PREPARING FOR RAILROAD KING AT PELICAN BAY

Klamath Falls, Or., Aug. 15.—Preparations for the entertainment of the Harriman party while in Klamath are now well under way, and everything is being done that will in any way lead to their enjoyment while here. Several of Mr. Harriman's children will accompany him on his trip and efforts are being made to purchase saddle horses from local dealers for their use while here. It is possible that the strike of the telegraph operators will delay his visit for a short time, but unless the railroad operators become involved it is probable that he will be here within the next 48 hours. It is not possible to learn anything definite as to the time of his arrival here, those who are in a position to know maintaining the utmost secrecy relative to anything whatever concerning Mr. Harriman or his party.

A railroad telegraph operator is now at the Lodge installing batteries and instruments, and the telegraph line between this city and the Bay is practically completed. The line follows as nearly as practical the main traveled road leading from Long Lake to Pelican Bay. From here to Long Lake it takes a direct route, leaving the main road near Moore's mill and following the line fence over the hill. About four miles of poles were required, the other 27 of wire being fastened to trees. The line is being built by the Midway Telephone and Telegraph company, and will connect with their line to Thrall.

It is mainly through the efforts of Col. Wm. H. Holabird that Mr. Harriman was induced to agree to spend his vacation in Klamath, and to that gentleman is due perhaps more credit for boosting Klamath than any other individual on earth. The Colonel sometime since stated to a Herald representative that there were very few places in the world that would compare with Pelican Bay as a sportsman's paradise, and it is evident that he has used some very convincing talk on Mr. Harriman. That he could not, possibly overestimate the happy conditions existing there is well known by all who are familiar with the situation, and by inducing the Harriman party to come the Colonel has placed this whole country under everlasting obligations to him, although at the time he purchased the property more or less resentment may have been felt because of his withdrawing it from public use.

C. T. Day, of San Francisco, chief electrician of the Southern Pacific company, who has been installing the batteries and instruments of the telegraph line at Pelican Bay Lodge, was in town today adjusting the wires and getting things in readiness for connecting the line through to Thrall. A telegraph office will be installed here, which permits the use of the telephone line for telegraphic purposes.

Society Events

Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris entertained with a luncheon and china shower on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Ermine Church, whose engagement to Mr. J. D. Fields was announced last week. The rooms were prettily arranged with brilliant sprays of mountain ash and sweet peas, while the luncheon table very appropriately formed an F. In the center of which was a beautiful fern dish filled with maiden-hair. The place cards were red hearts, with two tiny silver hearts in the corner, while the favors were silver shells filled with small red peppermint candies. The elaborate luncheon was daintily served by Mrs. Harris, assisted by Mrs. Adeline Church, Mrs. C. V. Littler and Mrs. James F. Robinson. After the luncheon, Miss Church was presented with a large basket of parcels, each containing a beautiful piece of china. Following the shower the guests enjoyed several musical numbers, rendered by Mrs. Lester Luckey, Miss Ethelyn Harbour, and Miss Alicia McElroy. The invited guests were: The Misses Luta Dunbar, Harriet Patterson, Helene Robinson, Ruby Hendricks, Vanda Coffey, Ethelyn Harbour, Myra Lovelidge, Lulu Renshaw, Estelle Bean, Elizabeth Elliott, Maudie Kerns, Amy Dunn, Lola Howe, Norma Hendricks, Elma Hendricks, Alicia McElroy, Ruth Lovelidge and Minnie Hawthorne; the Mesdames Lester Luckey, Frank Chambers, Charles Burden, P. E. Snodgrass, L. L. Whitson, C. V. Littler, James F. Robinson, Robert Brady, and Adeline Church.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. C. M. Collier and Miss Mary McCormack entertained informally at the home of the latter for Mrs. E. P. Geary and Miss Ellen Geary, of Portland. The afternoon was passed with pleasant conversation and the serving of delicious refreshments by the little Misses Helen Wells and Dorothy Collier, dressed in Japanese costumes. The guests of the afternoon were: The Mesdames S. F. Kerns, Frank Chambers, Geo. O. De Bar, Robert McMurphy, Lischen Miller, Frank Osburn, E. O. Potter, Julius Goldsmith, John Buoy, H. N. Mount, P. G. Young, E. J. Moore, Wm. Polders, James F. Robinson, Therese Jackson and Miss Anna Whitaker.

