SOCIETY HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

EUGENE is at her best during Commencement week. For weeks we have been looking forward to it, and now that it is passed we look back on it with pleasure. It is the time when the undergraduate must step back and give way to the Alumni and the Seniors, although the Juniors feel their importance when it comes to the decorating and ushering. A great deal of informal entertaining was done for the out-of-town guests, aside from the larger social affairs.

At a meeting of the women of the University, called by Professor Luella Clay Carson on Tuesday morning, two organizations were effected. One, the State, for the purpose of allying more closely the women of the University that they may work together for the good of their Alma Mater throughout the state, and be eligible to membership in the National Association of Collegiate Alumnae; and the other, a local organization, for the purpose of carrying on a similar work in Eugene.

The following are the officers elected and committees appointed: State:—President, Mrs. Ellen Condon McCormack; vice-president, Mrs. Jennie Beattie Harris, '96; recording secretary, Mrs. Ella Travis Edmunson, '03; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Emily Bristol Potter, '87; treasurer, Mrs. Lulu Holmes Plummer, '05; committee on constitution, Miss Bertha Slater, '99, La Grande; Mrs. Agnes Green Veazie, '91, Portland; Mrs. Edith Kerns Chambers, '95, Eugene; Mrs. Stella Robinson Little, '97, Albany; Mrs. Agnes McCormack Geary, '89, Portland. Committee on Function: Miss Mary Rathrock, '07, La Grande; Mrs. Nettie McCormack Collier, '89, Eugene; Miss Stella Armitage, '03, Eugene; Miss Henrietta Lauer, '98, Portland; Mrs. Lottie Johnson Smith, '97, Salem.

Local:—President, Miss Ida Patterson; vice-president, Mrs. Louis Johnson; secretary, Miss Lella Straub Stafford; treasurer, Miss Louise C. Yorath. Committees on constitution: Miss Cora Wold, Mrs. Emma Thompson Hardy, Mrs. Mary Warfield McAllister, Mrs. Harriette Warfield Huddle, Mrs. Julia Veazie Glenn. Committee on Function: Miss Theresa Felandly, Miss Ruby Hendricks, Mrs. Belle Brown Dearborn, Miss Harriette Patterson, Miss Lulu Kenshaw.

On Wednesday morning, June 26, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Kelly, Miss Kate Sheridan Kelly was united in marriage to Mr. Willis Warner Brown.

Promptly at 10 o'clock the bridal party entered the drawing-room and took their places in the corner arranged with palms and old-fashioned flowers; here the ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Clarence E. Oakley of Oregon City, assisted by Rev. Mac H. Wallace. Miss Kelly was charmingly gowned in white crepe de chine trimmed with lace, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. Mrs. James Seavey, sister of the bride, acted as matron of honor. She wore her wedding dress and carried carnations. The groom was attended by Mr. Harry Dunbar as best man. Following the ceremony the guests sat down to an elaborate wedding breakfast. The decorations of the dining room were sweet-peas and rhododendrons, and the library was decked with red ramblers. The only adornment worn by the bride was a beautiful gold brooch, an heirloom and a present of the groom. The guests were: Mrs. A. H. Tanner Portland, Mrs. Therese Jackson, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. George Kelly, Mrs. Kate Kelly, Miss Jean Kelly, the Misses Eva and Ruth Ruble, Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly, Miss Flora Patterson, Mr. Lloyd Patterson, Rev. and Mrs. Mac H. Wallace, Rev. Clarence E. Oakley, Mr. and Mrs. James Seavey, Mr. Abe Kelly, Miss Frances Kelly, Miss Winnie Kelly, Mr. W. E. Brown and Mr. M. O. Warner. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have gone for a several weeks' visit to the Sound and to Canada.

The ladies of the Congregational church tendered a public reception to Rev. and Mrs. Mac H. Wallace on Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMurphy. The reception was held on the lawn, which was gaily lighted with Japanese lanterns and electric lights, and made cozy with rugs and chairs. In the receiving line were Rev. and Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. McMurphy, Professor Carson, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wheeler, Mrs. Mary Griffin, and Mrs. F. W. Osburn. On the porch, where the piano had been placed, Miss Louise Yorath entertained the guests with two beautiful vocal solos. Mrs. E. O. Potter and Mrs. W. L. DeLano served punch from a pretty little table on one side of the lawn, while Mrs. Archie Livermore, Mrs. G. D. Linn, and Mrs. F. R. Weeberbe, assisted by several young girls, served ice cream and cake from another part of the lawn. A large number of friends of Rev. and Mrs. Wallace attended the reception.

