D. OF H. CONVENTION CLOSES TONIGHT

The district convention of the Degree of Honor, which met in this city yesterday afternoon, will come to a close tonight after one of the most pleasant and successful meetings ever held.

Last night's session was especially interesting. Mrs. Herron, past grand chief, and others addressed the meeting and the discussions were all in the line of the laws of the order. At noon lunch was served in the hall and this evening at 8 o'clock a chicken dinner will be served. This promises to be an elaborate affair.

Tonight the regular meeting of Ivy Lodge will be held and the visiting delegates will assist in the work. There are in attendance over 20 delegates, the lodges at Salem, Albany, Jefferson, Junction City and Harrisburg, besides the one at Eugene, being represented.

MARRIED.

In Eugene, today, November 13, 1907, at 3 p. m., Clarence Alford and Miss Lela J. Dimmick, Justice of the Peace R. S. Bryson officiating. The young people reside at Coburg, where they are very popular and have hosts of friends who wish them a long and prosperous married life. The ceremony was witnessed by only a few relatives and intimate friends.

for the past twenty-five years. Charles Miller and wife, who have lived several miles west of Eugene for several years past, left today for their old home in Kentucky, where they expect to reside hereafter.

FRANK COWAN COMMITTED TO INSANE ASYLUM

Frank Cowan, of this city, was suddenly seized with insanity on the streets last evening and it took Patrolman Croner and several strong men to take him to the county jail, where he was bound to prevent him from doing himself bodily harm.

What A Certificate of Deposit With Us Will Do For You.

- 1st—It will have the money ready for you whenever you need it—for the day of opportunity or the "rainy day."
- 2nd—It will work for you and with you all the time; the earnings can be drawn annually or added to the principal, as you choose.
- 3rd—It will strengthen and build up your character. Every dollar saved is a victory of your common sense and your will power.

This was the first bank in the county to pay interest on certificates of deposit and its successful business career of fifteen years has demonstrated the soundness and conservatism of its management.

CITY NEWS

Weather Prediction
Tonight and Thursday, light rain.

The funeral of Miss Lillian Harwood will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. D. H. Trimble addressed the girls of the high school at the assembly this afternoon.

The Little Gem theatre will reopen Friday night, being dark tonight and tomorrow night.

The rain came this morning as a surprise. Everybody was looking for a continuation of the fog and sunshine.

E. C. Lake, the marble worker, today received a carload of stone from Tenino, Wash., to be used for monument bases.

Quite a number of members of the local lodge of Elks from Cottage Grove came down today to attend the meeting tonight.

The 14-year-old daughter of J. O. Bristow, residing on West Fifth Street, is quite ill from diphtheria. The house is quarantined.

E. C. Smith writes M. S. Hubble from Dover, Del., that he has leased his residence here until April next year, and he and his wife will not be back until then.

Mayor Matlock has appointed Wm. Crane as a delegate to the Trans-Mississippi congress. He is entitled to appoint another one, and says that he will name any one who wishes to go and will hand in his name.

The Catholic ladies will give a fair and supper in the Paine block Saturday. The room will then be empty. The Racket store moving to East Ninth street and the plumbing shop which is to move in not being yet ready to make the change.

Marriage licenses were issued today to the following: John W. Monday, aged 34 years, and residing at Harrisburg, and Miss Nettie Davison, aged 21 and living in Lane county; Clarence Alford, aged 21, and Miss Lela L. Dimick, aged 18, both of Coburg.

Dr. J. W. Harris has purchased from A. Lombard a residence property on Jefferson street, near West Eighth. The lot is 54x110 feet and the residence is two stories high and contains seven rooms. The price paid is $1800. The doctor will improve the property and rent it.

The town clock in the court house tower runs slow, according to the jewelers and watchmakers who keep regulators. Today it was about six minutes slow. Nearly everybody in the city set their watches by the town clock, and it should be regulated or we will soon find ourselves a day or two behind time.

The management of the Eugene theatre wishes to announce that on account of the number of attractions that are coming to the theatre this week there will be no reservations made for seats for the concert Friday night, and that seats will be on sale Friday morning at 9 o'clock promptly, and first come will be first served.

The Eugene Military band will give another concert and dance in the armory on the evening of Friday, November 22. A fine program for the concert is being prepared and the dance music will be up to the usual standard. The first affair of the kind given by the band last month proved a splendid social as well as a financial success, and the band hopes to duplicate it this time.

Mrs. J. B. Hopkins and son, Dwight, returned last evening from the bedside of Mrs. Gertrude Porter, who is lying very low of appendicitis. Dr. Ellis, of Albany, advised an operation as bordering on the nearest of a hope of her recovery. She was removed on a cot to Albany hospital with the attending physician and her parents. Professor H. L. Hopkins took the early train to be with the parents during the operation.

Al Montgomery, who fell out of his wagon on the road to the McKenzie valley Monday night, breaking his leg, and spent the night in the cold open air, was brought to the Yates lodging house late yesterday afternoon and Dr. T. W. Harris set the broken bone. The story of the accident as told by Montgomery is substantially as given by The Guard last evening. His team became frightened and threw him out, the wheels passing over his right leg, breaking the bones between the knee and ankle. He is now getting along as well as could be expected.

I asked her hand, she said to me, Think you that I your wife would be? Your health is gone, your system wrong.

Go drink some Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea.
