BUSINESS BOOM HAS STRUCK LOWELL

Many New Residences and Barns Going Up, Besides New County Bridge to Be Built.

(Special Correspondence.)
Lowell, July 11.—The building boom has struck Lowell and the country around it. Houses and barns are going up in every direction and with the bridge that will be a season long to be remembered. There never was a community that needed a bridge worse than we do, as it is on a direct line to Goshen, Springfield and Eugene by the way of Pleasant Hill for several well settled sections of country along the Middle Fork of the Willamette, Fall Creek and Winberry, and fed by Eastern Oregon by the way of the military road over the Cascades. The river is now very low but not safe for all kinds of rigs and teams to be crossing it.

John Farrier and wife and Joseph Dyer, wife and baby were brought by one of Mr. Yates' rigs to the crossing and were boated over the river and met by Mr. Kelsoy on the east side and conveyed to the latter's home for a short visit, returning in the same way in preference to riding over the rough, circuitous route by way of Fall Creek.

A cougar has been making several raids on Everett Winfrey's hogs ten miles east of Lowell. There should be a good bounty paid by the state for those pestiferous animals, for they are a nuisance in a great many sections and a man to successfully kill them must make good and costly preparations to do so.

Hay making is in full blast and the crop is a good average one. The weather is fine and farmers are very busy. Garm help is short and hard to get, as the logging camps have the most of the men employed at good wages.

Theo Sharp, of Post, Eastern Oregon, paid his parents a visit last week, returning by the way of the McKenzie route.

Lawrence Holland and Raff Castleman passed Lowell for Eastern Oregon by the way of the Military road up the Middle Fork.

Wesley Michael's family, living near Rush Island, has the measles. So far they are getting along nicely.

The prospect is good for a large corn crop this season here.

Charles Sprague is contemplating building a new residence near Rush Island soon.

DEATH OF MRS. H. L. SWAGGART

Pendleton, Or., July 13.—Mrs. H. L. Swaggart, wife of Lester Swaggart, of the well-known pioneer family, died today, following an operation for an abscess in her side. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeWitt, who reside near this city. She came to Eugene with her parents 26 years ago from Kansas, and was married at that place in 1895. She is survived by her husband and two small children, besides her parents.

The pioneer Swaggart home of some 1200 acres eight miles south of Eugene, on the road to Creswell, though many years ago deserted by the pioneer Swaggart for the more profitable free stock land ranges of Umatilla county, is a landmark to the traveler on the gently sloping hillside with its low eaves and broad porch the entire length of the front—types of pioneer home construction one often sees in old Lane county settlements, marking their builders as emigrants from the South, Missouri particularly having furnished a very considerable proportion of our pioneers.

Long Live the King.
Is the popular cry throughout European countries, while in America the cry of the present day is "Long live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of throat and lung remedies, of which Mrs. Julia Ryder Paine, of Turin, Mass., says: "It never fails quickly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country. New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed; and for coughs and colds it is the only sure cure. Guaranteed by W. L. DeLano, druggist, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

WHEN a country becomes civilized it demands typewriters. When it becomes posted on comparative values it demands

The Smith Premier Typewriter

The fact that the Smith Premier Typewriter is used in every civilized country on the globe is not so important as the further fact that the demand increases year after year.

The reputation of the Smith Premier is world-wide. World-wide use has made it so.
