OREGON CENTRAL SURVEYORS MAKE SLOW PROGRESS

NOW LOCATING LINE UP SALT CREEK, AND FROM ODELL LAKE EAST—LATE RAINS SUBSIDED THREATENING FOREST FIRE—NEW TELEPHONE COMPANY

(Special Correspondence.)
Lowell, Or., Aug. 15.—The Oregon Central surveyors are making slow progress locating up Salt creek as the country is rough and very brushy. A great deal of preliminary work is being done, but it is doubtful if they get the line located to the summit before snow flies. Locating work is also being done from Odell Lake east.

Just before the rain of last week a fire got started on the old Taylor logging grounds just above the Winfrey place on the reserve. The fire rangers were on the ground promptly and fought the flames for three days when the rain set in and kept it from damaging the green, growing timber. It burned over most of the big bottom logged off by Mr. Taylor three years ago.

The ranchers along the Middle Fork above Lowell have organized a telephone company and intend to improve the condition of the line, and there will be more phones added to the line between Lowell and Hazel Dell.

The late rains were of great benefit to late potatoes and corn and gardens, and has settled the dust, making travel more agreeable.

A family moving north passed over the military road with an inscription on their wagon sheet, "Washington or Bust, from Durham, Cal."

Hills Bros. have stopped work at their logging camps on Winberry and Middle Fork and are off to the mountains with their families for a rest. They will be gone a month or more, going by the way of the Middle Fork over the Cascades, and will return by way of the McKenzie route. Roy Hills and wife, of Dexter, are also with them.

Mrs. Iola McKinsey, of Heppner, daughter of Jasper Hills, has been visiting her parents, and is now visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warner, of Hazel Dell.

Hunting and fishing parties are still numerous along the river.

Frank Warner, formerly of Fall Creek, has finished moving his furniture to his farm at Hazel Dell, where he will reside in the future.

Clarence McBee is now getting ready to build a new residence on his farm near Rush Island. Burt Kelsey will be the next to build a new house and barn.

Mrs. Hyre, of Eugene, is visiting relatives at Winberry, Rush Island and Dexter.

WILD WEST IS NOT ALL GONE YET

Horse-Breaking is Going On in Eugene Today—Eastern Oregon Horses Are Learning Their First Lessons.

Some of Eugene's citizens of leisure today received free entertainment by a number of wild horses in town, comparatively fresh from the Eastern Oregon ranges. At the Eugene Transfer stables one of E. C. Smith's horses was sold this morning, and the owner at once employed some men to halter-break the animal.

The horse was about six years old, and had plenty of grit. One man on horseback took the horse by the rope attached to its neck and the halter, while two men on foot aided him.

Time and time again the horse would throw himself, always refusing to be dragged forward—the thing the men desired to teach him to do. He tried all kinds of antics at first, frequently turning what looked to an unexperienced spectator like somersaults. At last it grew comparatively tame, but still refused to be lead or pulled forward, falling down instead of going forward a step.

As always is the case, the horse will in time give in, but he promises to be an obstinate animal, to say the least, though he possesses a splendid build.

A horse of Bill Vaughn's was shod this morning for the first time, at a local shop, and also attracted a good deal of attention by the apparatus and the action of the animal in it.

All of the Wild West has not passed out of the Willamette valley yet, though the stranger passing along the main street would not dream that behind a high board fence so much was going on that would remind him of the much vaunted buckaroo and gun man.

FIFTEEN YEARS OF ECZEMA

Affected Hands, Arms and Legs—Endured Terrible Itching and was Unable to Sleep—Would Tear the Bandages to Scratch the Skin—In less than One Week

CURED BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I had eczema nearly fifteen years. The affected parts were my hands, arms and legs. They were the worst in the winter time and were always itchy, and I could not keep from scratching them. I had to keep both hands bandaged all the time, and at night I would have to scratch through the bandages as the itching was so severe, and at times I would have to tear everything off my hands to scratch the skin. I could not rest or sleep. I had several physicians treat me but they could not give me a permanent cure, nor even could they stop the itching. After using the Cuticura Soap, one box Cuticura Ointment and two bottles Cuticura Resolvent for about six days the itching had ceased, and now the sores have disappeared, and I never felt better in my life than I do now. Edward Worrell, Band 30th U. S. Infantry, Fort Crook, Nebraska.

The most torturing and disfiguring humors, eczema, rashes, itches, irritations, and inflammations of the skin, scalp, and blood, with loss of hair of infants, children, and adults, are instantly relieved and speedily cured by the Cuticura Remedies, when all else fails.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humor of the Skin, Children, and Adults consists of Cuticura Soap (15c) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c) to Heal the Skin, and Cuticura Pills (Cholesterol Content, per 100 of 60 to Purify the Blood.
