INVESTIGATION OF KELLY CASE NOT NECESSARY

PRESIDENT CAMPBELL OF UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, TALKS IN REGARD TO CHARGES OF PROFESSIONALISM AGAINST DAN KELLY, THE ATHLETE

President Campbell, of the University of Oregon, has given out the following interview in reply to a request from Portland for a statement as to whether or not he intends to make further investigation of the charges of professionalism against Dan Kelly, and whether or not he will send a representative to go over the M. A. A. books with President McMillan:

"Our graduate manager last year, C. N. McArthur, furnished to the athletic council of the university last spring a transcript of the records of the football games with Multnomah from the Multnomah books. The accounts and settlements of our manager were based on that statement. In addition the treasurer of the club has published a statement that no money was paid to Kelly and that the account rendered to us was correct in full. When a settlement was made between Manager Mouni, of the university team, and the officials of the club after the game, I understand that the tickets were counted and all expenses of the game checked up in the presence of the ticket takers and the proper officers of the club and university. I have made a personal inquiry from all available sources in regard to the settlement, and can find no indication that it was not exactly as stated in the transcript of the record furnished the athletic council. The proper person to make any further examination of the records of the club would be our graduate manager of last year, but he has already made such examination and certified to the athletic council as to the accuracy of the transcript which he furnished. If anything further than that can be done we are not only willing but anxious to undertake it for the reason that every one at the university desires that the good name for clean athletics which has been earned by the university shall be kept above suspicion. There was no hint or rumor about the university last year in regard to either Kelly or any other man on the athletic teams having been paid for their services. The tone of the student body itself is strongly against anything of the kind."

No Change in System.

When asked if he favored any change in the handling of the association money at the university the president stated that he did not. He said:

"The system is such that unless a large number combined in it it would be practically impossible for any funds to be misused. The accounts are kept in the university office and every manager is required to report within a week after every game. The accounts are practically all in the hands of the officials of the university, and are audited by a committee, three of whom are from the faculty, three from the alumni, and three from the student body. Itemized vouchers are required to accompany every bill."

Northwest Football League.

Asked as to his feeling toward the organization of a Northwest college football league, and whether or not he would lend his support to the organization, President Campbell replied that he was friendly to the old organization and helped to formulate the rules governing it. The reason the organization was allowed to disintegrate, he said, was that the meetings were not well attended through lack of funds to pay the expenses of the delegates. However, he is in favor of this new movement. In fact, it took its origin this year with a number of the alumni of the University of Oregon. The university's graduate manager of last year sent out circular letters to all the colleges of the Northwest asking them if they were willing to enter such an association.

"The new organization will no doubt be of general benefit," said the president, "but heretofore our football relations with the other colleges of the Northwest have been very amicable and there has been no difficulty at all. The special contracts under which the games have been played have had the effect that is intended by the rules of the proposed association."

Portland, Or., Sept. 21.—A verdict of not guilty was returned yesterday in exactly 20 minutes by the jury in the case of the state of Oregon against Charles H. Reynolds, charged with killing his wife's paramour, George Herbert Hibbing, on June 16 of the present year. The jury retired at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and at 5:20 sent in word that a verdict had been agreed upon. A few minutes later the jurors filed into the jury box and Foreman A. Perkins handed the verdict to Judge Gamble. Reynolds, anticipating an early agreement, had not left the courtroom, and calmly standing before the bench, faced the jurors while the verdict was read.

Upon hearing the verdict a chorus of "Ohs" and cries of "Good" was raised by the spectators, who began to clap their hands in approval. Only the prompt action of the bailiff restrained them. The court, following the usual custom, sternly rebuked those who had discovered the order and warned them that their demonstration of approval constituted contempt.

The Brownsville Times learns up on what it considers excellent authority that the Southern Pacific bridge over the South Santiam near Crabtree will be rebuilt, work to begin in November or December. The new bridge will be a steel structure. When completed trains will run direct from Portland via Woodburn and Brownsville to Eugene.

At the fourth quarterly conference of the Methodist church last night it was unanimously voted to request the bishop to return the pastor, Rev. D. H. Trimble, to the local charge for another year. The conference meets in Portland Wednesday of next week. Mr. Trimble has served the local church for one year and has many friends both in and out of the church in that time.

Corvallis Times: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Andrews left yesterday for Eugene. Their home in this city has been sold and Mr. Andrews has retired from his position at Miller's. Their future plans are undetermined, with their return to Corvallis more or less uncertain. Andrews is one of the best dry goods men in the country, and a popular salesman. Both are deservedly popular in social circles and a wide circle of friends here hope for their return to this city.

Oregon City correspondence in the Portland Telegram: Juliet Cross, Frank McNulty, Charles Sievers and Sidney Johnson, of Park Place, leave in a few days for Eugene to enter the University of Oregon. All of them are members of a class of five that was graduated from the Park Place high school last June. Professor L. A. Read, of the Park Place high school, is not forgetful of his alma mater, where he was hailed as a crack mile runner in years gone by. Miss Edna Caulfield, Miss Neta Harding and Miss Clara Caulfield leave tomorrow to resume their studies, and Miss Angeline, of the class of '07, will be an assistant in English at the State University this year.

NYAL'S EAS'EM

A Perfumed Powder for the relief and Cures of Tired, Burning, Sweaty or Tender Feet.

Nyal's Eas'Em produces a delightful sense of comfort to the feet. It prevents sweating of the feet, its many disagreeable consequences, as excoriation of the skin, soreness of the toes and feet, tired, burning feeling, curling up and hardening of the linings of the shoes, and that disgusting odor, which is so embarrassing to those afflicted with it. It preserves the hose and shoes. The containers of Eas'Em have perforated tops, which facilitate its use.

On the famous Pikes Peak Cog Railway in Colorado, the steep grades of the mountain necessitate the use of cog wheels to control the train, and vibration often so injures ordinary watches that an expert repairman must readjust them.

A conductor on the Pikes Peak road made a ninety-day test of the South Bend Watch last Summer.

No adjustment of the watch was made for the whole period, but at the end of the test, examination showed a variation of less than one-half second per day. Do you think the watch you carry could stand a test like this?

We will be pleased to show you our line of these watches at any time.

FRIDAY'S RACES AT STATE FAIR

Salem, Or., Sept. 20.—Friday's race-away card did not send to the gates the high-class horses that have been racing during the first part of the week. Only four events were on the program, the Lewis and Clark consolation stake, affording the feature of the day. Four started in the $1000 stake off the Lewis and Clark $5000 stake. It was simply a two-horse affair between Durfee's Carlakin and N. K. West's Satin Royal. Carlakin won the race in three straight heats with Satin Royal always a close second. The others were outclassed. Satin Royal made Carlakin trot to his mark of 2:13 1-4 to win the second heat.

Eight started in the 2:14 pace, and this also was won in straight heats. Deiviletta, driven by Stetson, was best of the lot, and not only won the race, but in all three heats made every pole a winning one.

Two running cards afforded the lovers of the gallopers a chance for their lining. G. P. McNeil, who dropped down here with a stable full of pretty fair selling platers, sent the two winners to the post. Titus II was miles behind the best in the 5-8 scramble. Copeland got Hop Queen off flying, and was five lengths to the front before Mentry could get Titus free of the jam which came at the start. He sent Titus after Hop Queen and by the time the turn at the back of the stretch was reached Titus had collapsed. Queen Queen had just enough left to hold the place safe and Jacklet was best of the others.
