PRESIDENT CAMPBELL SPEAKS AT ASSEMBLY

DELIVERS ADDRESS ON "STANDARDS OF WORK"—HUNDRED AND FIFTY FRESHMEN THIS YEAR—JUNIORS ELECT CLASS OFFICERS FOR YEAR—TRACK MEN OUT FOR FALL TRAINING

President Campbell delivered at the University assembly yesterday morning an inspiring and energetic address on the subject, "Standards of Work." While primarily for new students, most of the address was applicable to any hearer. Efficiency was the keynote. For efficiency three great things are necessary, punctuality, accuracy and loyalty. With these things any man can arrive at success in his chosen line.

President Campbell enforced the idea that man must work, he should work, and he has no place but for work. Business efficiency must be built in the brain and nerve tissue before we work well. Long training must be gone through before the business man, the engineering man or the man engaged in any occupation can reach the highest efficiency. The student, therefore, must set about building such tissue, which means habits of accuracy and punctuality, at once, for four years is a very short time to incarnate the habits which mean success.

Dean Glen, of the School of Music, sang one of his beautiful solos, accompanied by Miss Campbell.

After the address a brief meeting of the student body was held, and a committee, consisting of Gordon C. Moores, Thos. R. Townsend and Miss Miriam Van Waters, was appointed to form some needed amendments to the constitution.

Hundred and Fifty Freshmen.

Approximately 150 students will make up the freshman class this year, though 200 were expected. The decrease is due to the fact that over 100 applicants for freshman standing were turned away because of insufficient entrance work.

A fifth of the class have registered from Portland, and another fifth from Lane county. Nearly every county in the state is represented.

At midyear it is expected that many more freshmen will enter, as some who did not enter now will be able to pass the registrar's qualifications then.

Registration in the undergraduate departments has reached 379. There will also be about 150 students in the School of Music.

Thirty Track Men.

Trainer Hayward states that about thirty men have signified their intention to take up fall training. Nearly every event is represented. For early fall training a track man is allowed to participate in football, but after Thanksgiving he must work on cross-country runs or in some other way.

Those who have signed up on Hayward's list are: 100-yard dash, Harry Swart, E. Harris, L. Bullard; mile run, E. Platts, Reuter, T. B. Hoover, Claude Downing and Harry Lowell; broad jump, Bristow and "Ted" Cooper; half mile, Sam May and C. A. Downs; discus, V. W Voight and J. K. Neil; hurdles, Bristow and Harry Devereaux; weights and jumps, F. T. Struck.

Junior Officers.

The junior class elected officers yesterday afternoon as follows: President, Virgil Cooper; vice president, Nita Harding; secretary, Don Lewis; treasurer, Adele Goff; sergeant-at-arms, Walter Eaton. The arrangements for the Junior Bulletin were postponed until a future meeting.

Varsity News.

Despite the fact that it was reported that the library building could not be heated, the dispensary plant of hot air at the University has so far stood its extra burden very satisfactorily, and one instructor has moved into a recitation room and two others are contemplating the change. This will relieve the congestion very much.

Merwin Rankin bade a trip to Portland the first of the week in the interests of the Oregon Monthly, and was very successful. All the clothing stores, however, have combined not to give advertising to student publications, which required extra efforts.

A Most Worthy Article.

When an article has been on the mbarket for years and gains friends every year, it is safe to call this medicine a worthy one. Such is Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It positively cures coughs and all pulmonary diseases. One of the best known merchants in Mobile, Ala., says:

"For five years my family has not been troubled with the winter coughs and we owe this to Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I know it has saved my children from many sick spells."

AMUSEMENTS

"Uncle Josh Perkins," the big rural play, which is coming to the Eugene theatre on Saturday, October 12, is replete with smiles and thrills, and is declared one of the most life-like dramatic offerings seen here in a long time, true to all the scenes it attempts to depict and with vivid types of characters, life-like and natural in presentation. "Uncle Josh" is voted a big success wherever seen. The four acts are equally divided between New York and Vermont, the play centering about the efforts of a sharp New Yorker to marry Edith Marston, an heiress, for her money. How this plot is foiled by Uncle Josh and the happy termination make a sensible play, which will doubtless attract a large audience to the Eugene theatre. Splendid specialties will be presented during the various acts of the drama.

