DORMITORY WILL USE 5000 QUARTS OF FRUIT SAUCE

How Many Housewives Have Put Up
That Much in Their Lives?—
Canned Goods Not Opened Till
After Christmas.

How many quarts of canned fruit does your wife put up during the summer? Suppose you had a hundred boys, how many would she put up for them? Guesses for the amount would vary perhaps by thousands, and very few housewives would be able to calculate how it should be done, not to consider doing the work.

This year, according to present calculations, the University boys' dormitory will can about 2500 quarts of fruit. The kinds, chiefly are gooseberries, strawberries, cherries, raspberries, loganberries, wild blackberries, peaches, pears and plums.

But they do not depend upon this fruit for the whole year, for dried apples and prunes have also a prominent place in the menu of the dormitory. In fact, fresh fruits, such as apples, pears, prunes and anything else in season, supply the sauces up till Christmas time, when the canned fruits are opened. Even then, the dried fruits hold a prominent place, so you may get some idea of the great amount of canned fruit, for it takes eighty to a hundred boards at the university.

Besides these things, there are jars and glasses of jelly upon jars and glasses, to tickle the palate of the boy student. Some canned fruits are also bought, and perhaps 5000 quarts, as a conservative estimate, would give some idea as to the fruit consumed.

DR. BEST CLEARED BY JURY TRIAL

Dr. W. E. Best was cleared for the third time last night, after a trial lasting through the whole afternoon and a part of the forenoon, of practicing medicine without a license. A great deal of interest was taken in the case by doctors. Fifteen or sixteen witnesses had been subpoenaed, and the trial was a hard fight.

While the prosecution proved conclusively that Best practiced medicine, and that he received money for cases, the defense brought out, especially by the doctor's own testimony, that he had not taken any money for services, but only for livery teams, medicines and other similar things. Six big diplomas, ranging from a commission by Governor Chamberlain to a medical congress in the East a year or so ago to two medical certificates granted in the state of Michigan, and diplomas from medical schools also helped the jury toward their verdict of acquittal.

A MEASURE OF MERIT Eugene Citizens Should Weigh Well This Evidence.

Proof of merit lies in the evidence. Convincing evidence in Eugene is not the testimony of strangers, but the endorsement of Eugene people.

That's the kind of proof given here—

The statement of a Eugene citizen.

L. Bonney, employed at Haskell's flour and feed store, and living at 459 Olive street, Eugene, Or., says: "I certainly feel grateful for the results of five weeks' use of Doan's Kidney Pills. I have known of others who have had benefit from this remedy, but I believe I can shout louder than all of them. I suffered with kidney complaint for ten years. I think it was brought on by lifting heavy timbers and suffering a fall that wrenched my back. I was consulted by a doctor, and trying one thing and another, but all to no purpose. I was told there was a complication of lumbago and other trouble and the doctors finally gave up trying to help me. Sometimes when I was attempting to lift I would collapse and be laid up for days at a time. The pain was awful. It felt as if knives were sticking in me. I had entirely given up hope of finding a cure when an advertisement of Doan's Kidney Pills was brought to my notice and the remedy was well recommended by a friend. I got a box and began taking them. The first box helped me very much, and I got another. By that time I was feeling so much better that I could pick up a sack of feed and put it on my shoulder, something I had not been able to do for a year. Doan's Kidney Pills have simply worked marvels for me, and the least I can do is to tell other sufferers about them."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name — Doan's — and take no other.

Society Events

The Birthday Club surprised Mrs. Robert McMurphy at her home on Monday afternoon, coming with their sewing and well-filled hampers. The husbands of the members arrived in time for dinner, after which the card tables were brought out and whilst was enjoyed for several hours. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. David Linn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wetherbee, Dr. and Mrs. Claire Wiloughby, Mrs. S. J. Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kays.

