COACH FROST, OF UNIVERSITY OF OREGON TEAM, SAYS HIGH SCHOOL TEAM EXCELS HILL'S—ROOTERS TURN OUT AND PRACTICE THEIR YELLS

This evening the high school football eleven is out for a last practice before the game with H. M. A. tomorrow. Little huckling is being done but signals and new plays practiced in the main. Yesterday the team took its regular afternoon practice in the morning. This was done in order that Coach Frost might have time to give the team some special coaching. Wednesday they practiced on Kincaid field in order to use the "dummy" for tackling.

EUGENE HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM

Speaking of the Eugene team Frost said:

"I am confident your team will win, although Portland is heavier than your men, but you are far superior in speed and intelligence."

The lineup for tomorrow is as follows: Left end, Milt Burton; right end, Carl King or Gwynn Watson; left tackle, Chester Christman; right tackle, John Ellis; left guard, Ulysses Ellmaker; right guard, Edwin Bailey; center, Dan Mitchell; full back, Ben Chandler; right half back, Frank Knox; left half back, "Brick" Cockrell; full back, Gerald Preston; subs, Anderson, Kuykendall and Mummer.

The rooters have been turning out every evening in satisfactory numbers. Many new yells have been learned and they will be heard to no small extent tomorrow. Yell leader Harbour said today:

"Tomorrow we want all the alumni, the University of Oregon students in fact everybody with any voice at all, to turn out with the rooters in the east side of the grand stand."

The grand stand will be free and don't let anything like rain stop you from coming out.

In the evening the "E. H. S. Amusement Club" will give a dance to the high school students in honor of the Portland team at the armory.

per West Eighth and Lincoln streets, November 3 and 4, at 8 p. m., by E. W. Bretnissen, representing the W. T. Bible and Tract Society of Allegheny, Pennsylvania. In this last lesson scriptural answers will be given to the questions when, where and by whom each of these three ways have been or are to be opened, who enters thereon and the final destination of each of the ways.
