SPRINGFIELD

TIES EUGENE'S PERCENTAGE

LIVELY BASEBALL GAME YESTERDAY ENDS WITH SCORE OF 6 TO 2 IN FAVOR OF SPRINGFIELD—BEST TEAM WON—EUGENE WEAKENED

Springfield tied the Eugene Colts yesterday in the percentage column of the Lane county league by winning the game, 6 to 2. The game was exciting, though a few errors were piled up in the latter stages. Earl DeNeffe hurt himself trying to tag a runner in the fifth it looked like an extra-inning affair, but then the Springfield nine kept shooting them at the pitcher so hard that all he could do was to make errors. So far it was hard luck for the Colts, but for all that they should have tied the score, since they got man after man on the bases, but they seemed glued there and afraid to attempt a steal. Perhaps they were right, for King had his wing with him, but the spectators would have liked to have seen them try.

Springfield turned out in a body to see Manager Sid Smith's aggregation, picked up from the best in the valley amateurs at the expense of a great deal of effort and care, work out in their scarlet suits. There were as fair laddies in the grand stand as ever Old Kentucky had seen with cheers to encourage their team. No wonder the locals lost, for what one of the local favorites could have disappointed Springfield's fairest belles. But after all it was probably a case of the best team winning. Eugene was weakened in the outfield by the absence of Hobbs and Moshberger, the pinch hitter, and Springfield certainly had all the stars they could get together.

Tallafero was not in a good town as the Sunday before, but at the same time he was effective. DeNeffe had unusually hard luck in that he hurt his arm, and with the exception of that showed himself in better shape than ever before.

In the fatal fifth Campbell made first on Whittaker's error and immediately stole second. On Palne's grounder to DeNeffe, after an exciting play between first and second, Campbell landed safely on third. Humphrey knocked an easy one to DeNeffe, who had hurt his arm a minute before, and fumbled the ball, Campbell scoring. On a throw to the plate in the next play Weed dropped the ball and Palne scored. King went out at first on a strikeout play. Tallafero hit to DeNeffe, who mused the ball up again, Humphrey scoring. Kestley struck out. Smith arose, not satisfied with three runs, and knocked a two-bagger to left field, scoring Tallafero. McClellan went out at first, finishing the chapter.

In the seventh inning Eugene pushed one over the plate and in the eighth made another, their last run. In their half of the ninth Springfield, with two men down, brought in two more runs by three successive hits, ending the game with the score 6 to 2.

Baseball at Coburg.
Coburg yesterday afternoon bested the Corvallis nine, winning by the score of 14 to 1. At no time was there any doubt as to the outcome. Russ Coleman knocked a home run, which was the feature of the game.

As Eugene failed to beat Coburg so had it begun to look as though Coburg might run some show of winning next Sunday.

SAWMILLS HOPE

DEMURRAGE LAW IS EFFECTIVE

For a year now the Booth-Kelly Company has been bothered by the inability of the Southern Pacific to supply cars; and last week the shortage became still more acute. For a while they did not have a car in the yard. This company, with all the others in the county and state, is looking forward with considerable eagerness to see whether the demurrage law will be an effective remedy for the present shortage situation, and whether, if it is, the law will hold when tested in court.

The mill at Springfield is said to have plenty of men at present, though they do not pay as high wages as the mill at Wendling. In summer time the heat at Wendling is much greater than at Springfield, and some of the men quit at the big mill on the Mohawk to get to work at lower wages at the mill at Springfield.

The demurrage law is now in effect, and considerable interest is taken in watching for the first case to come before the courts.

LUMBERMEN UNITED IN RATE FIGHT

Determination to present a united front to the demands of the transcontinental railroads for an increase in lumber freights to the Eastern markets was shown last night at the semi-annual dinner of the Oregon and Washington Lumber Manufacturers' Association at the Commercial Club, says the Oregonian. All the speakers voiced the conviction that rather than yield to what is regarded as extortion to the railroads, a determined fight will be made against the advanced rates and the interstate commerce commission will be appealed to if necessary to continue the present lumber rates in effect.

Not only the Oregon lumbermen are interested in this fight, but manufacturers of Washington and California as well will aid in every possible way in the struggle for what they consider just and equitable freight rates. Never before have the lumbermen of the entire coast from the Canadian border on the north to the Mexican line on the south, been so united on any proposition as now when all face a common danger. The lumbermen of the whole Pacific slope realize that in the event the increased rates are put into effect it spells ruin to many in the lumber business in the Pacific Northwest.

Address by Mr. Dixon.
Among the principal addresses was one by A. C. Dixon, of the Booth-Kelly Company, of Eugene, who responded to the question of the general condition of the lumber trade. He said he was an optimist. There are less than 150,000,000 feet of standing yellow pine in the country, and the mills cut 11,500,000,000 feet of this timber last year. At this rate it will take but about fifteen years to wipe out yellow pine. The annual cut will increase every year. "We cut on the Pacific coast only 4,000,000,000 feet of fir last year," said Mr. Dixon, "and we have 400,000,000,000 feet standing. The future will take care of itself if the railroads do not get top much of the revenues. But 15 years is not a long time and we must make enough to live on. In the East many lumbermen know comparatively nothing of Pacific coast lumber. Oregon is not on the map to them."

"We have been missing our opportunities to advertise in this East. A rich lumberman to whom the speaker talked in the East winked and smiled when told that Portland cut more lumber annually than any other city in the world. He thought Portland was about 400 miles south of Seattle and that it was a suburb of Seattle."

The speaker found that he could spend all his time educating the people of the East about Oregon lumber, and that Oregon mills could sell an unlimited quantity there if the product could be delivered on a fair and competitive basis. He said the difference between the prices of fir and yellow pine in Eastern markets is 50 cents to $1 per thousand, and that the new rate of $3 advanced would wipe fir out of the market.

Reporters Are Blamed.
Mr. Dixon blamed the newspaper reporters for the trouble between the railroad and lumber managers. He said the railroad officials get their information from the newspapers, and think the lumber mills are making money, then they take snap judgment and a running jump, and raise the rates. He said the lumber millmen had not made as much as $3 per thousand feet profit on their cut last year.

EUGENE OPERATOR

BEATEN IN BOISE

Boise, Idaho, Aug. 17.—The only instance of violence here in connection with the telegraphers' strike, so far as reported, occurred when T. W. Barnard, an operator who refused to go out, was assaulted by Thomas K. Powell after he left the office. Powell and three other operators followed him, and Barnard sought to get into the police station. Powell overtook him at the entrance of the city hall and knocked him down.

Barnard was badly frightened by his experience and left in the afternoon for the West. His home is at Eugene, Or., where he has a family. Powell is a former operator, who is now engaged at other work. No arrest was made, Barnard declining to make a complaint. Mayor Haines urged him to do so, saying it was his duty. The mayor added that any man would be protected here. His assurance was not sufficient to quiet the fears of the man assaulted, and he took his departure. This leaves Manager Hackett alone in the office.
