
Busy Indeed Are We These Days

Our fine line of Stetson Shoes is appreciated by all who have visited our store. We invite you to call and see them. Try them on, note the fit, and comfort, and you will be convinced that there is just as much difference between Stetson High Grade Shoes and the ordinary shoe, as there is between cotton and silk. They cost more, but it comes back in the wear.

ADAMS DEFENSE MEETS SURPRISE AT RATHDRUM

Rathdrum, Ida., Nov. 20.—The state sprung a surprise on the defense in the Steve Adams case today when it made an attempt to bring in evidence of other confessions which are alleged to have been made by Adams in relation to other crimes in which the defendant is said to have been involved with officers of the Western Federation of Miners. At the first trial of Adams, at Wallace, Ida., last February, no such attempt was made by the state for the reason that it did not want the defense to become familiar with evidence which might be used in the Haywood case. Now the state wants to throw open the entire case.

Most of the morning was spent in fighting the right of the state to bring in other confessions other than that in which Adams implicates himself in the murder of Fred Tyler, and the court has taken the matter under advisement.

Judge Woods stated this morning before he had heard authorities presented by the state that in his opinion that matter should not be brought into this case.

In the event of the state being allowed to ask the defendant about other confessions it is stated that one of the state's witnesses in rebuttal will surely be Harry Orchard. Otherwise the notorious Harry will not be brought here.

Attorneys for the defense are making ready to fight against the extradition to Colorado of Adams in the event of his acquittal here.

There is no probability of Adams being rearrested here on the charge of murdering Boule, but it is sure that in the event of his acquittal he will be arrested on the charge of murdering Collins at Telluride, and it is claimed that a Colorado officer is already on the way to this state with papers.

S. C. Thiele, the Pinkerton detective, was the first witness today. He was asked whether or not at the time he went to Oregon to get Mrs. Adams he had informed her that she need not take any great supply of clothing with her, as her husband would soon be at liberty to return to Oregon. The objection of the state was sustained.

William O'Neil, a St. Joe hotelkeeper, identified the hotel register, showing the date of Adams' stop at St. Joe en route out of the marble creek region.

Adams was recalled for further cross-examination. Hawley searched the defendant's past life and efforts were made to connect criminal actions with Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone. Adams positively denied any criminal, or even any intimate relations with the three great labor leaers. Hawley questioned the witness closely as to where he had got money with which he had paid his expenses in traveling over the country.

ALWAYS WAS SICK

When a man says he always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Such a man exists. J. C. Clark, Denver, Colorado, writes: "For several years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me."

SWINDLER WORKS ROSEBURG MERCHANT WITH BAD CHECK

Roseburg, Or., Nov. 20.—Josephson's, a large dry goods establishment in this city, was victimized last Saturday to the extent of $59 in merchandize and $20 in money. Buying a bill of goods, consisting of a suit of clothes, a hat, a pair of shoes, some underwear and a grip sack the swindler tendered in payment a spurious check for $100.84. The check was drawn by "Isaak Wright" upon the Douglas County Bank, of this city, in favor of "C. W. Tuttle," whom the purchaser represented himself to be. On account of the prevailing money stringency, the customer was given only $20 in cash, the remainder, amounting to $30.84, being paid in a check.

The swindle was discovered Monday, when Josephson learned upon presenting the check at the bank that "Isaak Wright" was a myth. The authorities were immediately notified and attempts are now being made to locate the swindler, who was seen at the Southern Pacific depot a few minutes prior to the departure of the northbound overland train Saturday night.

The fugitive is described as being slightly under medium height and weighing about 140 pounds. He is of middle age, smooth shaven and has sandy hair. The suit of clothes which he secured at Josephson's is of a dark fancy worsted pattern, the hat is of light shade and the suitcase is brown.

LARGEST THEATRICAL PRODUCTION IN EUGENE

"The Alaskan" is without doubt the largest production and the greatest comic opera that has ever come to Eugene.

The company consists of exactly 68 people, and carry for their accommodation two Pullman cars.

They also carry two 60-foot baggage cars for their scenery and trunks.

That the production will go on the Eugene stage in its entirety goes without question, as the Eugene stage will take on any production that can be put on any stage in the Northwest.

Mr. Smith, the manager of the Eugene theatre, signed the baggage contract with the company, and their orders call for eight large loads of scenery and 70 trunks. This means that "The Alaskan" company will pay one of our transfer companies $63.50 for hauling their baggage from the depot to the theatre and return.

Seats for "TheAlaskan' " will be on sale at the box office Friday morning at 9 o'clock. Prices, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00.

Will You Ever Earn More Than $2.00 A Day?

Do you work with your hands or with your head? It is estimated that the man who works with his hands can earn about $2.00 a day. There is no limit to the earning capacity of the man who works with his head. If he is trained so that he can plan and direct the work of others he is worth many times as much as the ordinary wage earner.

The INTERNATIONAL CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOLS, of Scranton, Pa., can educate your brain to work for you. Hundreds of men have already realized this and have taken advantage of the opportunity offered them by the I. C. S. They bear testimony to the fact that what the I. C. S. says it can do it will do.

If you have never harkened to the voice of opportunity, con't let the chance to better your position and to raise your salary pass by. Hundreds of men date their success from the day they first came in contact with the I. C. S., from the first time they they saw an ad like this. If they failed to act they would still be struggling along at a poor salary. Therefore if you want to earn more, it's up to you to ACT NOW.

The local Representative of the I. C. S. will be pleased to give you any information regarding any course of study you desire to take up.