ARRESTS FOR LIQUOR SALES EXCITE ALBANY

The local option cases were all the talk last night, remarks being according to people's predilection, says yesterday's Albany Democrat.

W. L. Pason, the detective who worked up the cases, is certainly a genius at his business, one of the shrewdest detectives in the Northwest. He is a former newspaper man, having been a reporter on the New York Tribune, and is ready for business of all kinds. Here he served as a waiter at a hotel while getting his evidence.

Besides the cases mentioned yesterday P. C. Anderson and Charles Curran appeared and pleaded not guilty. Warrants against two of the people of the Franklin House have not yet been served, the defendants being away.

The sale of P. C. Anderson is alleged to have been made to Charles Curran, that of Mr. Curran to H. D. Mitchell, and the others to Otto Bilyeu, all about the 26th of September.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon all the cases were called. Deputy District Attorney Gale S. Hill appeared for the state and is looking after the interests of the prosecution faithfully.

Lee Morgan, represented by J. R. Wyatt, H. F. Hurlburt and Charles Curran, by Judge Whitney, each pleaded guilty, and Friday, at 9 a. m., was set as the time for sentence. The deputy district attorney stated that there were other cases against the defendants, which will not be pushed so long as the sale of liquor is stopped, but the business must stop, he remarked.

P. C. Anderson appeared by his attorney, J. R. Wyatt, and plead not guilty.

Another complaint was filed against Dick Landis, W. C. Burkhart and J. O. Lee, a substitute for the former joint case, the date of the sale being changed to the 28th.

The cases of the state of Oregon against Fred Dawson, William Tohl, P. C. Anderson and the Burkhart & Lee cases were set for trial Monday at 9 a. m. The defendants are represented by Mr. Wyatt and P. R. Kelly. The time was agreed upon by both sides.

Besides these there is said to be evidence against others.

ANYONE CAN MIX RECIPE AT HOME

Fine Prescription to Relieve Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble—Is Easily Prepared.

A large health publication tells its readers of a number of simple and safe prescriptions that can be made at home. The following, however, for the cure of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles receives the greatest praise, viz.: Fluid extract dandelion, one-half ounce; compound kargon, one ounce; compound syrup sarsaparilla, three ounces. These simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at little cost and are mixed by shaking well in a bottle.

The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime, drinking a full tumblerful of water after each dose. It is further stated that this prescription is a positive remedy for kidney trouble and lame back, weak bladder and urinary difficulties, especially of the elderly people, and one of the best things to be used in rheumatic afflictions, relieving the aches and pains and reducing swellings in just a short time.

A well-known local druggist states that this mixture acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys, cleanses these sponge-like organs and gives them power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood, which is the cause of rheumatism.

Cut this out and hand it to some sufferer, which would certainly be an act of humanity.

MRS. SHANNON'S MONEY FOR CHURCH

BEQUESTS FROM EUGENE WOMAN'S ESTATE MAY AMOUNT TO $10,000 — SETTLEMENT WITHIN FEW MONTHS

It will be remembered by most Salemites that the will of the late Mrs. Wesley Shannon, who died at Eugene not long ago, and who had been an old resident of Salem, provided that the Central Congregational church of this city should receive $1,000, and that after certain other bequests had been paid the Howell Prairie Congregational church, whose building was erected by Mrs. Shannon, should have the rest and residue of her estate. Many have been the questions as to the probable amount that might be received by the Howell Prairie church. Hon. T. G. Hendricks, the well-known banker, the president of the First National bank of Eugene, who had long attended to the business affairs of Mrs. Shannon, is the executor of her will. In a private letter he says he now hopes to settle up the estate within the eight months' time limit, and that, owing to advantageous sales made of the Eugene property of the late Mrs. Shannon, he thinks there will be about the sum of $10,000 to go to the Howell Prairie church. This will be good news to Rev. P. S. Knight, who has long held services at that church, and good news to that neighborhood, where Mrs. Shannon was so much loved. This sum will make that church one of the most prosperous church organizations in Oregon.—Salem Statesman.
