druggist, 50c.

A Fortunate Texan.

Mr. E. W. Goodloe, of 107 St. Louis street, Dallas, Texas, says: "In the past year I have become acquainted with Dr. King's New Life Pills, and no laxative I ever tried before so effectually dispenses of malaria and biliousness." They don't grind or gripe, 25c at W. L. DeLano's drug store.
