MCPARLAND IS UNDER FIRE FROM DARROW

Spokane, Nov. 13.—The entire forenoon of the Adams trial at Rathdrum was occupied by the cross-examination of Detective James McParland. Attorney Darrow went into the history of McParland from his birth. McParland said he had gained many confessions from accused men, both inside and outside of prisons. In obtaining confessions he usually told the man the state as a rule dealt liberally with those who turned state's evidence. He was a member of the Molly Maguires two years for the purpose of obtaining evidence against them, and as a result of his investigation 18 men were hanged and later five or six more were hanged.

During the cross-examination Attorney Hawley made vigorous objections, but was overruled, the court stating that it proposed to be more liberal than usual in this case.

Much animosity was exhibited between Darrow and Hawley and both were reprimanded by the court. Each then apologized to the court and to each other.

Yesterday Adams' confession to McParland, admitting the murder of Taylor, was admitted in evidence.

COMMERICAL CLUB TRANSACTS BUSINESS

EXCURSION TO PORTLAND ON THANKSGIVING DAY, WHICH WILL BE "BOOSTER DAY" FOR EUGENE

The regular monthly business meeting of the Commercial Club was held last night at which several important questions were discussed, among them being that of an excursion to Portland on Thanksgiving day, the date of the Oregon-Multnomah football game. A committee consisting of G. D. Linn, Robert McMurphy, Wm. Polders, G.W. Griffin and Alton Hampton was appointed to arrange the details of the excursion. The day will be "booster day" for Eugene and as many citizens as possible are urged to accompany the excursion and wear Eugene badges.

A letter from General Manager O'Brien to President Whitson, of the club, was read in which he stated that room in the new S. P. depot could be had for an exhibit of Lane county's resources, but the suggestion was made that space could be had for a separate building to be erected in the grounds for the purpose.

The matter of diseased meat and milk being sold in Eugene was discussed and it was decided that an investigation of the report by the proper authorities should be made.

HARTOG SPEAKS TO PORTLANDERS

That the financial flurry has passed the danger point was the opinion expressed by Theodore B. Wilcox in his remarks last night at the monthly dinner of the Commercial Club. Mr. Wilcox recently returned from New York, where he witnessed runs on several large banking houses and contrasted the feverish anxiety of the depositors with the behavior of the Portland creditors. Mr. Wilcox said that financial conditions in Oregon were so different and so much better than they were in New York that he left for home ten days sooner than he had intended. Mr. Wilcox's reassuring remarks were listened to with interest by the largest company that has assembled at any of the dinners this season.

Other addresses dealing with the publicity work of various commercial bodies of the state were delivered by John H. Whyte, of Astoria, A. A. Jayne, of Hood River, W. B. Johnson, of Corvallis, John H. Hartog, recently appointed manager of the Oregon Commercial Club, C. W. Hodson and Tom Richardson.—Oregonian.

BISHOP BELL SPEAKS OF 'FRISCO GRAFTERS

"FULL POWERED CHRISTIANITY" WAS HIS SUBJECT LAST NIGHT AT UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH

"Full Powered Christianity" was Bishop W. M. Bell's subject at the United Brethren church last evening. He said a great many Christians were not unlike a steamship being buffeted about by wind and waves because it lacked sufficient power to turn its prow into the face of the wind. He said he believed it to be his duty and the duty of every minister of the gospel to inspire church members into a full powered Christianity.

If the ears of some of the opponents of good morals in San Francisco did not burn last evening it was no fault of the bishop's. He took occasion to narrate some of the incidents that took place in that city during the recent campaign which resulted in the overwhelming defeat of the grafters and their supporters, and laying bare corruption in many walks of life. He said the American people are becoming more and more insistent upon public servants possessing character. It was becoming more and more evident that it was unprofitable to engage in questionable pursuits. The public demands and is determined to have our public offices filled by men of sound moral character. When this condition in our public life becomes a fact, the United States will be one of the grandest, greatest and most powerful nation the world has ever known.

Services as usual tonight.
