WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 14

WHY THINKING PERSONS PATRONIZE ADVERTISERS

The Guard has a big family of regular readers, nearly all in Lane county. These number some 3500, the combined daily and weekly circulation, which, on the approved basis of five readers to each subscriber, makes the total number of persons who rely largely upon The Guard for their news aggregate not less than 17,500. No paper in any part of the country more thoroughly covers its field than The Guard, and its influence is especially great because it is an old paper that has been going into many homes for two or three generations. This fact makes it a splendid advertising medium, since quality counts as much as quantity in the matter of circulation value, and as a recognized home paper for so many years The Guard possesses both of these essentials.

Guard readers naturally do their trading, buying their dry goods clothing, shoes, hardware, furniture, drugs and other necessities and luxuries, with those firms that advertise in its columns. They appreciate the invitation extended by the business men to trade with them, and the "know-too," that by doing so they are assisting the publishers of their home paper to make a better paper, so that there are mutual advantages. With out the revenue derived from advertising the modern newspaper could not exist, and for this reason, if no other, the intelligent reader patronizes the advertising merchant because he is far seeing and public spirited enough to assist in building up an institution that in turn helps the community in which it is one of the great factors of our advance civilization. Without newspapers, towns would languish and die commercially. The present temporary suspension of publication of the world's news on account of the telegraphers' strike only gives a hint of what the world would be without newspapers.

The enterprising, advertising business man is largely responsible for that wonderful institution of modern life known as the press—the great incentive to progress and the surest safeguard of popular liberty. Were the advertiser's goods no better and his prices no more alluring than those of the non-advertiser, he deserves the patronage of the public because of the very fact that he is contributing of his means to the support of an institution so essential to the common weal. If there is any reader of The Guard who has overlooked this vital point in what might be termed the economy of advertising, he should not continue in his error or thoughtlessness.

The central idea is this: The person who patronizes an advertiser, in directly assists the publisher, enables him to make a better newspaper, and enlarges his sphere of usefulness. The confirmed non-advertiser is simply a reactionary force who clings to old ideals and old methods, and his notion that the people of today are being influenced by gaudy, fantastic signs daubed upon fences and dead walls is nothing short of a reflection upon public intelligence that is resented by those to whom they are supposed to appeal.

ADMIRAL EVANS' GREAT PACIFIC FIGHTING FLEET

By order of the president, as commander-in-chief of the army and navy, Admiral "Bob" Evans will lead the major fighting force of the United States navy through the Straits of Magellan into the blue Pacific. It is the most tremendous and impressive movement of sea forces in modern times. The world is agog over the boldness and majesty of this colossal demonstration. Virtually it serves notice on Asia that the white race must rule, for with the tacit loyalty of Europe America strips her Atlantic and Europe-facing seaboard of ships and turns their guns upon the yellow peril. And it is a curious coincidence that in this great fleet, with its 20,000 officers and men, not a bottle of beer may be served, save in exchange. And the chroniclers of the greatest warship, the ever-victorious Constitution, tell a strange comparative incident. The noble frigate, after a long cruise, was standing in for Portsmouth, N. H., one morning when the fog broke and revealed two heavy British frigates close by. The Constitution was impeded by the barnacles of her long cruise and she could not make her best speed, and the superior enemy gained. Everything was done to lighten the ship and increase her speed. The extra spars were thrown overboard. Then the provisions of the ship were thrown overboard, and finally the "spirit room" was opened up and all the rum let out. Thus lightened the Constitution made speed and escaped. But think of a ship carrying such a quantity of rum for its crew that it could be lightened to escape from superior foes by sacrificing the rum!

A young Arkansas druggist sought to improve on the Chinese idea of suifolding on the doorstep of one's enemy by getting in telephone communication with the girl who had refused to marry him and inviting her to listen while he shot himself, and then he made a botch of it and will probably never.

The statement that Corielyon is in close sympathy with all the old policies of Roosevelt, which is finding its way into print with suspicious frequency, must be based on faith alone, as George has been careful not to commit himself, preferring to keep him guessing.

It was bad enough for a naval captain to have bought a punch bowl, but W. H. Jones, now being tried by a courtmartial, made it worse by failing to pay for it. He wouldn't be elected to office in Georgia, that's sure.

Now that Attorney-General Bonaparte has allied himself with those who believe that jailing a few corporations magnates would be the most effective reform, there ought to be something doing in the criminal prosecution line.

The best basis in the world for a city's growth and prosperity are good streets, good walks and other permanent improvements. Eugene has started finally on the right road and only perseverance is needed to achieve success.

