

S.S.S. FORTY YEARS SUCCESSFUL SERVICE

When a medicine has stood the test for a period of more than two generations and is then more popular than ever, there can be no doubt of its merit. This is the record of S. S. S. Its period of existence is marked by a long line of cures of blood and skin diseases of every character, and its value in the treatment of such troubles has become so well known that it is today the most extensively used blood medicine on the market. For Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases and all other troubles due to an impure or poisoned condition of the blood, S. S. S. has no equal. It counteracts and drives out the poisons, humors and germs, cleanses the system of all unhealthy matter, cures the disease permanently and restores strong, robust health. Where the blood is weak or anemic, and unable to furnish the body with the nourishment and strength it needs, S. S. S. supplies it with the healthful properties and acts splendidly in toning up and reinvigorating the system. It goes down to the very bottom of all blood disorders, and in this way reaches inherited taints on which the ordinary blood medicines have no effect. Not only is S. S. S. certain in its results, but it is at the same time an absolutely safe remedy. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks of known healing and curative value. It does not contain the slightest trace of mineral in any form to damage the delicate parts of the system, and may be used by children with the same good results and perfect safety as by older people. It is not an experiment to use S. S. S.; it is a remedy with a record and one that has proven its worth by its forty years of successful service. If you are in need of a blood purifier for any cause begin the use of S. S. S., write our physicians and they will send you a book concerning your trouble, and will give without charge any special medical advice that is required.

S. P. AND FISCHER BROS. MAKE CUT OF 25 AND 50 CENTS A DAY—OTHER NOTES

(Special Correspondence.)

Margola, Nov. 13.—Robert Whitebeck came down from Wendling and bought a lot from C. Cole, paying $100 for it.

Quite a commodious depot is being built at its place, work beginning last Tuesday.

Robert Drury and daughters, Nellie and Maud, after a few days' visit with friends and relatives at this place, returned to their home at Pleasant Hill.

Leon Myers, of the Eugene Divinity School, preached an interesting sermon at this place Sunday a 3 p. m. in the Woodmen hall. After this his hours will be 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

The postoffice was moved last Saturday from Fischer's office to Price & Weber's store. Walter Price, the new postmaster, has had considerable experience along that line and will no doubt give good service to the public.

Mrs. L. C. Sturgill, of Baker City, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Norman Rowen, thinks of making his her future home.

A series of meetings will be held by Rev. D. E. Olson, of Cottage Grove, commencing about December 20. Mr. Olson is a graduate of the Eugene Divinity School and a very able speaker. Every one should remember the date and come to hear him.

In spite of the wage cut of 25 and 50 cents per day made by the S. P. and Fischer Bros.' mills, all of the hands continue their work.

Willie Getts preached Sunday evening in the M. E. church. He will preach again two weeks from that date.

BIG MILLS CLOSED BY FINANCIAL PANIC

Boston, Mass., Nov. 12.—Owing to the financial depression, the numerous big mills throughout New England today closed or have gone on short schedules. The Rice & Hutchings shoe factories at Rock Island, Marlborough and Braintree have gone on half time to continue indefinitely. Two thousand two hundred men are affected. At Westboro the Hunt Leather Goods factory, H. E. Bingham Shoe Company and Hassell Lace Curtain Company began running on short time, with some layoffs. The Merchants' woolen mill, employing 500, closed for six weeks. Hope & Maynard, a branch of the American Woolen Company, closed yesterday, affecting 2000 employees. It will open Monday.

OSTEOPATHY AND WOMANKIND

The diseases of women are often neglected the long because of the embarrassment incident to examination and are still often complicated as a result of the administration of poisonous drugs. Osteopathy offers a treatment which has achieved better results than any other; which is natural and hence does not establish further evil conditions; and which, involving local examination and treatment less often than other methods, is in no way trying to the most sensitive woman. Moreover, Osteopathy treatment frequently accomplishes by perfectly natural and painless methods complete cures in cases in which operations are usually resorted to; and operations, it should be remembered, seldom leave the patient well and very often indeed lay the foundation for fresh troubles. That distinguished woman who once declared, after personal experience with Osteopathy, that even had it no other application than to the ills of women it would have made its founder, Dr. A. T. Still, immortal, did not exaggerate.

