PRESIDENT TELLS WHY OLD MOTTO WAS NOT USED

Washington, Nov. 12.—The commission in answer to the protest received at the White House against the new gold coins without the words "In God We Trust," says in part: "When the question of the new coinage came up we looked into the law and found no warrant therein for putting 'In God We Trust' on the coins. As I did not approve of it I did not direct that it should again be put on. My own feelings in the matter are due to a very firm conviction that to put such a motto on coins or to use it in any kindred manner not only does no good, but does positive harm, and is in effect irreverence which comes dangerously close to sacrilege. A beautiful, solemn sentence such as the one in question should be treated and uttered only with that fine reverence which necessarily implies certain exaltation of spirit. Any use which tends to

SIXTY MILLIONS OF GOLD COMES FROM EUROPE

New York, Nov. 12.—Eighty millions in gold arrived on the steamer Oceanic today. More than $60,000,000 have been engaged abroad for import to the United States since the present movement began.

POWERS CLAIMS PARDON IS VALID

Georgetown, Ky., Nov. 13.—The third day of the trial of Caleb Powers opened with an increased attendance. The first move of the defense was the filing of three important depositions to support the validity of Taylor's claims to the governorship, making good the pardon issued to Powers. One was from Attorney-General Griggs, under President McKinley; another was from Taylor himself and the third from United States District Attorney William Smith.

SPOONER APPEARS FOR HARRIMAN

New York, Nov. 12.—Arguments before the interstate commerce commission to compel Harriman to answer certain questions were begun before Judge Hough in the United States court today. Interest was added to the proceedings by the appearance of former United States Senator Spooner as attorney for Harriman.

WALSH JURY IS COMPLETED AND SWORN

Chicago, Nov. 12.—The jury to try John R. Walsh, former president of the Chicago National bank, on charges of embezzlement, was completed and sworn today.

Julia, an Indian woman, was found by the police of Tacoma Saturday in the rear of the Tacoma hotel on the cliff side with her two children nearly frozen. She had evidently lost all mother love for the little ones, as she tried to push them down the cliff side, and later to sell them to the officers.

POLYGAMIST PARMENTER UNDER ARREST

MAN WHO MARRIED AGAIN WHILE FIRST WIFE WAS LIVING TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

ARRESTED NEAR WALKER STATION YESTERDAY AFTERNOON—CLAIMS HE THOUGHT WIFE NO. 1 WAS DEAD—LIVES ON A FARM AND IS AN OLD SOLDIER

David H. Parmenter, an aged farmer residing about three miles from Walker station, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff C. G. Hammond on the charge of polygamy and was brought to Eugene last evening and placed in the county jail to await his examination before Justice of the Peace Bryson.

The fact that Parmenter had more than one wife was brought to light through the filing of a divorce suit against him on the sixth of the present month by Mrs. Sarah E. Parmenter, wife No. 1, as mentioned by The Guard at the time. She alleged in her complaint that she left home in July, 1906, and went to Tacoma, where she has been staying with her daughter. On October 21 Parmenter was married in Eugene to Mrs. Louisa A. Bowen. Mrs. Parmenter No. 1 heard of the marriage and at once came to Eugene and began divorce proceedings. The first marriage occurred in Vermont November 12, 1862.

Parmenter states that he did not know he was committing bigamy, or polygamy, thinking his first wife dead. He says that when she left for Tacoma the doctors said she could not live more than two weeks longer, and that shortly afterward he heard that she had died.

Mrs. Parmenter No. 1 and Mrs. Parmenter No. 2 have both been in Eugene since the beginning of the divorce proceedings.

Parmenter is between 60 and 70 years of age, and is an old soldier belonging to the G. A. R. He is well-known among the local members of that order.

When Parmenter was arraigned before the justice of the peace this afternoon he waived examination and was bound over to the circuit court in the sum of $100. He furnished bail and will be at liberty until the time of his trial, which will occur about the first of December if the holiday period is over by that time.