So Booth Tarkington is to become "The Gentleman from Paris," through the coin which "The Gentleman from Indiana" started his way. Wonder if this is revenge for not getting elected to office?

And then again, suppose those wicked Japs in Hawaii should take notion to kidnap Secretary Strauss and the Nick Longworths, after having entertained them so lavishly?

Superstitious persons are pleased with the report that the comet discovered a few months ago is without a tail; a tailless comet, of course, is a warless comet to them.

Naturally, now that it faces a famine of stronger liquids, Atlanta is howling for a largely increased water supply. Georgia "moonshine" needs a lot of water.

At any rate, nobody is accusing the Standard Oil bunch of booming Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis for the presidency—not in a hurry, anyway.

If Senator Beveridge were as young as some of his newspaper pictures make him look, he would be more in need of a guardian than wife No. 2.

It is noticeable that the telegraph service of some of our daily exchanges showed marked improvement when the strike tied up all the wires.

There is going to be no boom in Eugene, but the city will double in population inside of three years because of a steady, healthful growth.

All railroads lead to Eugene nowadays—and some of them seem to have progressed beyond the newspaper stage of construction.

The best savings bank in the world now is Eugene and Lane county real estate.

Great

Trust Offenders In Jail.

WOODROW WILSON, President of Princeton University.

NE really RESPONSIBLE man in jail, one real originator of the schemes and transactions which are contrary to the public interest legally lodged in the penitentiary, would be worth more than A THOUSAND CORPORATIONS mulcted in fines if the reform is to be genuine and permanent.

WHAT THIS COUNTRY NEEDS IS NOT GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP OF RAILROADS, BUT LAWS THAT WILL ATTACK AND PUNISH PRESIDENTS AND GENERAL MANAGERS OF RAILROADS FOR EVASIONS AND VIOLATIONS OF THE STATUTES. STOCK MANIPULATIONS ARE SHEER THEFTS AND SHOULD BE PUNISHED AS SUCH. FAILURE TO DO SO IS LIKE OVERLOOKING HIGHWAY ROBBERIES.

Every corporation is PERSONALLY directed either by some one dominant person or by some group of persons. SOMEBODY in particular is responsible for ordering or sanctioning every illegal act committed by its agents or officers, but neither our law of personal damage nor our criminal law has sought to seek the responsible persons out and hold them individually accountable for the acts complained of. We have never attempted such statutes.

WE INDICT CORPORATIONS THEMSELVES, FIND THEM GUILTY OF ILLEGAL PRACTICES, FINE THEM AND LEAVE THE INDIVIDUALS WHO DEVISE AND EXECUTE THE ILLEGAL ACTS FREE TO DISCOVER NEW EVASIONS.

It is only in this way that we can escape socialism. Unless we can single out the individual again and make him, once more the subject and object of law we shall have to travel STILL FURTHER upon the road of government regulation which we have already traveled so far, and that road leads to state ownership.

PERSONAL NOTES FROM LOST VALLEY AND VICINITY

(Special Correspondence.)

Lost Valley, Aug. 12.—The Sunday school ice cream social was a success, socially and financially.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hills have gone to the lakes for an outing.

Wm. H. Fenton is building an addition to Wm. Williams' house.

Roy Addington is now hauling logs for William Tate's mill.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Roney, of Eugene, were in the valley Saturday.

Mrs. Scribner, of Cloverdale, is visiting in the valley this week.

Harry Keeney and wife have been visiting with his parents at this place for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Rowland, of Eugene, were visiting with friends here last week. Mr. and Mrs. Rowland are old-time residents of the valley, having begun housekeeping here when they were married, over fifty years ago.

The heavy rains of last week did a great deal of damage to grain, both in the shock and standing.

Jim Stoops and family, of Cloverdale, were seen in the valley last Sunday.

Archie Gartin and wife, of Coburg, were visiting in this vicinity Sunday.

Mrs. E. P. Williams is quite ill at her home in Trent.

E. C. Morgan, of Winberry, is in the valley this week.

Mr. W. W. Warrington, of Edendale, makes regular trips through the valley now with his beef wagon.

Four of our neighbors made a trip to Eugene last Saturday.

Miss Ida Mooney has returned home from Middle Fork.

W. H. Fenton and son have rented E. T. Templeman's farm for a term of three years. Mr. Templeman says he is taking a lay-off for the purpose of hunting a cook.

E. A. Wegner made a trip to Eugene Saturday to purchase the ice cream for the social.

D. C. Matthews & Sons are shipping a large amount of lumber at present.

Trent announces that they will have an ice cream social at the Trent school house next Saturday evening, August 17. Everybody invited.

MISTY HOLLOW.
