JURY HOPES BORAH WILL ESCAPE LAW

Boise, Idaho, Sept. 12.—A plea in abatement has been filed by ex-Attorney General Frank Martin, charged with conspiracy to defraud the government out of timber land. The plea is accompanied by the affidavits of three members of the grand jury, charging the indictment charging that District Attorney Ruck forced the foreman of the jury to the indictment without reading it to the grand jury.

The affidavits also declare that the signers did not know that Senator Borah and Martin were included in the indictment. That Ruck refused to leave the grand jury room while the jurors conferred, and that Ruck made a long speech to the jury of which he said that President Roosevelt had instructed him to see that the indictments were found.

NYAL'S EASEM

A Perfumed Powder for the relief and Cure of Itching, Burning, Swelling, or Tender Feet.

Nyal's EaseM produces a delightful sense of comfort in the feet. It prevents sweating of the feet and its many disagreeable consequences, as excoriation of the skin, soreness of the toes and feet, burning itching, curling up and hardening of the linings of the shoes, and that disgusting odor, which is so embarrassing to those afflicted with it. It preserves the feet and shoes. The containers of EaseM have perforated tops, which facilitate its use.

W. M. GREEN, THE SQUARE DEAL GROCER 619 Willamette St. Phone Main 25

Albany Democrat: Professor Straub and wife, of the University of Oregon, were in this city last night on their way home from Newport, where they have been taking a week's outing. Professor Straub has been with the University of Oregon a good many years, a very capable man, now dean of the law department, besides being a close student. Professor Straub while in Chicago once made a study of the social conditions of the laboring class, which was a revelation in connection with some of the business practices and influences of the business.
