

EARLY MORNING

BIRTHDAY PARTY

BIRTHDAY CLUB INVADERS KAYS HOME THIS MORNING BEFORE BREAKFAST.

There has been in existence in Eugene for the past six or seven years a birthday club, and somewhere near the birthday of each member some kind of a surprise is perpetrated on them. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kays are members of the club and Mrs. Kays' birthday comes soon. But the other members of the club decided not to wait until the day came and planned something new in the surprise line for Mrs. Kays. Early this morning, just as Mr. and Mrs. Kays were arising, they heard a noise in the basement, and upon investigating the cause of it found a dozen or more of their friends, members of the club, there loaded down with good things to eat. The self-invited guests swarmed up to the kitchen and in a few minutes the ladies had prepared breakfast. The ladies stayed all day, preparing lunch at noon and dinner in the evening, and tonight the men will go up to the house and cards and other amusements will be the order.

NAPOLEON BONAPARTE

showed, at the battle of Austerlitz, that he was the greatest leader in the world. Ballard's Snow Liniment has shown the public it is the best liniment in the world. A quick cure for rheumatism, sprains, burns, cuts, etc. A. C. Pitts, Rodessa, La., says: "I use Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family and find it unexcelled for sore chest, headache, corns, in fact for anything that can be reached by a liniment."

JEFFRIES IS OFFERED THOUSAND EACH WEEK

Los Angeles, Oct. 26.—The champion high prize in local theatricals was made by Oliver Morosco's offer yesterday of $1000 a week to James J. Jeffries, on condition that the champion appear in a brief revival of "Quo Vadis." Morosco proposed to give the piece a god cast and assign to Jeffries the role of "Ursus," the giant slave who, in a spectacular conflict, rescues the Christian maiden from the horns of a bull in the arena of the Coliseum. The fighter says that on account of his business he will not accept.

RECOGNIZED BY THE GOVERNMENT.

In these days of strenuous opposition to adulteration of goods and drugs we note that the U. S. Department of Agriculture has recognized Knapo-Curo as an official sheep dip, and inspectors have been notified to this effect. This action is certainly gratifying to the Prussian Remedy Company, of St. Paul, Minn., who have been putting Knapo-Curo on the market for years. Inasmuch as the general government and many of the states require that livestock shall be free from any sore of disease before shipment, the shipper may feel safe in using Knapo-Curo Prussian Sheep Dip, or the Prussian Hug and Cattle Dip. Lice, ticks, and all vermin are destroyed effectively by the preparations of the Prussian Remedy Co. The company is to be congratulated for obtaining recognition by the Agricultural Department.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drought are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shanburn, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold remedy and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by W. L. Delano's drug store. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

OLD WILL OF MRS.

ELLA F. TRAVIS FOUND

INSTRUMENT EXECUTED IN 1887 FOUND IN NEW YORK—FILED FOR PROBATE SATURDAY

The last will and testament of Mrs. Ella Travis was filed for probate Saturday afternoon. L. M. Travis, her son, who had previously been appointed administrator of the estate, filed a petition to have his letters of administration revoked for the reason that at the time of his appointment the existence of the will was not known. It having been produced since by Dan V. Suttin, of Howard county, New York, who has had it in his possession since it was executed on August 24, 1887. The will provides for the appointment of G.

J. Travis and Emma F. Suttin as executors, but as the first named is now dead and the latter is disqualified for the reason that she is a non-resident, the petitioner asks that he be appointed administrator under the will. The will provides that all the property shall go to the children, share and share alike.

STRENUOUS WALL SCALING BY SOLDIERS.

Wall scaling is one of the things which every American soldier must learn by arduous drilling. There are times in battle when efficiency in this feat is highly useful, as in the case of the allied armies storming the ancient walls of Peking a few years ago. An American soldier from Iowa was the first man over the walls. The human ladder arrangement, one man climbing up over the shoulders of another, and so on, is among the thrills of the service.
