COLONEL YORAN TELLS OF ROSEBURG ENCAMPMENT

HAS NOT YET APPOINTED LIEUTENANT COLONEL, MAJORS AND HIS STAFF FOR NEW REGIMENT.

Encampment Was Not Such Success As Former Ones for Reason That No Drills Were Held, Time Being Occupied With Rifle Practice—Lieutenant Houck Best Shot.

Colonel Geo. O. Yoron, of the Fourth regiment, O. N. G., has not yet made the appointments of lieutenant colonel, the majors, and his staff, but will probably do so in a week or ten days. He returned last night from Roseburg where he had charge of the First Separate Battalion and the rifle teams of most of the companies in the state.

The encampment in some respects was a success, but in others not up to previous ones held. The camp grounds were not good, and there was little place or time for drill work, which is so important. The whole time was taken up with rifle shooting, and in that the teams showed themselves to be greatly improved over last year.

Col. Yoron stated to a reporter this morning that the number of men who qualified as expert riflemen would be greatly increased when camped in October. Oregon stands fourteenth or fifteenth in rank with the other states, New York being first.

The work of rifle shooting is very intricate, and the teaching and demonstrating of scientific shooting was the chief aim of the militia gathering at Roseburg. There are innumerable things which the really expert rifleman will regard in shooting. He first he will judge his cartridge, the length of the bullet and the amount of powder, then he will consider his gun, its calibre and its tricks, then he will judge the wind, the heat, the elevation and similar things, and lastly arrange by mathematics, especially in the long distances, his sights to fit these conditions. Holding also has a great deal to do with fine shooting, and the ordinary soldier would not think of what counts most. It is these things that the officers should teach their men, who, in order to assimilate the knowledge, must have a constant interest to impel them to practice.

Houck Best Shot.

Colonel Yoron said that Lieutenant Geo. E. Houck, of his staff, who is inspector of small arms, and whose home is in Roseburg, was really the best shot in the encampment. Houck there made a remarkable record on the 1000-yard range, which the colonel believes may be the best record ever made in the United States for that range. It was 49 out of a possible 50. Houck is especially good on the long ranges, he making mathematical calculations in his judging. Shields, a Roseburg private, who did so well, is a fine shot on the shorter distances, but as he depends on "holding" almost entirely, is not so good on the higher ranges.

EUGENE MEN ON STATE RIFLE TEAM

Captain Hammond and Corporal Perdew, of Co. A, Will Go East to Compete in National Shoot—Co. A Wins Fourth Place in Company Shoot.

Captain C. C. Hammond and Corporal Raymond L. Perdew, of Co. A, of this city, made the rifle team which will go East from Oregon this year to compete in the national shoot. Captain Hammond is home, but Corporal Perdew remained at Roseburg to practice for the shoot which will be held at Clinton, Ohio, this year. There are 18 in the team, and of these the Roseburg company has five members. It has not yet been decided when the team will go East, but Adjutant General Finzer, who attended the encampment at Roseburg, passed through here last evening on his way to Portland to ascertain when the team shall leave.

In the company shoot Co. K, of Portland, won first place, Co. D, of Roseburg, second; Co. M, of Salem, third; and Co. A, of Eugene, fourth. Co. C, of Eugene, took 13th place, the same as last year.

In the skirmish shoot, Corporal Perdew, of Co. A, and Captain Hamilton, of Co. D, tied for first place, Captain Hamilton winning on account of having more hits.

KELLY WILL NOT GO WITH MULTNOMAH

A press dispatch states that the Multnomah Club, of Portland, has at last decided to send Dan Kelly, the world's champion sprinter, to the Jamestown exposition in September, under the club's colors, but Kelly, who is now in Eugene, says he will refuse to go with the club's team. A subscription paper was started among the businessmen of Eugene this morning to raise $500 with which to send the sprinter and his trainer, "Bill" Hayward, to the exposition to take part in the races there under the University of Oregon colors. Those who have the matter in charge are meeting with good success, the first three men approached this morning giving $25 each.

TWO NEW CASES IN THE CIRCUIT COURT

Charles H. Lacey has begun suit in the circuit court against Dr. W. O. Prosser, of this city, to recover the sum of $425 alleged to be due the plaintiff for locating the defendant on 640 acres of school land in Douglas county, which he refused to purchase, claiming the price was not as represented. L. M. Travis and L. Blyen are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

The Pacific Timber company has begun suit against Philip Hohl, of Cottage Grove, to recover the sum of $687.81, alleged to be due on a bill of goods the defendant purchased from the plaintiff. A. H. King and Jerome Knox are the plaintiff's attorneys.

KLEM'S NEW BRICK WILL BE TWO STORIES

The other day the Guard mentioned the fact that J. H. Klem was building a one-story brick woodshed 10x30 feet in dimensions in the rear of his harness shop on West Eighth street. Mr. Klem would tell nothing of the building and the reporter had to guess at the dimensions. It now transpires that the building will be two stories high and 15x30 feet in dimensions. It will be used as a warehouse. Mr. Klem's business has grown to such dimensions that he has found it necessary to have more room.

Long Live the King.

Is the popular cry throughout European countries; while in America the cry of the present day is "Long live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of throat and lung remedies, of which Mrs. Julia Ryder Paine, of Turo, Mass., says: "It never fails quickly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country. New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed; and for coughs and colds it is the only sure cure. Guaranteed by W. L. DeLano, druggist, 59c and $1.00.