Preceding the graduating exercises on Wednesday morning the Beta Epsilon Sorority gave a breakfast for their Senior member, Miss Lella Goddard, at 8 o'clock. A large center-piece of red and white rambles roses, in the shape of a swastika, adorned the table, around which were seated twenty guests. Dainty and appropriate place cards, the work of Miss Leone Kays, were at each plate. During the breakfast the Sorority presented Miss Goddard with a beautifully engraved silver spoon. Those present, all members of Beta Epsilon, were: Mrs. Wm. Barrett, Mrs. Arthur McAllister, Miss Ella Doble, Miss Norma Hendricks, Miss Alice Brotherton, Miss Camille Carroll, Miss Winifred Hadley, Miss Helene Robinson, Miss Winifred Cockerline, Miss Katherine Fullerton, Miss Adele Goff, Miss Jessie Chase, Miss Gladys McKenzie, Miss Adah Allen, Miss Edith Johnson, Miss Eva Allen, Miss Rachel Vogel, and Miss Irene Simington.

The President's reception, which occurred on Tuesday afternoon, was of course, the event of the week. The rooms of Collier hall, the president's home, were beautifully decorated for the occasion with ferns, nasturtiums and sweet-peas. The guests, of which there were about four hundred, were received and welcomed at the door by Miss Myra Loveridge and welcomed in the drawing room by Mrs. Charlotte Zieher and President Campbell. Mrs. McIntosh invited the guests into the dining room, where they were served with refreshments by the Misses Katherine Fullerton, Irene Simington, Nita Harding, and Bessie Kidder. In the hall the Misses Mary DeBar and Lucia Campbell served delicious punch. The hours of the reception were from 2 until 6, and during this time the rooms were thronged with Seniors, Alumni and friends.

Mrs. L. M. Travis and Mrs. L. R. Edmunson delightfully entertained on Thursday afternoon at the home of the former. The entertainment of the afternoon was needle-work and a tissue-paper hat-making contest, in which the prize was awarded to Mrs. George H. Smith. The hostesses were assisted in serving delicious refreshments by the Misses Emma Travis, Grace Edmunson, and Ernestine Heslop. The guests were: Mesdames M. G. E. Bennett, E. E. Mink, F. S. Dunn, Frank Goodpasture, J. W. Quackenbush, H. C. Mahon, Frank Gilstrap, J. W. Burg, E. O. Potter, James F. Robinson, W. F. Osburn, E. S. Bryson, Drew Griffin, M. L. York, H. M. Glenn, Charles Fisher, Frank Hawk, Ira Bartle, M. J. Edmunson, E. Huff, Gilbert, Robert McMurphy and George H. Smith.

The Armory was the scene of gaiety on Wednesday evening, when occurred the crowning feature of Commencement, the Alumni ball. The hall was very prettily decorated with red and white streamers and college pennants, while rugs and chairs made cozy the patroness' corner, occupied by Professor Luella Clay Carson, Mrs. S. H. Friendly, Mrs. L. L. McArthur, and Mrs. Wm. Barrett. A large number of students and old "grads" were present and enjoyed a program of eighteen numbers.

On Tuesday Mrs. Lester L. Luckey entertained a few of her friends at an afternoon with music. LeRoy Gesner, the noted young violinist of Salem, was there and favored the company with some excellent selections, and there were numerous trios by Mr. Gesner on the violin, M. O. Warner on the cello and Miss Alicia McElroy on the piano. The music was delightful and heartily enjoyed by the guests. Light refreshments were served during the afternoon.

Miss Grace Edmunson entertained a few friends on Friday evening at her home on West Sixth street. The evening was passed with music and cards. Those present were the members of a house-party at Nye Creek last summer and were: The Misses Alicia McElroy, Ethel Barbour, and Ernestine Heslop; the Messrs. Earl Abbett and George Pipes.

Mr. and Mrs. Drew Griffin entertained at dinner on Friday evening in honor of Mrs. Griffin's brother, Rev. Herbert Johnson of Boston.

MAN'S NEGLIGENCE

Causes severe losses. A very common one is the loss of his teeth. Nature doesn't supply the second set—I DO.

One reason it's easy to become accustomed to teeth—I FIT—most people don't return after a day or two with popular complaints.

"Didn't know it could be done so easy", is what they say. Any reason why you shouldn't make a similar remark if I fit your second set of teeth?