Mrs. A. E. Wheeler, assisted by Mrs. Archie Livermore, entertained informally on Friday evening with a dinner party for Professor and Mrs. Joseph Schafer and family, and Rev. and Mrs. Pinkerton and family.

Mrs. William Preston was hostess on Monday evening at an informal gathering given in compliment to Mrs. Scarborough. Flinch was the evening amusement, the several hands of which was followed by dainty refreshments. The guests were: Mrs. Scarborough, Mrs. Martha Chambers, Mrs. Geo. Hall, Sr., Mrs. Alec Cockerline, Mrs. Emma Johnson, Mrs. C. S. Frank, and Mrs. J. M. Hall.

Plan Recital.

One of the events of the week was the recital given by some of the pupils of Mrs. Daisy Dillard Patterson, assisted by Mrs. Andrew Svarverud, violinist, at 8 o'clock last Monday evening. The recital was given at her home, 292 East 9th street, where her beautiful concert Grand Chickering piano could be used. Each number is worthy of special mention and reflects great credit on teacher and pupils. Mrs. Patterson will present another list of her pupils in a recital in a few weeks. The numbers were omitted on account of the girls being out of town. Following is the program:

1. La Czarine, two pianos; Ganne; Misses Lillian Gilkey, Zulu Christian, Zelma Edwards and Mrs. Patterson.
2. Cecelia Waltz; Miss Rosa Andrews.
3. Babbling; Gillet; Miss Frankie Haroun.
4. Doll's Dream; Oesten; Waltz, Streabog; Miss Janet Frasier.
5. Cupid's Dance; Wenrick; Miss Beniah Kinsey.
6. Dorothy; Smith; Miss Brownell Frasier.
7. La Grace; Bohm; Miss Norma Andrews.
8. Sandman; Schroeder; Pixies Waltz; Brown; Miss Edith Elspass.
9. April Smiles; Depret; Miss Ruby Dunn.
10. Song of the Swallows; Bohm; Falling Rain; Bailey; Miss Lillian Gilkey.
11. Valse in Eb; Durand; Invitation a la Daise; Miss Alleen Holmes.
12. Cloister Bells; Read; Miss Zulu Christian.

RELIEF CORPS PICNIC A SPLENDID SUCCESS

The adjourned picnic of the W. R. C. materialized August 15. The day was perfect and when the party arrived they found Hendricks' Park in order for the occasion—clean, carpeted and furnished with cushioned seats, tables, camp stove and all the necessary equipment for such an occasion, and seemed a place full of inspiration. The picnic oak was not in evidence and all exclaimed "How nice." No dust, the sunshine only in cheerful rays—the air cool and delightful, and the much-honored pump that furnishes abundant, pure mountain water was there, ready for service. Dinner was served at 12 m., ice cream and cake at 3 p. m., supper at 5 p. m., and sufficient left to serve for breakfast. The intervals were pleasantly filled with talks, songs—sacred, secular and patriotic—jokes and repartee, as each one was required to entertain or pay a fine. Among the party of sister members of the W. R. C. were two guests of honor, Mrs. James Matlock and our own Mary Cox, who is one of Uncle Sam's teachers in the Indian school at Chemawa. We all appreciated their generous contribution to the pleasures of our picnic day and will be ever fondly remembered. Comrade Higgins and daughter will be gratefully remembered for their strenuous efforts to make the picnic comfortable and pleasant for "Mother" and her sister members of the order she loves. At 6 o'clock back No. 1 came and took home those whose health and duties call at an early hour, and at 8 o'clock back No. 2 came for the remaining ones. Thus ended the one selfish day of the W. R. C., which asks for and enjoys an exclusive annual picnic.

A Piano at Wholesale

We will sell an Eilers Bros. piano this coming week by popular bid, provided the highest bid received by 9 p. m. Saturday night, August 24, reaches the wholesale price of the instrument. CHILDREN IN PAIN

Never cry as do children suffering from hunger. Such is the cause of all babies who cry and are treated for sickness when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused by their food not being assimilated, but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once. Give it a trial.