AMUSEMENTS

The star of "Raffles, the Amateur Cracksman," which will be the attraction at the Eugene theatre Thursday, November 14, is S. Miller Kent, who, besides being recognized as the best young romantic actor in America, incidentally holds the world's record as a quick understudy, which he won during Nat C. Goodwin's engagement in "An American Citizen" at the Duke of York's theatre in London a few years ago.

During the performance one Friday night Goodwin was taken so ill that it was found necessary to send him to a hospital. Before he left the theatre, however, he sent his stage manager, Bud Woodthorpe, in search of Mr. Kent, who happened to be spending his summer vacation over there. Woodthorpe found him at the Hotel Cecil, and carried him to the Duke of York's theatre, where Goodwin fell on his neck and besought him to come to his assistance and get up in the part for the next (Saturday night's) performance.

Kent, although fearful of the result, was finally prevailed upon to make the effort. He took the part to the hotel and worked on it until 7 o'clock in the morning when, utterly worn out, he fell on his bed and slept for two hours. Woodthorpe then called for him and took him to the theatre, where he rehearsed until 5 in the afternoon.

By that time Mr. Kent was letter perfect in two acts and had begun to get some idea of the other two. When he returned to the theatre after dinner, however, he was determined not to try and go on. If he failed he figured that it would injure his reputation. The manager of the house and all of the actors, who were of course his friends, at length persuaded him to make up for the character and he went on.

To make a long story short he went through the first two acts as if he had been playing in the piece all his life, but he was afraid to continue, until the stage manager went before the curtain and made a speech explaining the circumstances and asking the indulgence of the audience for the young actor. When he went on in the third act Mr. Kent carried his part in his hand, but the audience had by that time begun to admire his pluck and he was applauded as few American actors have ever been in London.

Mr. Kent had saved the day, for if he had refused to go on the run of the play would have been broken and in all probability the company would have been disbanded and the actors sent back to America.

On less than eighteen hours' notice he had gotten up in and played a star part in London. By Monday night he was of course comparatively easy, and he played with much success for the next two weeks.

Mr. Kent has as a souvenir of this incident in his career a silver cigar safe presented to him by Charles Frohman, with whom he was under contract at that time.

Not one dull moment at the Gem. A continuous show. New people and a different kind of a show in every respect. Tonight.

DENTISTS MUST HAVE CERTIFICATES

Dentists practicing in Oregon without holding a license from the state board of dental examiners will have to go to jail according to the determination of the members of the board of examiners. The regular dentists of the state have raised a fund of $5000 with which they will commence proceedings against the "hush-whacking" dentists of the state.

It is claimed by members of the board that there are between 30 and 40 of these dentists operating in the city of Portland alone. These men for the most part are not graduates of any college or school of dentistry, but have picked up something about the profession, and have proceeded to open up an office and practice. There are a few regular dentists, however, who have a desirable clientele, who, it is said, will not take the examinations of the board.

MAKES LIFE MISERABLE Troubles That Keep Half the Eugene Doctors Busy.

Half the prescriptions the Eugene doctors write are for troubles that result directly from a weak stomach. Strengthen the stomach muscles, increase the secretion of gastric juices, and you will find that common afflictions—indigestion, with its headaches, dizziness, depression of spirits, spots before the eyes, nervousness, sleeplessness and general debility—have been overcome.

From now on build up the strength and health of the stomach with Miona stomach tablets. You will soon find yourself strong and never know the meaning of indigestion.

If Miona did not have an unusually curative effect in stomach disorders, it could not be sold on the guarantee given by Hull's drug store to refund the money unless it does all that is claimed for it. Mr. Hull gives an absolute, unqualified guarantee with every 50-cent box of Miona that the money will be refunded unless the medicine cures. He takes the whole risk, and you can certainly afford to get Miona from them on this plan.