Miss Eunice Church, one of Eugene's fairest daughters, was the inspiration, this afternoon, for a pretty social complicity, when Mrs. James F. Robinson and Miss Helene Robinson entertained for her with an announcement party. A number of the young lady's friends were bidden for an afternoon at cards, hearts being the appropriate game. The rooms were prettily arranged for the afternoon with an abundance of hearts, festooned from the chandeliers to the walls, and lovers' knots; the parlor in red and the living room in pink. While at luncheon, Miss Luta Dunbar received a telegram from Cupid announcing the marriage of Miss Church and Mr. J. D. Fields, one of our prominent young business men, to occur in September. The announcement was followed by the well-wishes of all present. The invited guests were: The Misses Luta Dunbar, Harriet Patterson, Ruby Hendricks, Vanda Coffey, Minnie Hawthorne, Ethelyn Barbour, Myra Lovelidge, Luta Ronshaw, Estelle Boon, Elizabeth Elliott, Maude Kerns, Amy Dunn, Lola Howe, Elma Hendricks, Mertie Auten, Alicia McElroy, and Norma Hendricks; the Mesdames Charles Burden, Lawrence Harris, C. V. Litter (Albany), Archie Livermore, John Buster, Frank Chambers, R. S. Bryson, C. W. Lowe, Luke Goodrich and Lester Luckay.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church met on Tuesday evening with Mrs. Robert McMurphy at her home on the hill-side. This was the regular monthly business meeting of the society. The ladies have been busily engaged in fitting up the parsonage for their new pastor, Rev. W. B. Pinkerton, and family of Winona, Minn. The society is also planning to give a lawn social sometime next week at the McMurphy residence.

Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris has issued invitations for a luncheon and china shower on next Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Eunice Church.

One of the best left fielders in the business is Jimmy Sheppard, now playing with the Chicago Nationals. Sheppard was acquired two years ago by Chicago after making a great record with the Brooklyn team. It is very seldom that a ball gets to the ground in his part of the pasture. He is particularly apt in catching flies and putting the ball promptly to the spot where it will do the most good, rarely making an error.

READY TO LAY CORNER STONE OF NEW BLOCK

CEREMONY WILL TAKE PLACE
AT SPRINGFIELD WEDNESDAY
EVENING—LOCAL AND PERSONAL NOTES OF SAWMILL CITY

Preparations are well under way for laying the corner stone of the new L. O. O. F. temple, which is being erected at the corner of Main and Fourth streets. Wednesday, August 14, has been decided upon as the date upon which the ceremony shall take place, at the hour of 7 o'clock p. m. This hour was decided upon so that all the working people might attend.

All the business men have been requested to close their places of business at 6 o'clock and help swell the crowd. The Book of Forms ceremony, which is very solemn and impressive, will be carried out.

Died—At the home of her parents, at the corner of Second and North D streets, Friday, August 2, 1907, Eva Esther, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Burgeis. Eva was born in Gering, Neb., October 10, 1897, and at the time of her death was 9 years, 9 months and 14 days of age. Having contracted the scarlet fever at the age of three years, it was thought a change of climate would be beneficial, and the family left Nebraska and came to Oregon. For about two years she seemed to be fully recovered, but she gradually declined, and for the past eighteen months had been confined to her bed. She was a patient little sufferer until her sweet spirit took its flight to realms above.

The Commercial Club held its regular meeting last Friday evening, when some important business to the interests of the city were discussed. After the business session the members of the club, upon the invitation of M. M. Peery and John Kestley, repaired to the Springfield Hotel, where a banquet was the absorbing subject. The guests of the club were Dr. J. E. Richmond, Mrs. John Kestley, Mrs. M. M. Peery, Mrs. B. A. Washburne, Miss May Kestley and Miss Edesee Peery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rice, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Rice, Misses Maude Fritchett and Francis and Eva Higgins came home Monday from a two weeks' outing at Hazel Dell and Kitson Springs. They report having had a pleasant time.

Al Perkins and son, Farel, left for a visit to their old home in Michigan last Tuesday. This is Al's first visit East since he came West several years ago. He will make an extended visit, but will return right side up with care.

Arthur Bratton and wife, of Salt Lake City, Utah, are visiting at the home of Mr. Bratton's uncle, C. J. Bratton. Arthur's father was the first merchant of Springfield, having conducted a general store in 1851.

John Seavey and bride are home from their honeymoon trip to the East. John says that the Jamestown fair is not as good as the Lewis and Clark fair at Portland.

Born—At Pleasant Hill, August 12, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. Al Higgins, a daughter, weight nine lbs.
Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bailey, of Springfield, August 8, 1907, a son.—News.
