MONDAY, JULY 1.

EUGENE MUST NOT FAIL TO SECURE RAILROAD

There should be a great turn-out Wednesday afternoon, when the question of whether we are to have railroad to Suislaw is to be settled. Everybody should be prepared to do his full share toward the consummation of the greatest project ever attempted in Lane county. There should be no backwardness or hesitancy on the part of any property owner or businessman, when the opportunity is given to subscribe for stock in a road that will be built by the people, owned by the people and managed by their representatives.

As a purely logging road the first section proposed to be built will pay dividends. Many large mills will be its patrons and it can be cheaply operated. The sum Eugene is asked to raise in stock subscriptions would be wisely invested did the road never extended beyond the big timber district. But there is every reason to believe that once the first section is in operation there will be no difficulty in raising sufficient funds to complete the line to Suislaw tidewater.

This is not a hot-air scheme or newspaper railroad. It is a business-like project from a businessman who is willing to put all the means he can command into it, if he people of Lane county will give such assistance and co-operation as will guarantee their good will and support. That Mr. Carver has sufficient rails for the first fifteen miles is known, and that he has paid for them can be certified to by the well-known local bank through which the money was transmitted to the Carnegie Steel company. No better guarantee of the promoter's good faith and financial ability than this could be asked or given.

We all want to see Eugene grow into a city; we all want to see Lane county more prosperous and its industries on a surer footing. A railroad to the coast will guarantee all this—and that road it is now within our power to secure upon terms more reasonable than we have ever before had reason to believe would be presented. We must not fail; we cannot fail if we are alive to our own interests.

When the international congress of anarchists meets in Amsterdam, August 26-31, for the avowed purpose of arranging a list of monarchs to be assassinated and choosing the assassins, would be an excellent time for the concerted European powers to round-up a fine lot of prison material.

The statement that Taft paid paid $2.65 for a railroad restaurant breakfast is made to quiet fears as to the state of his health. However, that doesn't prove that he ate a hearty breakfast—he may have ordered everything on the menu, trying to get something fit to eat, and yet have quit hungry.

Wouldn't you like to be the barber whom $1,800 is paid for a hair-cut? That's what it cost a Chinese banker in San Francisco, for the first hair-cut of his son and heir. A banquet of 150 relatives and friends was the side issue.

For its population, Pendleton has the largest amount of bank deposits at this time of any city in Oregon—or the entire Northwest, for that matter.—Pendleton Tribune.

Eugene calls you—what have you got?

This is the season of the year when the man in town with the hoe and a personally conducted garden increases his laundry and trouser-pressing bills a dollar a week, in order to raise $3.98 worth of vegetables during the summer.

A London preacher has started a crusade for cheerful funerals. Easy enuogh when the deceased was very rich and has made the right sort of will, but difficult if not impossible in most cases.

Senator Daniel may not be nominated for President, but he has an opportunity to fill a big scrap book with as about as pleasant things as have ever been said of a man in political life.

John D. Rockefeller may be frightened over the prospect of being haled into court, but no one has yet noticed that his hair is standing on end.

Albany has a depot four times as large and many times better than Eugene and yet she has carried her fight for a new one up to the state railroad commission.

"The people are safe," remarks the East Oregonian editorially. Not on your life—as long as Rockefeller, Harriman, et. al., are out of jail.

Secretary Taft is spending a few days in Washington, arranging for the next trip on his travel program.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT HELD AT NEWBERG

At th recent G. A. R. encampment at Newberg Col. S. F. Blythe, of Hood River, was elected state commander; G. W. Allen, of Newberg, senior vice commander; W. J. R. Beach, of Forest Grove, junior vice; medical director, Dr. J. E. Hall, of Portland; Rev. Henry Garden, of Portland, chaplain; council advisory, C. H. Baker, of Eugene, R. W. McNutt, Forest Grove, David Webster, Salem; delegates to the National encampment at Saratoga, New York, Geo. A. Harding, A. Dipple, W. C. Shaw, C. A. Sloan and C. A. Edwards.

Newport was chosen as the next place of meeting.

Samuel Taylor, of this city, who was one of the delegates from the local camp, speaks highly of the hospitality of the people of Newberg. The city was specially illuminated in honor of the veterans and every courtesy and attention shown them. He speaks of Newberg as a thrifty city, with several large manufacturing enterprises, a large Quaker college, many churches and a magnificent fruit growing country surrounding it.

The Smile

that won't come off, appears on baby's face after one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, the great worm medicine. Why not keep that smile on baby's face? If you keep this medicine on hand, you will never see anything else but smiles on his face. Mrs. S—, Blackwell, Okla., writes:

"My baby was peevish and fretful. Would not eat and I feared he would die. I used a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge and he has not had a sick day since." Linn Drug Co.

Women In England and the Suffrage.

By Mrs. HUMPHRY WARD, English Novelist.

IN asking for the suffrage women are grasping at direct political power without the possibility in a majority of issues of combining with it DIRECT POLITICAL RESPONSIBILITY, the responsibility of action. And this is impossible simply because they are women.

We all know what are the broad fields of action—action of many kinds, not merely or chiefly that involved in war—on which the existence of our state depends and into which women, BECAUSE THEY ARE WOMEN, can never enter. We are told that the vote is necessary in order that the interests of working women may be duly represented in parliament. But from an anxious and perennial consideration of the interests of women and children by parliament has sprung the code of FACTORY LAW which has made England great.

And if it is just, owing to their better education, that the views of women on the industrial legislation which concerns them should be more directly expressed for the future surely SOME MEANS could be found through some form of departmental or even parliamentary committee for securing this end. Women are now to sit on the local bodies of England.

CANNOT SOME WAY BE DEVISED BY WHICH THROUGH THESE WOMEN REPRESENTATIVES THE OPINION OF WOMEN ON QUESTIONS WHICH SPECIALLY CONCERN THEM MIGHT BE CONSTITUTIONALLY EXPRESSED?

On the other hand, if the parliamentary vote is granted an immense addition will be made, either at once or ultimately, to the ignorant, UNSTABLE VOTE among us, already so large, and the safety of the common state, on which we all depend, will be thereby so much weakened for the sake of ends which may be abundantly reached IN OTHER WAYS.

Moreover, there are signs that if women obtain the parliamentary vote there is a serious danger of REACTION in industrial legislation. Certainly one cannot study various manifestoes lately put forward without feeling that if women had possessed the vote from the forties onward our wonderful code of factory law, under which Lancashire and Yorkshire have grown to greatness and prosperity, either would have been far less efficient or FAR MORE TARDILY ATTAINED, to the infinite detriment of the nation both in health and wealth.

AND THE ARGUMENT THAT WAGES CAN BE RAISED BY THE POSSESSION AND USE OF THE VOTE, HOWEVER KEENLY IT MAY APPEAL TO THE SYMPATHIES OF THOSE WHO REALIZE SOMETHING OF THE STRESS AND STRAIN OF WOMEN'S INDUSTRIAL LIFE, HARDLY CAN CONVINCE ANYBODY WHO HAS ANY KNOWLEDGE AT ALL OF ECONOMIC HISTORY AND SPECULATION.
