BUSINESS FOR SALE

For some time I have been conducting a general merchandise business in Moro, Oregon, with practically no competition. I have built up a trade of over $90,000 a year, netting me a profit of over 15%. This has all been done with hired help as my time has been devoted to the real estate business. With little effort it can be made to pay over 20% on an investment of $28,000. If I were going to remain in the mercantile business, I would stay right here. I have good reasons for selling.

Moro is the county seat of Sherman county; is surrounded by a rich wheat district and is in the midst of a population of over 3,500 people. It offers the best opportunity for a man of energy in the Northwest today.

PROPOSITION: My price is the actual invoice cost of the goods in stock at the time of sale. I will take either cash in full or part Portland or Willamette Valley real estate or secured notes. I will pay all the expenses of any man who investigates and does not find everything as I represent. This is a first class offer and I know it. It is better than 90% of the offers you read about. Investigate and find that I am right.

COUNTY GRANGE HELD PICNIC AT LONDON SPRINGS

(Special Correspondence.)
London, June 18.—The county grange picnic at London Springs is now a thing of the past. But the speakers and the program will long be remembered by all present.

The extremely wet weather kept many people away and made it necessary to assemble at the grange hall, over the London store, which was filled to overflowing. And to say the picnic was a great success is putting it very mildly.

I never saw any crowd of people seem to enjoy themselves better than during the two days that they were together, and well they should, for the speeches and program would honor the most able of earth, both in point of knowledge and mirth. There were several noted speakers expected and several programs from the different granges and other places of education and amusement that were not there.

But among the crowd that assembled on the 15th were the state lecturer, Mrs. Waldo, and Dr. Sharples, both of whose hearts are filled with love and affection for our country and mankind, and especially for the state of Oregon, and her people, without a bit of selfish ambition, and their minds filled with a store of knowledge that would do honor to the most learned of any nation, with conquers that did express in the most simple and favorable terms the mental, physical, moral, spiritual, financial and mirthful needs of the people, and I think I am safe to say that those who missed the picnic at London missed an opportunity that they seldom have a chance to enjoy.

Among other things the people's minds were impressed with the fact that our chief aim and ambition should not be too soon how much labor we could perform or how much wealth we could gain, but to strive for a higher and nobler man and womanhood, a clean heart and a pure conscience.

The grange as an organization is friendly and has a good feeling toward all reasonable and just business interests, political and religious organizations and all social orders, but will resist all unreasonable and unjust laws, monopolies and unjust taxation, always working for the general betterment of every class and calling.

The grange is not a selfish or narrow organization, but is composed chiefly of the tillers of the soil from which have sprung our most noble statesmen of wealth and our brightest business men, and we can safely say that the grange has within its organization some of the most intelligent men and women of our nation.

And we should urge every one who is interested in agriculture to become a member and assist in educating one another in the best methods of farming and stock raising, and how to get the best results of our labor. Our occupation is the oldest and noblest of earth, and has a right to a place above every other.

Come, let us join together in one general organization and assist each other and our labor will be lighter and we can live on the fat of the land.

Celebration of the Third.
There will be a celebration on the third of July at London Springs, and fireworks at night. The program is not completed yet, but don't forget it will be a big time, as London never fails.

The time is set for the third on account of the celebration at Cottage Grove on the Fourth. The committees are all at work in good earnest.
Look for the program a little later and don't forget the third at London Springs.

The new bathhouse at the Springs will soon be completed, then you can get the most thorough course of bathing of any place on the coast.

"Simply Beautiful"
True beauty consists not in cost, but in appropriateness, and the highest forms of art may be described as
"simply beautiful."
Is this true of the walls in your home?
If it is not, you can make it so. You can make them appropriate by making them reflect your own taste; you can make them "simply beautiful" by using

Alabastine

The Sanitary Wall Coating

Alabastine makes walls look better and last longer, and it is more hygienic than any other wall covering. Yet Alabastine is both easy to buy and easy to apply—a powder that is mixed with cold water and put on with a brush. Don't imagine you know all about it from reading this ad, but call at our store and let us show you the Portfolio of Alabastine Prize Designs—let us show you exactly what Ala-bastine is, and exactly what it will do.
