WEBER-BUSSELL MAY ESTABLISH SECOND CANNERY

WASHINGTON FIRM ESTABLISHES BRANCH IN EUGENE AND WILL HANDLE FRUIT ON EXTENSIVE SCALE

Company Will Erect Two Canneries in the Willamette Valley This year and Eugene Has Good Prospects for Securing One of Them—Now Buying Fruit From Lane County Growers

Possibly, if this district should prove remunerative enough, the Weber-Bussell Canning Company will during the next season establish a second cannery in Eugene. The company at least will establish two in the Willamette valley, one in Salem and the other at some other point yet to be chosen.

The Weber-Bussell Canning Company started business a year ago, and last year put up 80,000 cases of fruit. This year they will can 250,000 cases. They have at the present time two canneries, one at Puyallup and one at North Yakima, Wash. The first is the second largest cannery on the Pacific coast, while the second has a capacity of 50,000 or 60,000 cases a year. One is also being erected at Sumner, three miles from Puyallup. By next year two more will be built in Washington, besides the two in the Willamette valley, one at Wenatchee and one at Vancouver.

C. B. Bussell is establishing a sort of sub-station or warehouse in Eugene to receive fruit from Lane county growers. Al Henniman, a well-known fruit buyer, will be the permanent manager, and by next year an office and warehouse will probably be built. At the present time the company is receiving fruit at Hall's warehouse, paying the highest market prices. Other warehouses will be established in this state, wherever a district produces a sufficient amount of fruit and vegetables.

The company has evidently very good backing behind it, as it is even undertaking to grow fruit as well as to can it. It has over a thousand acres of land in Washington, which it cultivates.

JURY IN "GREEN GOODS" CASE STILL OUT

The jury in the case of Mrs. Eugenia Hoffman vs. Duncan Scott, to recover $4000 which the plaintiff alleges that she gave the defendant for the purpose of making an investment, claiming that he failed to invest it and did not return the sum, and which the defendant declares was for the purpose of buying "green goods," was still out at press time, having retired for deliberation at 11 o'clock this morning.

The work of moving the J. M. Shelley residence at the corner of West Eighth and Charnelton streets will be begun in a day or two. The two engines and relics of the caboose wrecked near Cottage Grove passed through the city yesterday for the car or junk shops. N. L. Fitzhenry, of Deerhorn-on-the-McKenzie, visited the city today. He says that the salmon are running in the river and are taking the spoon fairly well. Trout also are biting greedily in the mornings and evenings. Mr. Fitzhenry also states that the tracks of bear are frequently seen which indicates that there should be some good hunting soon. George T. Hall is erecting a store building at Deerhorn. C. L. Goff will conduct the store.

Most of the students at the university have departed for their homes in different parts of the state. Only the seniors and their friends are still Sunday the campus has assumed a lonesome air. But for all that the alumni and friends and relatives of the '07 graduates are already arriving for commencement week, and rallying, too, for commencement, the most important week of the year at the university.

EUGENE COMPANIES WILL BE CAMPED AT FT. STEVENS

The Eugene companies of the Oregon National Guard are making extensive preparations for the annual encampment between July 6 and 13 at Fort Stevens, on the Oregon side of the mouth of the Columbia. The Oregon troops will be scattered in five different groups, four of which are near the mouth of the Columbia. The Washington troops will at the same time be encamped around Puget Sound. The militia of both states with the exception of a few companies will endeavor to ward off the imaginary attacks of a supposed enemy.

The Oregon troops will be divided into five camps. Two companies will be at Fort Columbia, on the Washington side, five at Fort Stevens, seven at Gearhart Park, and the battery at Seaside. Five Southern Oregon companies will be situated at Roseburg, where there is a crack rifle range, and much "wet goods."

The proposed Fourth regiment, of which considerable has been said, will not be formed until after the encampment, as the officers would not have time to get their suits. The regiment will probably consist of the companies at Eugene, Cottage Grove, Silverton, McMinnville and other places. It is hardly likely that Eugene will have a third company.

STREET PAVED WITH MONEY.

Careless Lady Shopper Had Holes in Her Stocking.

"Just like finding it," said Miss Nellie F. Healy, a dry goods clerk, as she picked up a wad of bills containing $30 on Main street, Taunton, Mass.

"How careless," said Policeman Morris as he picked up $20 not far away. "I needed it," said Captain Walker as he lifted a ten dollar bill.

Further down the street James McMahon, miller, said as he scooped up a ten dollar gold piece, addressing Mrs. Joseph Chambers of Pine street, "Is this yours, madam?" "I don't know," said Mrs. Chambers. "I had one. Wait and I'll see." She stepped into a doorway, thrust her hand beneath her skirts and turned pale.

"Mercy!" she cried. "I put $70 in my stocking when I came down shopping this morning, and it's all gone."

She had holes in the stocking. Later she received most of the money from the police, and Miss Healy was rewarded.

Burns Wife's Only Silk Dress. John Green of Waterbury, Conn., drank whiskey and returned home drunk. At his abuse and threats his wife cried, whereat he went upstairs and secured her silk dress, her first one in ten years and made by herself for church wear. He took the dress into the yard and poured kerosene over it. With his wife pleading with him to beat her rather than destroy her only good dress, Green touched a match to the oil soaked fabric and danced about the blaze, rejoicing that her Sundays would now be spent profitably at home. Green was fined $10 in police court.

Two Headed Reversible Snake. A monstrosity in the shape of a two headed snake, one head being at either end, was killed recently by John McCarty, a farmer living west of Ottumwa, Ia. The reptile, which was seven feet long, was capable of traveling in either direction. It was of a striped variety. McCarty hung it on a fence and intended to show it to some friends after his midday meal, but when he returned the crows had carried off the carcass.

Lame Intellect. "Aw, let's drop the argument," "Why?" "I've sprained my brain," "How?" "Trying to follow your crooked reasoning."

Drawback. "Do you like people who scatter sunshine all the way?" "Oh, I enjoy the sunshine all right, but I do detest the arrogance of the industrious scatterers."

A Fortunate Texan. Mr. E. W. Goodloe, of 107 St. Louis street, Dallas, Texas, says: "In the past year I have become acquainted with Dr. King's New Life Pills, and no laxative I ever tried before so effectually disposes of malaria and biliousness." They don't grind or gripe. 25c at W. L. DeLano's drug store.

A LONG FELT WANT

While working in the largest dyeing and cleaning works on the coast and while there seeing lots of garments shipped from Eugene to be dyed-cleaned, or dyed, and after investigating and going over the ground thoroughly we saw at once that there was a good opening for a first-class cleaning and dyeing works in Eugene, so we decided to put in a first-class plant and are doing well from the start. We are the only experts in this line north of San Francisco, and have had over 12 years' experience and guarantee all work. All articles dyed and cleaned by us are treated separately for sanitary purposes and done by hand. In this way we obtain good results and as no machinery is used in our work that will tear or injure the fabric.

Everything possible in cleaning or dyeing. Eugene Dye Works, 639 Willamette street. Phone Red 2881. C. Marx, Jr., manager.
