Society Events

With the turning of the autumn leaves the summer pleasure seekers are returning to town and a re-awakening of social life is noticeable. The Thursday Afternoon club held this week its first meeting after the summer vacation, with Mrs. S. S. Spencer as hostess. The afternoon was spent at needle work, followed by a chafing dish luncheon. Officers of this popular club were elected for the coming season as follows: Mrs. Leon Edmondson, president, and Mrs. Lawrence Harris secretary-treasurer. Other guests of the club, besides the members, were Mrs. George Willoughby, Mrs. G. W. Smith and Mrs. Frank Gilstrap.

Mrs. S. F. Kerns delightfully entertained a number of her friends at a sewing-see on Wednesday afternoon, at the Kerns bungalow on the banks of the Willamette. As hour or so was passed with the sewing of rag carpets, after which the guests adjourned to the bungalow of Mrs. F. L. Chambers, where a dainty lunch was served. Mrs. Kerns' guests were: The Mesdames S. M. Yoran, Will Yoran, Darwin Bristow, T. G. Hendricks, L. G. Adair, R. L. Willoughby, James L. Page, F. E. Chambers, Mary Griffin, — Cockran and F. L. Chambers.

Mrs. W. C. Henderson was hostess to the Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church on last Tuesday afternoon.

After a pleasant outing of a week's duration up the McKenzie, Dr. L. L. Whitson and B. L. Bogart returned home the middle of the week.

Mrs. Frank L. Chambers was a charming hostess to a number of young people at her bungalow on Friday evening. The affair was given as a farewell to the four young ladies who leave for Wellesley college the latter part of this month. The bungalow presented a cozy picture, adorned with sun-flowers and lighted with many candles. Boating was enjoyed on the Willamette, followed by refreshments at the bungalow. Later the guests followed the trail over to the Kerns bungalow and enjoyed a large bonfire there, which was followed by the serving of sherbet and cake. Mrs. Chambers is a very popular hostess with the young people, and all present spent a most enjoyable evening. The invited guests were: The Mesdames Camille Carroll, Florence De Bar, Norma Hendricks, Vanda Coffey, Cora Wolf, Greta Bristow, Elma Hendricks, Ruby Hendricks, Hazel Robinson (Chicago), Helene Robinson; the Messrs. David Graham, Carl McClain, Marion McClain, Ralph Robinson, George Hug, LeRoy Kerns, and Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Snodgrass.

On last Saturday afternoon Mrs. W. C. Yoran entertained in compliance to Mrs. D. J. Sawyer, who left on Monday for San Jose to reside. About a dozen ladies enjoyed Mrs. Yoran's hospitality and passed a very pleasant afternoon with needlework.

Mrs. Fleishauer and Miss Vesta Wallace of Albany and Miss Jesse Sands of Astoria arrived in Eugene last Saturday evening, to attend a private picnic given the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bills, recently from the East, came down from O'Brien's on Monday morning, where they have been enjoying an outing several weeks. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Griggs.

The Thimble club was entertained in a unique and charming manner on last Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Julius Goldsmith at her residence on East Eleventh street. The form of the afternoon entertainment was a German kaffee-katch—that is, the guests spent the entire afternoon seated at a large dining table, sewing between courses. The elaborate menu was as follows:

Schwartzbrod and welsbrod
Gebrustes huhn
Zunge
Dill gurkens
Kartoffel Salat
Zinnit kuchen
Schneekuchen
Kasekuchen
Pfirsiche Kuchen
Fench
Schweizer kase.

Miss Norma Hendricks assisted Mrs. Goldsmith in serving. Other guests of the club were Mrs. G. Nettie from Leaburg, Mrs. Arthur Gamber and Mrs. A. Nettle.

Tyson-Hampton.
A pretty wedding of the last week was that of Nellie Hampton and Mr. Gilbert Tyson, who were married at the home of the bride's mother on Tuesday afternoon, September 3, at 5:30 o'clock. Rev. D. H. Trimble performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relations, and Miss Gladys Hampton rendered the wedding march. A number of beautiful presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Tyson will reside at Astoria.

Mrs. S. P. Sladden gave a pleasant whist party at her apartments on Wednesday afternoon. The head of a class was reached by Mrs. Harbour, while the consolation token was presented to Mrs. W. F. Osburn. Supper was served by the hostess. The guests were: The Mesdames P. E. Snodgrass, F. W. Osburn, W. H. Hoffman, Laura Harris, Julius Goldsmith, J. F. Titus, Mary Verington, H. A. Tromp, M. F. Griggs, D. A. Paine, Mrs. Moore, of Portland, Miss Washburne, G. R. Christman, C. B. Willoughby, S. S. Spencer, George H. Smith, Wm. F. Osburn, Mrs. Harbour and Miss Maid Morris.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Wheeler, at the corner of Perkins avenue and Bridge street, was the scene of a happy gathering last evening, the occasion being a "missionary tea," given by the Ladies' Missionary Society of the M. E. church, and tea was served from 8 till 11. Pretty booths were arranged about the house, presided over by young ladies in Oriental costumes, from which all kinds of tea was served. There was oo-long, yu-long and so-long tea; black tea, green tea, strong tea and weak tea, all selling for the same price, 10 cents, the proceeds going to the missionary cause. An excellent program was rendered during the evening, and greatly enjoyed by the large number of guests present, and a happy and pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.—Leader.

Her subject is a much neglected one, and her work should receive the hearty sympathy of all Christian people.
