THE GREAT NORTHERN

MEETS AUGUST 15

MINING COMPANY WANTS TO IN-CREASE STOCK—MINING TOP-ICS IN GENERAL—STRANGELY
ACTING MAN MAY HAVE MADE GOOD FIND.

The Great Northern Mining Company has issued a call to its stockholders for a meeting in its offices at Eugene to increase the capital stock of the company from 100,000 shares to 1,000,000 shares on the 15th of August. The call is made by the board of directors.

The mining camps of the county reported as being very quiet this summer, though some work is being done. Miners from the outside do not seem to have come in, and as a result some of the usual pushing. However, as Southern Oregon is said to be full of miners and prospectors, it is not likely that as good a field as Lane county will be overlooked very long.

Last week a man in town who had samples of some ore, taken, he said, from a "find twenty-five miles up the river. The rock appeared very rich, just as the man seemed afraid of being robbed, and was very sensitive.
His name was not learned, and other particulars were not obtained. He acted as though he had a good thing but desired to keep it to himself.

OFFICIAL REPORT OF PACIFIC MONTHLY ADVERTISING FUND

MERCHANTS' PROTECTIVE ASSO-CIATION SHOWS AMOUNT OF MONEY COLLECTED AND WHAT IT WAS PAID OUT FOR—WILL BEGIN SOLICITING FOR RE-NEWAL OF SUBSCRIPTIONS
TOMORROW.

Following is the financial report of the Pacific Monthly advertising fund, handled by the Merchants' Protective Association. The contract with the magazine has been renewed for another year, and a committee will be out soliciting tomorrow for funds to meet the cost of the same and hopes to be able to increase the subscription in order to have some high grade advertising matter printed. This is necessary because of the fact that the inquiries resulting from the advertising run away up in the thousands and everything in the way of descriptive matter has now been exhausted.

The contract with the Pacific Monthly was renewed because results were so greatly in excess of expectations that it was believed the old subscribers to the fund would gladly renew and that some additions could also be secured.

The report follows:

FOURTH REGIMENT OFFICERS APPOINTED BY COLONEL YORAN

Colonel Geo. Yoran, of the Fourth Regiment, O. N. G., has appointed the following staff officers, who, however, have not passed their examinations, ad-are therefore not actual in their new positions: Lieutenant colonel, J. M.
Williams, of Eugene; majors, G. C.
Hammond, of Eugene, and B. F. Hamlin, of Roseburg; Captain F. E. Taylor, adjutant; Captain F. L. Chambers, Eugene, quartermaster; and Captain B. K.
Lawson, commissary. With the exception of Lawson all of these were heralded as likely candidates by the Guard some time ago.

National Rifle Shoot.

The men who are practicing for the national rifle shoot at Port Clinton, Camp Perry, Ohio, are at Roseburg. The shooting at the Roseburg encampment was much better than last year, and the team should take a slightly higher place in the competition. It is not likely, however, to get among the first five or six, for the older states have much the advantage in equipment and practice.
New York has the best team in the country. However, some of the individual men from Oregon are likely to win some medals, for Oregon has a few shots which are among the best.

Corporal Perdue and Captain (soon Major) C. C. Hammond are among the men who made the team at Roseburg.
Captain Hammond, however, fears he will not be able to go on account of his duties in the sheriff's office. He has not had any practice for a week now.
The team will leave about the 8th or eleventh of the month. The competition will be held the last of the month.
The range at Camp Perry is ideal, being along the beach of Lake Erie. The misses all hit the lake and a patrol boat keeps ships out of range.

Hammocks, $1.50 to $6.50 at Barker
