CELEBRATION AT THE GROVE WAS SUCCESS

Cottage Grove's celebration was a grand success, according to the Leader of that city. The parade was especially fine.

In beauty and grace Miss Frances Howard surpassed the mythical Goddess of Liberty, while Miss Hazel Gray and Miss Mabel Kime as maids of honor, and Miss Hazel Hazelton representing Plenty and Miss Mabel Rosenburg as Peace, completed a liberty car that for a galaxy of lovelliness was not surpassed in the United States.

Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean, was represented by Miss Agnes Langdon, and the Hawaiian Islands by Miss Eunice Van Denburg and Miss Opal Whitney, and won the admiration of the crowd as they passed along. The different orders represented are also worthy of special mention, bu time and space prevents us from describing minutely this portion that so materially aided in making a success of this portion of the day's program.

While the people were seating themselves the band rendered a selection, after which Dr. Wood, who was chairman of the day, called the gathering to order, and Rev. Beatty offered prayer. This was followed by a selection by the band. Miss Gertrude Palmer being introduced by the chairman, read the declaration of independence in a clear and distinct voice, which was listened to with close attention. After more music Chairman Woods in a few well chosen words introduced Rev. J. R. N. Bell, the orator of the day.

Mr. Bell gained the closest attention of his audience from the start, which he held for over an hour. His oration deviated from the usual spread eagle kind of Fourth of July orations, dealing more with the present and future of our country than with the past, and was a very able and interesting address. This concluded the exercises for the morning and the crowd dispersed to various shady nooks for their basket lunch.

The Sports.

Promptly at 1:30 the program began at the grove and was carried out according to schedule except the three-legged and sack races, no contestants responding.

The song by Elias West, an old man 73 years of age, was well received.

The wrestling match between Dr. Macey and Joe Robinson, which took place on the platform, was much enjoyed and won by the latter.

The baseball game between Cottage Grove and Eugene was witnessed by a large crowd, and was won by the home team.

The other contests and winners are as follows:

100-yard footrace—First prize, Ed Finnerty; second prize, Orril Spear.

75-yard footrace for boys under 21—First prize, Joe Robinson; second prize, Harry Dyer.

50-yard footrace for boys under 16—First prize, Bud Lincoln; second prize, John Kooter.

Girls' footrace—First prize, Hazel Gray; second prize, Audry Langdon.

500-yard bicycle race—First prize, Bud Lincoln; second prize, Albert Woodward.

Plug Uglies—First prize, Clay and Harry Mosby; second prize, Tom Parker.

EUGENE STILL AT THE TOP OF THE COLUMN

The Eugene Celts still maintain their lead in the Lane county league with a percentage of 1000. They defeated the Blues, of Springfield, on their own grounds Sunday afternoon in a well-played game by the score of 3 to 1. There was a good-sized crowd out, many going over from Eugene, and of course the Springfield fans always turn out en masse. The game was a pitcher's battle from start to finish, only three hits being made by each team in the entire game. Campbell, late of the Multnomah team at Portland, occupied the mound for the Celts in place of DeNeffe, whose knee was injured in the game on the Fourth. He has a good assortment of twisters and all kinds of speed. Hurd pitched his usual consistent game for the Blues and struck out ten men to Campbell's nine. The score is as follows:

AN EARLY PIONEER ELOPEMENT

Love Laughed At An Irate Father While Young Couple Rode Miles for a Preacher.

Saturday's Portland Telegram devotes three-quarters of a page to an emigrant train elopement, that of Geo. R. Snipes and Miss Martha Imbler in the fall of 1853, when within a day's horseback ride of The Dalles, then a military post, and the first one for a thousand miles of unbroken wilderness on "the plains."

This was the train headed by Jacob Luce, who became a Lane county pioneer, settling twelve miles west of Eugene, and his daughter, Mrs. A. J. Campbell, mother of the former proprietors o fthe Guard, was the confidant of the young people in their escape from an unsympathetic father. They remained at The Dalles, and besides a fortune accumulated some fourteen of a family of sons and daughters.

As an illustration of the hardships of the five months' trip entirely cut loose from civilization, this train had but got well started on the plains when Indians ran off part of their cattle, necessitating the lightening of loads by throwing away every article that could possibly be spared. Then the women, old men and children able to walk made the fifteen or twenty miles traveled each day afoot ahead of the train. W. T. Campbell, of this city, was an eight-months-old member of this train, and was carried by the mother in arms and afoot most of the distance. But with youth and hope the pioneers thought little of it, and Mrs. Campbell was accustomed to revert to those days as among the happiest of her life.

..DENTISTRY..

It is not necessary to lose your teeth in this day and age if you give a dentist with modern methods a chance to save them.

Why extract them because they ache? Why get rid of them when they start to decay? Do you realize that the teeth are a part of the body the same as the finger, the eye or ear? They have their function to fulfill. It is indeed a very important funciton; if it is not well performed the rest of the human organism suffers. Your food half masticated throws the half done work onto the stomach to complete.

Overwork the stomach, in time you have indigestion; indigestion produces an ugly disposition. Why not then have the teeth all filled and where they have been extracted replaced by bridge work. If they are in a condition that can not be cured, have them extracted and teeth on plates made to replace them. We fill teeth by our late methods without pain. We also extract them without pain.
